THE Court of Arbitration of New Zealand (hereinafter called "the Court"), having taken into consideration the matter of the above-mentioned dispute, and having heard the union by its representatives duly appointed, and having also heard such of the employers as were represented either in person or by their representatives duly appointed, and having also heard the witnesses called and examined and cross-examined by and on behalf of the said parties respectively, doth hereby order and award:—

That, as between the union and the members thereof and the employers and each and every of them, the terms, conditions, and provisions set out in the schedule hereto and of this award shall be binding upon the union and upon every member thereof and upon the employers and upon each and every of them, and that the said terms, conditions, and provisions shall be deemed to be and they are hereby incorporated in and declared to form part of this award; and, further, that the union and every member thereof and the employers and each and every of them shall respectively do, observe, and perform every matter and thing by this award and by the said terms, conditions, and provisions respectively required to be done, observed, and performed, and shall not do anything in contravention of this award or of the said terms, conditions, and provisions, but shall in all respects abide by and perform the same. And the Court doth hereby further award, order, and declare that any breach of the said terms, conditions, and provisions set out in the schedule hereto shall constitute a breach of this award, and that a penalty as by law provided shall be payable by any party or person in respect thereof. And the Court doth further order that this award shall take effect as hereinafter provided, and shall continue in force until the 30th day of September, 1937, and thereafter as provided by subsection (1) (d) of section 89 of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1925.

In witness whereof the seal of the Court of Arbitration hath hereto been affixed, and the Judge of the Court hath hereunto set his hand, this 16th day of December, 1936.

SCHEDULE.

Hours of Work.

1. The hours of work shall be between 6 a.m. and 8 p.m., except on Saturdays, when the hours of work shall be between 6 a.m. and noon, baling-out of the paddock excepted. When cutting or baling for shipment the hour for ceasing work on Saturday may be extended to 4 p.m., and when baling out of the paddock to 6 p.m., but no worker shall work by moonlight or artificial light except in cases of emergency, when fifteen minutes may be allowed to finish a set.

Number of Hands to be employed.

2. (a) Driver, feeder, stackman, and two bagmen. When cutting straw from stack the farmer shall find an extra man, and when cutting from a wallop two men.

(b) It shall not be deemed to be a breach of this clause if an employer is prevented from having the full complement of hands by reason of accident or absence of any worker through illness or any other cause beyond the control of the employer, but the employer shall make up the full complement of hands as soon as reasonably practicable, and while the plant is without the full complement the remaining workers shall receive the absent worker's pay distributed on an equal basis.

Rates of Pay.

		Oat Sheaf.		Straw.
		s.	d.
3. (a)	Driver	1 2	} Double oat sheaf rates.
	Feeder	1 1
	Stackman	1 0
	Bagmen	1 0

(b) When cutting oat sheaf, if the chaff is over thirty full size sacks to the ton, it shall be paid for at straw rates.

(c) All bags to be at the stack and in a convenient place when the machine arrives.

(d) Wages to be paid fortnightly in working-hours, and if the cheque is not on a local bank exchange to be added.

Determination of Employment.

4. (a) Should any man desire to leave the chaffcutter during the currency of the season he shall give the driver in charge forty-eight hours' notice of his intention to do so or forfeit two average days' pay. Should an employer desire to dismiss any worker he shall give him forty-eight hours' notice or two average days' pay, except where it shall be for incompetency or wilful disobedience of orders, when such dismissal may be summary and without compensation.

(b) Any worker leaving or being dismissed shall receive from the machine-owner all wages due at the termination of his employment; such wages to be paid at the mill, or time taken in collecting same to be paid for at the minimum rate.

Tally Representative.

5. One of the men in the bag-hole shall be elected by the men to keep tally of the bags.

Accommodation.

6. Where whares are not provided free of cost it shall be the duty of the employer to transport the men from his depot to and from their work each day.

Holidays.

7. (a) The following holidays shall be observed: Good Friday or Easter Monday, Anzac Day, Labour Day, Boxing Day, New Year's Day, local sports day, and picnic day, save and except when baling-out of paddock, when either Boxing Day or New Year's Day shall not be considered a holiday.

(b) Work done on any of these days shall be paid for at double ordinary rate; all work to cease at noon on Christmas Eve.

(c) Working on Sundays shall be strictly prohibited.

Union Organizer.

8. Reasonable facilities shall be given on each chaffcutter or baler to the union organizer, or other official of the union, to enable him to transact the business of the union, provided that the plant shall not be stopped for more than twenty minutes in any one season by reason of such visits. Any time so lost shall not be counted as working-time.

Temporary Disputes.

9. In every case a representative of the men shall be elected or chosen for each chaffcutter at each camp, and all trivial disputes that may arise not in contravention of this award shall be decided by the representatives of the men and the representative of the employer, and their decision shall be final.

Payment of Orders.

10. Each owner shall pay to the organizer of the union on demand out of wages due to the worker all moneys due to the union for the sale of tickets of enrolment at each machine on the written order of the man enrolled.

Medical Outfit.

11. (a) A fully equipped St. John ambulance kit or similar outfit shall be kept in a convenient and accessible place about the machine, but only to be used in case of accident.

(b) Should any worker meet with an injury which requires medical attention he shall be conveyed as speedily as possible to the nearest doctor or hospital at the expense of the employer.

Workers to be Members of Union.

12. (a) It shall not be lawful for any employer bound by this award to employ or to continue to employ in any position or employment subject to this award any adult person who is not for the time being a member of an industrial union of workers bound by this award or who is not for the time being a member of a trade-union which was registered as such before the 1st day of May, 1936, and which is bound by this award:

Provided, however, that any non-unionist may be continued in any position or employment by an employer bound by this award during any time while there is no member of a union bound by this award who is available to perform the particular work required to be done and is ready and willing to undertake it.

(b) For the purposes of subclause (a) of this clause a person of the age of eighteen years or upwards, and every other person who for the time being is in receipt of not less than the minimum rate of wages prescribed by this award for workers of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, shall be deemed to be an adult.

(NOTE.—Attention is drawn to subsection (4) of section 18 of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Amendment Act, 1936, which gives to workers the right to join the union.)

Number of Hands to be employed on Bales and Pressers.

13. (a) Where a power baler is used there shall be five men. When baling out of paddock the farmer shall man the sweep.

(b) Where a hand baler is used two men shall be employed.

(c) When baling out of a wallop the farmer shall find an extra man.

Rates of Pay on Balers and Pressers.

	Hay.		Straw.
	Per Ton.		Per Ton.
	s.	d.	s.	d.
14. (a) Driver and feeder ..	1	4	1	7
Men	1	3	1	6
(b) Wiremen to keep tally of bales pressed.

Posting of Award.

15. A copy of this award shall be posted up at each machine by the employers for the information of the men.

Scope of Award.

16. This award shall operate throughout that part of the Canterbury Industrial District lying north of the Rangitata River.

Term of Award.

17. This award in so far as it relates to wages shall be deemed to have come into force on the 9th day of November, 1936, and so far as all the other conditions of this award are concerned it shall come into force on the day of the date hereof; and this award shall continue in force until the 30th day of September, 1937.

In witness whereof the seal of the Court of Arbitration hath hereto been put and affixed, and the Judge of the Court hath hereunto set his hand, this 16th day of December, 1936.
