6. After twelve months' continuous service, leave of absence on full pay once in each year of his service shall be allowed to the master and/or engineer of s.s. "Terawhiti" for a continuous period of twenty-one days, and to the the master and/or engineer of s.s. "Natone" for a continuous period of fourteen days.

Salvage-work.

7. When the tugs herein mentioned are employed on salvage work on sea-going articles, the rates of wages and conditions of employment (other than provisions relating to ship-keeping, time off in lieu of Sundays or holidays or payment in lieu thereof, time off, and watches in port) shall be respectively as provided in the current agreements between the Union Steam Ship Co. of New Zealand, Ltd., and the New Zealand Merchant Service Guild and the New Zealand Institute of Marine and Power Engineers (Incorporated), covering vessels of similar tonnage and nominal horse-power.

Search-work.

8. Except in cases in which the tug is manned under seagoing conditions, when a tug is sent in search of a vessel the master and/or engineer shall be paid overtime at the rate of 4s. 9d. per hour for all hours worked between 5 p.m. and 7 a.m. whilst so employed.

Called on Duty Outside the Hours of Labour.

9. Should a master and/or engineer be called for duty in the harbour of Wellington before 6 a.m. or be retained on duty until after 11 p.m., the company shall supply or defray the expenses of a means of conveyance to or from the ship.

Interpretation.

10. In the event of any question arising upon any matter, whether referred to in this agreement or not, affecting masters and engineers covered by this agreement, the question (if not settled by mutual arrangement between the particular employer and employee concerned) shall be referred to a committee consisting of two representatives of the employers and two representatives of the employees for settlement. Should this fail to agree, the matter shall then be referred to the arbitration of an umpire mutually agreed upon by the said representatives, and the decision of the umpire shall be final.

Preference.

11. Preference of employment shall at all times be given to members of the New Zealand Merchant Service Guild Industrial Union of Workers so far as masters of the tugs named herein are concerned, and to members of the New Zealand Institute of Marine and Power Engineers (Incorporated) so far as engineers of the tugs named herein are concerned.

Definition.

12. "Union Company's work" shall mean attendance on vessels or hulks belonging to and controlled by the Union Steam Ship Co. of New Zealand, Ltd., and any work in connection therewith.

Term of Agreement.

13. This agreement, in so far as it relates to the rate of wages set out in clause 1 hereof, shall come into force as and from the 1st day of March, 1937, and so far as all the other conditions of this agreement are concerned it shall come into force on the 1st day of August, 1937, and shall continue in force until the 31st day of August, 1938.
