

DUNEDIN WAX-VESTA EMPLOYEES.—AWARD.

In the Court of Arbitration of New Zealand, Otago and Southland Industrial District.—In the matter of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1925; and in the matter of an industrial dispute between the Dunedin Wax-vesta Employees' Industrial Union of Workers (hereinafter called "the union") and the undermentioned company (hereinafter called "the employers") :—

New Zealand Wax-Vesta Co., Ltd., 68 David Street, Caversham, Dunedin.

THE Court of Arbitration of New Zealand (hereinafter called "the Court"), having taken into consideration the matter of the above-mentioned dispute, and having heard the union by its representatives duly appointed, and having also heard such of the employers as were represented either in person or by their representatives duly appointed, and having also heard the witnesses called and examined and cross-examined by and on behalf of the said parties respectively, doth hereby order and award :—

That, as between the union and the members thereof and the employers and each and every of them, the terms, conditions, and provisions set out in the schedule hereto and of this award shall be binding upon the union and upon every member thereof and upon the employers and upon each and every of them, and that the said terms, conditions, and provisions shall be deemed to be and they are hereby incorporated in and declared to form part of this award; and, further, that the union and every member thereof and the employers and each and every of them shall respectively do, observe, and perform every matter and thing by this award and by the said terms, conditions, and provisions respectively required to be done, observed, and performed, and shall not do anything in contravention of this award or of the said terms, conditions, and provisions, but shall in all respects abide by and perform the same. And the Court doth hereby further award, order, and declare that any breach of the said terms, conditions, and provisions set out in the schedule hereto shall constitute a breach of this award, and that a penalty as by law provided shall be payable by any party or person in respect thereof. And the Court doth further order that this award shall take effect from the 22nd day of February, 1937, and shall continue in force until the 22nd day of February, 1938, and thereafter as provided by subsection (1) (d) of section 89 of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1925.

In witness whereof the seal of the Court of Arbitration hath hereto been affixed, and the Judge of the Court hath hereunto set his hand this 22nd day of February, 1937.

And thereafter the rate fixed for adult male workers.

(c) Wages for Adult Male Workers.—Adult male workers employed in or about the factory shall be paid not less than £4 4s. per week.

(d) No employee who was, prior to this award coming into force, in receipt of a higher wage than is herein prescribed, shall have such wage reduced.

Overtime.

3. (a) All time worked on any one day in excess of the regular daily hours shall be paid for at the rate of time and a half for the first four hours and double time thereafter, with a minimum payment of 1s. 6d. per hour. When workers are called upon to work overtime beyond one hour after the usual time for ceasing work and have not been notified on the previous day, or reside at such a distance that they cannot reasonably get home for a meal, they shall be allowed 1s. 6d. meal-money.

(b) Double rates shall be paid for any work done on Saturday afternoon, Sunday, or any of the following holidays: Christmas Day, Boxing Day, New Year's Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Labour Day, Anzac Day, and the Sovereign's Birthday.

Holidays.

4. The following shall be observed as holidays and shall be allowed without deduction of pay: Christmas Day, Boxing Day, New Year's Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Labour Day, Anzac Day, and the Sovereign's Birthday.

General Conditions.

5. (a) Wages shall be paid weekly not later than on Friday.

(b) The employer shall be entitled to make a rateable deduction from the wages of any worker for any time lost through sickness or default, or on account of the temporary closing of the factory for cleaning or repairing the machinery, or through any interruption of manufacturing processes caused by climatic conditions.

(c) If work is not available at the factory for any worker or workers on an ordinary working-day, the employer shall give notice to such workers on the previous day that their attendance will not be required. If such notice is not given and any worker presents himself for employment in the morning, such worker shall be entitled to a half-day's pay. If any worker has so presented himself in the morning and is required to attend in the afternoon and no work is available, such worker shall be entitled to a further half-day's pay.

(d) When slackness of work or the exigencies of trade render it necessary to work short-time, the employer shall distribute the work as evenly amongst the workers of each class as circumstances will permit, and in such cases workers shall be paid only for the time actually worked.

Matters not provided for.

6. Any dispute in connection with any matter not provided for in this award shall be mutually arranged between two representatives of the union and the manager. In the event of their being unable to agree, the matter shall be referred to the Conciliation Commissioner for settlement. Either party, if dissatisfied with the decision of the Conciliation Commissioner, shall have the right to appeal to the Court.

Workers to be Members of Union.

7. (a) It shall not be lawful for any employer bound by this award to employ or to continue to employ, in any position or employment subject to this award, any adult person who is not for the time being a member of an industrial union of workers bound by this award or who is not for the time being a member of a trade-union which was registered as such before the 1st day of May, 1936, and which is bound by this award:

Provided, however, that any non-unionist may be continued in any position or employment by an employer bound by this award during any time while there is no member of a union bound by this award who is available to perform the particular work required to be done and is ready and willing to undertake it.

(b) For the purposes of subclause (a) of this clause, a person of the age of eighteen years or upwards, and every other person who for the time being is in receipt of not less than the minimum rate of wages prescribed by this award for workers of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, shall be deemed to be an adult.

(NOTE.—Attention is drawn to subsection (4) of section 18 of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Amendment Act, 1936, which gives to workers the right to join the union.)

Under-rate Workers.

8. (a) Any worker who considers himself incapable of earning the minimum wage fixed by this award may be paid such lower wage as may from time to time be fixed, on the application of the worker after due notice to the union, by the local Inspector of Awards or such other person as the Court may from time to time appoint for that purpose; and such Inspector or other person in so fixing such wage shall have regard to the worker's capability, his past earnings, and such other circumstances as such Inspector or other person shall think fit to consider after hearing such evidence and argument as the union and such worker shall offer.

(b) Such permit shall be for such period, not exceeding six months, as such Inspector or other person shall determine, and after the expiration of such period shall continue in force until fourteen days' notice shall have been given to such worker by the secretary of the union requiring him to have his wage again fixed in manner prescribed by this clause: Provided that in the case of any person whose wage is so fixed by reason of old age or permanent disability it may be fixed for such longer period as such Inspector or other person shall think fit.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, it shall be competent for a worker to agree in writing with the president or secretary of the union upon such wage without having the same so fixed.

(d) It shall be the duty of the union to give notice to the Inspector of Awards of every agreement made with a worker pursuant hereto.

(e) It shall be the duty of an employer, before employing a worker at such lower wage, to examine the permit or agreement by which such wage is fixed.

Scope of Award.

9. This award shall apply only to the parties named herein.

Term of Award.

10. This award shall come into force on the 22nd day of February, 1937, and shall continue in force until the 22nd day of February, 1938.

In witness whereof the seal of the Court of Arbitration hath hereto been put and affixed, and the Judge of the Court hath hereunto set his hand, this 22nd day of February, 1937.
