SCHEDULE.

Hours of Work.

1. The hours of work shall be between 7 a.m. and 7 p.m. for stack threshing, and 7 a.m. and 8 p.m. for stook threshing, except on Saturdays, when the hours of work shall be between 7 a.m. and 5 p.m. for stack threshing and between 7 a.m. and 5 p.m. for stook threshing. Fifteen minutes extra shall be allowed to finish a set.

Threshing-mills: Number of Hands to be employed.

2. (a) Except through accident to or illness of any workers, the number of hands to be employed at each mill when working shall consist of feeder, driver, two stackmen, two bagmen, two straw-men, and (in camp) one cook; but should a mill be fitted with any patent appliance, the work equivalent done by such appliance shall be taken into account when manning the mill, and the number of hands reduced accordingly. When one straw-man only is required, the other man shall be available for any other work, and where a corn stack exceeds 6 yards in width an extra man shall be supplied by the farmer.

(b) In the case of American and similar mills, the number of hands (excluding the cook) to be employed shall be not less than: For mills of not greater dimensions than 24 in. by 36 in., four men; for mills of not greater dimensions than 28 in. by 46 in., five men; for mills of not greater dimensions than 32 in. by 54 in., six men. Where an elevator is used, an extra man shall be employed as a straw-man. When threshing peas out of the stack, an extra man shall be employed on the stack.

(c) In the case of header harvesters the number of hands shall be not less than two men.

Accommodation for Threshing-mill Workers.

3. The employer shall provide huts or clean, sanitary sleeping-accommodation for the sole use of the men during the threshing.

Number of Hands for Clover-shellers, Chaffcutters, and Balers.

4. Except through accident or illness of any worker, the minimum number of hands shall be as follows:—

(a) Clover-shellers: A driver and two stackmen.

(b) Chaffcutters: A driver, feeder, two bagmen, and one stackman when cutting oat-sheaf chaff. When cutting straw out of the stack the farmer shall find one additional man. When cutting straw out of a wallop the farmer shall find two additional men.

(c) Balers: Where steam-power balers are used, six men shall be employed; when oil-power balers are used, four men shall be employed when baling out of the field, and five men when baling out of the stack.

Threshing-mill and Clover-shellers' Rates of Pay.

5. (a) All hands, except the driver and cook, shall be paid 2s. 3½d. per hour and found, the time to commence from when the mill enters upon the farm upon which the crop is to be threshed and to continue during all hours worked, including shifting-time from set to set, until the finish of the last set on each farm. Fifteen minutes in the morning and fifteen minutes in the afternoon shall be allowed for lunch and paid for, but shall not include the sixty minutes to be allowed for dinner, or any time that the mill may be stopped exceeding ten minutes for repairs or any other unavoidable cause, or time occupied in shifting from farm to farm. If the public road is used to expedite shifting from paddock or farm the property of one owner, such time shall be paid for.

(b) The rate for drivers shall not be less than 3s. 4d. per hour.

(c) The rate for cooks shall be not less than £5 7s. 8d. per week and found.

(d) Band-cutters shall be bound by this award.

(e) The millowner shall pay to the band-cutter or other worker who steers the engine and assists the driver in cleaning and oiling the mill an additional sum of £1 8s. 9d. per week for such services.

(f) In the case of a tractor-driven mill, the millowner shall pay an additional sum of 15s. 9d. per week to the worker who assists the driver in a capacity similar to the feeder on a standard mill.

(g) Header-harvester hands shall be paid not less than 2s. 11d. per hour.

Chaffcutters' Rates of Pay.

6. (a) The minimum rates for cutting oat-sheaf chaff shall be—

Driver	4s. 9d. per 100 bags cut.
Feeder	4s. 5½d. per 100 bags cut.
Ordinary hands	4s. 2½d. per 100 bags cut.

(b) When cutting straw chaff, the rates shall be double those set out above.

Balers' Rates of Pay.

7. The minimum rates of wages shall be as follows:—

Drivers	5s. 6d. per 100 bales of hay.
All other hands	4s. 9d. per 100 bales of hay.

General Conditions.

8. (a) Upon the arrival of the mill on the farmer's property the men's swags shall immediately be placed under cover by the farmer in order to keep them dry.

(b) When baling out of the paddocks the farmer shall man the sweeps, and when baling out of the stacks the farmer shall find an extra man, if necessary.

Termination of Employment.

9. (a) Should any man desire to leave the mill during the currency of the season, he shall give the driver in charge one day's notice of his intention to do so or forfeit one average day's pay.

(b) Should any employer desire to dismiss any worker, he shall give him one day's notice or one average day's pay, except where it shall be for incompetence or wilful disobedience of orders, when such dismissal may be summary and without compensation.

(c) Any worker leaving or being dismissed shall receive from the employer all wages due at the termination of his employment, such wages to be paid at the mill or time taken in collecting same to be paid for at the minimum rate.

Tallies of Time worked.

10. In all cases the number of hours worked shall be kept by the representative of the employer and workers.

Threshing-mill Workers' Food-supply.

11. (a) Rations shall be provided by the employer. Sufficient food of good quality shall be supplied to the workers, and shall include jam and not less than 1 lb. of butter per week for each worker.

(b) Meals shall be supplied, and shall consist of the following number of meals when working: Breakfast, lunch, dinner, lunch, and tea, but when the mill is idle lunches need not be supplied.

Trivial Disputes.

12. In every case a representative of the men shall be elected or chosen for each mill at each camp, and all trivial disputes that may arise not in contravention of this award shall be decided by the representative of the men and the representative of the employer, and their decision shall be final.

Union Organizer.

13. Any mill, chaffcutter, clover-sheller, or baler may be visited by any officer of the union at any time, and once in each season, when working; the mill shall stop for twenty minutes to allow the officer to transact union business. Such lost time shall not be counted as working-time.

Holidays.

14. Christmas Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, and Anzac Day shall be observed as holidays. Sunday work shall be prohibited.

Liability for Accident.

15. For the purpose of insurance, the machine-owner shall be considered the employer, except in the case of the English standard threshing-machines and also American tin mills, where the farmer pays the wages, in which case the farmer shall be considered the employer.

Posting of Award.

16. A copy of this award shall be posted upon the mill or kept available with the outfit for the information of the men.

Payment of Wages.

17. It shall be competent for a worker to enter into an arrangement with his employer for the payment of 75 per cent. of his wages fortnightly.

Piecework.

18. No piecework shall be allowed, chaffcutters and balers excepted.

Chaffcutters' and Balers' Transport.

19. When the plant is working upon contract and the workers are not provided with food and accommodation by the farmer, the employer shall transport the men from his depot to and from their work each day.

Medical Outfit.

20. A fully equipped St. John kit or similar kit shall be kept by the driver in a convenient and accessible place, to be used only in the event of accident.

Workers to be Members of Union.

21. Every worker coming within the scope of this award shall become a member of the New Zealand Workers' Industrial Union of Workers. Reasonable facilities shall be given to all workers on threshing-mills, chaffcutters, header harvesters, hay-balers, and clover-shellors to become members of the New Zealand Workers' Industrial Union of Workers; and upon the visit of the union's official, organizer, or other accredited official of the union each worker shall immediately pay his union contribution by cash or order on his employer. Any worker refusing to pay his union contribution shall be summarily dismissed.

Application of Award.

22. This award shall apply to the original parties named herein, and shall extend to and bind as subsequent party hereto every trade-union, industrial union, industrial association, or employer who, not being an original party hereto, is, when this award comes into force or at any time whilst this award is in force, connected with or engaged in the industry to which this award applies within the industrial district to which this award relates.

Scope of Award.

23. This award shall operate throughout the Marlborough Industrial District.

Term of Award.

24. This award, in so far as it relates to wages, shall be deemed to have come into force on the 1st day of October, 1940, and so far as all the other conditions of this award are concerned it shall come into force on the day of the date hereof; and this award shall continue in force until the 30th day of September, 1941.

In witness whereof the seal of the Court of Arbitration hath hereto been put and affixed, and the Judge of the Court hath hereunto set his hand, this 15th day of November, 1940.
