INDUSTRIAL AGREEMENT DECLARED TO BE AN AWARD.

In the Court of Arbitration of New Zealand, Wellington Industrial District.

Monday, the 2nd day of October, 1933.

WHEREAS on the 17th day of July, 1933, an industrial agreement was made between G. A. Set 2: Between 7.30 a.m. and 5 p.m., and 7.30 a.m. and 12.30 p.m. on the day of the weekly half-holiday.

The weekly half-holiday shall be either Wednesday or Saturday within a radius of twenty-five miles from the Chief Post-office at Wellington, and either Wednesday, Thursday, or Saturday outside that radius.

The daily working-hours under this agreement shall be worked continuously, and not more than one hour shall be allowed for dinner. No worker shall be permitted to do any work coming within the scope of this agreement earlier than 7 a.m., except as hereinafter provided.

(b) (i) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary hereinbefore contained, employees may be required to commence work on one morning of the week at 6 a.m. and as provided for in subclause (b) (ii) hereof, and on such day or days half an hour shall be allowed for breakfast: In the case of workers employed under the first set of hours (set 1) of this clause being required to work until 12.30 p.m. on the day of the weekly half-holiday, such workers' starting-time in the morning under this subclause shall be 6.30 a.m. in lieu of 6 a.m. Provided that workers engaged in carting meat from the abattoirs or slaughterhouses may be required to commence work at an earlier hour than that hereinbefore prescribed, provided such worker is allowed equivalent time off at the end of the day, and provided further that one hour is allowed for the worker to partake of his breakfast.

(ii) In any week in which a whole holiday or two whole holidays fall it shall be competent for workers to commence work at 6 a.m. on two mornings in such week without extra payment, provided half an hour is allowed off for breakfast.

Workers may be employed from the hour of 6 a.m. for the purpose of cutting orders which have to be delivered by service car leaving the town in which the shop is situated prior to 7.30 a.m., providing equivalent time off is allowed such workers at the end of the day.

(iii) In the event of any of the holidays mentioned in clause 6 of this agreement falling on the day of the worker's usual weekly half-holiday, such worker shall be granted a half-day off from the hour of 12 noon on some day other than the day usually observed as the worker's weekly half-holiday, either in the week preceding or following the week in which such whole holiday occurs: Provided it shall not be necessary for a half-holiday to be given in any week when two whole holidays occur and when such holiday falls on the worker's usual half-holiday.

(c) For the purpose of calculating the hours of work each of the holidays hereinafter mentioned shall be deemed to be a day worked for the number of hours usually worked on that day of the week, although no work shall have been actually done on such holiday.

(d) An employer may require a worker to work up to 12.45 p.m. on the day of the half-holiday for the purpose of cleaning up the shop without payment of overtime, subject, however, to the weekly number of hours not being exceeded.
