F. V. FRAZER, Judge.

SCHEDULE.

Hours of Work.

1. The ordinary hours of work shall be as prescribed by the Factories Act, but shall not exceed forty-five hours in any one week in the case of boys under sixteen years of age and women, nor forty-eight hours in any one week in the case of other male workers.

Wages.

2. (a) Journeymen shall be paid a minimum wage of 1s. 10d. per hour.

(b) A "journeyman" is a male worker who has served five years at work covered by this award, but shall not include workers employed under clauses 3 and 12.

Improvers.

3. (a) An apprentice having completed his term of apprenticeship may be employed as an improver for one year after the expiration of the period of his apprenticeship either by the employer with whom he has been apprenticed or by any other employer at not less than 1s. 2d. per hour for the first six months and 1s. 4d. per hour for the next six months.

(b) Any worker having been employed under clause 4 may, on completion of five years' service or on attaining the age of twenty-one years, be employed either by the same employer or by any other employer at not less than 1s. 2d. per hour for the first six months and 1s. 4d. per hour for the next six months.

Youths.

4. (a) Youths may be employed at not less than the following rates of wages:—

				Per Week.
				£	s.	d.
First year	0	15	0
Second year	1	2	6
Third year	1	10	0
Fourth year	1	17	6
Fifth year	2	5	0

(b) The proportion of youths to journeymen shall not exceed one youth to each journeyman employed.

(c) For the purposes of the preceding subclause apprentices employed under the provisions of the Apprentices Act shall be counted as youths, and employers working at the trade shall be counted as journeymen.

Female Workers.

5. The minimum rates of wages payable to female workers shall be:—

				Per Week.
				s.	d.
During the first year of service	12	6
During the second year of service	17	6
During the third year of service	22	6
During the fourth year of service	27	6
During the fifth year of service	32	6
Thereafter	37	6

Overtime.

6. (a) All work performed beyond the daily hours usually worked in any factory shall be considered overtime, and shall be paid for at the rate of time and a quarter for the first three hours' overtime worked on any day and thereafter at the rate of time and a half, provided that the overtime rate shall not be less than 9d. per hour.

(b) All time lost through a worker's own default shall be made up before overtime shall be paid.

Holidays.

7. (a) All work done on Sundays, Christmas Day, and Good Friday shall be paid for at double time rates. All work done on Boxing Day, New Year's Day, Easter Monday, Sovereign's Birthday, Labour Day, or Anniversary Day shall be paid for at the rate of time and a half. In country towns another day may be observed in lieu of Anniversary Day.

(b) All the provisions of the Factories Act relating to holidays shall apply. Particular attention is drawn to the following provisions:—

- (i) An employer shall allow to every boy under eighteen years of age and every woman the following holidays: Christmas Day, New Year's Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Labour Day, and the Sovereign's Birthday, and every such worker who has worked in the factory for at least twenty days during the four weeks next preceding any of such holidays shall be paid for same.
- (ii) If the factory is closed for a holiday on any day other than the days mentioned in the previous paragraph, every boy under eighteen years of age and every female worker under twenty-one years of age who has worked in the factory for at least twenty days during the four weeks next preceding such day shall be paid for same.

Deductions from Weekly Wages.

8. (a) An employer shall be entitled to make a rateable deduction from the weekly wages of any worker for any time lost by him or her through sickness, accident, or default, or on account of the temporary closing of the factory for cleaning or repairing the machinery.

(b) In addition to the deductions provided for in the preceding subclause an employer shall be entitled to make a rateable deduction from the wages of any male worker sixteen years of age or over and any female worker eighteen years of age or over for any time lost by reason of shortage of work, or on account of the closing of the factory or any part of it for stocktaking, or for cleaning, repairing, or altering the premises, or for the annual factory holidays, or for days on which the factory is closed, except as otherwise provided in clause 7 (b) hereof.

Termination of Engagement.

9. (a) In the case of workers on an hourly wage one hour's notice of the termination of the employment shall be given by the employer to the worker or by the worker to the employer as the case may be.

(b) In the case of workers on a weekly wage twenty-four hours' notice of the termination of the employment shall be given by the employer to the worker or by the worker to the employer as the case may be.

(c) Nothing in this clause shall prevent the summary dismissal of a worker for misconduct or other good cause.

Piecework.

10. Piecework may be worked in accordance with the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Amendment Act, 1932.

Disputes Committee.

11. The essence of this award being that the work of the employers shall always proceed as if no dispute had arisen, it is provided that if any dispute or difference shall arise between the parties bound by this award or any of them, as to any matter whatever arising out of or connected therewith, and not specifically dealt with in this award, every such dispute or difference as the same shall arise shall be referred to a committee, to be composed of two representatives of the union and two representatives of the employers, for their decision. The decision of the majority of the committee shall be binding, and if no decision is arrived at either party may appeal to the Court of Arbitration upon giving written notice of such appeal to the other party within fourteen days after the failure of the Disputes Committee to arrive at a decision, or the Disputes Committee may itself refer the matter to the Court of Arbitration for decision.

Under-rate Workers.

12. (a) Any worker who considers himself incapable of earning the minimum wage fixed by this award may be paid such lower wage as may from time to time be fixed, on the application of the worker after due notice to the union, by the local Inspector of Awards or such other person as the Court may from time to time appoint for that purpose; and such Inspector or other person in so fixing such wage shall have regard to the worker's capability, his past earnings, and such other circumstances as such Inspector or other person shall think fit to consider after hearing such evidence and argument as the union and such worker shall offer.

(b) Such permit shall be for such period, not exceeding six months, as such Inspector or other person shall determine, and after the expiration of such period shall continue in force until fourteen days' notice shall have been given to such worker by the secretary of the union requiring him to have his wage again fixed in manner prescribed by this clause: Provided that in the case of any person whose wage is so fixed by reason of old age or permanent disability it may be fixed for such longer period as such Inspector or other person shall think fit.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, it shall be competent for a worker to agree in writing with the president or secretary of the union upon such wage without having the same so fixed.

(d) It shall be the duty of the union to give notice to the Inspector of Awards of every agreement made with a worker pursuant hereto.

(e) It shall be the duty of an employer, before employing a worker at such lower wage, to examine the permit or agreement by which such wage is fixed.

Scope of Award.

13. (a) This award shall operate throughout the Northern Industrial District, and shall apply to all workers engaged in the manufacture of or repairing of suit and attache cases, trunks, hat boxes, kit and brief bags, zip bags, footballs, golf bags, school bags, and the like, ladies' handbags, fancy and general leather goods.

(b) Nothing in this award shall apply to workers engaged in the manufacture of or repairing of saddles, bridles, harness, collars, machine-beltting, military accoutrements, horse and cow covers, strapping, leggings, and other work of a like nature.

Term of Award.

14. This award shall come into force on the 18th day of February, 1935, and shall continue in force until the 18th day of February, 1936.

In witness whereof the seal of the Court of Arbitration hath hereto been put and affixed, and the Judge of the Court hath hereunto set his hand this 5th day of February, 1935.
