

NELSON BAKERS AND PASTRYCOOKS AND THEIR LABOURERS.—ADDING UNSPECIFIED PARTIES TO AWARD.

In the Court of Arbitration of New Zealand, Nelson Industrial District.—In the matter of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1925, and its amendments; and in the matter of the Nelson Bakers and Pastrycooks and their Labourers' award, dated the 24th day of May, 1937, and recorded in Book of Awards, Vol. XXXVII, p. 947; and in the matter of an application for a general order extending the said award so as to join and bind as parties unspecified employers.

Monday, the 30th day of May, 1938.

UPON reading the application of the New Zealand Federated Bakers and Pastrycooks and Related Trades Employees' Industrial Association of Workers, a party to the Nelson Bakers and Pastrycooks and their Labourers' award, dated the 24th day of May, 1937, and recorded in Book of Awards, Vol. XXXVII, p. 947 (hereinafter referred to as "the award"), for a general order extending the award so as to join and bind as parties thereto all employers engaged in the industry and area covered by the award, and upon being satisfied that due notice of the said application has been given by advertisement and that a majority of the employers engaged in the industry and area covered by the award are already bound thereby, this Court, in pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred on it by sections 92 (1) (b) and 93 of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1925, as amended by sections 23 and 25 respectively of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Amendment Act, 1936, doth hereby order as follows:—

1. That the award shall be and it is hereby extended so as to join and bind as parties thereto all employers not already bound thereby or parties thereto, but connected with or engaged in the industry to which the award applies in the area covered by the award: Provided, however, that this order shall not operate so as to bind any employer covered by any other existing award or industrial agreement in so far as such award or industrial agreement relates to work covered by the award.

2. That this order shall operate and take effect as from the 6th day of June, 1938.

[L.S.]

P. J. O'REGAN, Judge.
