

GISBORNE ABATTOIR ASSISTANTS.—INDUSTRIAL AGREEMENT.

In the matter of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1925, and its amendments; and in the matter of an industrial agreement between the Mayor, Councillors, and Burgesses of the Borough of Gisborne and the Gisborne District Freezing-works and Related Trades' Employees' Industrial Union of Workers.

THIS industrial agreement, made in pursuance of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1925, and its amendments, this 14th day of September, 1942, between the Mayor, Councillors, and Burgesses of the Borough of Gisborne (hereinafter called "the Council"), of the one part, and the Gisborne District Freezing-works and Related Trades' Employees' Industrial Union of Workers (hereinafter called "the union"), of the other part, whereby it is mutually agreed by and between the Council and the union as follows:—

SCHEDULE.

Hours of Work.

1. The ordinary hours of work shall not exceed forty-four per week, to commence at 8 a.m. on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday, and at 7 a.m. on Wednesday and Saturday. Work to cease not later than noon on Saturday from 1st November to 30th April, and any other time as may be deemed necessary by the employer, Sunday shall be worked in lieu of Saturday. No longer period than eight hours shall be worked on any one day without payment of overtime, with the exception of Wednesday, upon which a period of nine hours may be worked, and Saturday, upon which a period of five hours may be worked.

2. Casual labour may be employed when found necessary, the same to observe the hours of the permanent employees. The minimum time for such employment shall be six hours, but when found necessary to employ a casual hand for one week or more, then such labour shall be paid for at the rates fixed for permanent employees.

Wages.

3. Wages shall be paid on a weekly basis, and shall be as follows: Slaughtermen, £6 5s. per week; casual slaughtermen, 3s. 6d. per hour; assistants, £5 5s. per week; casual assistants, 2s. 7d. per hour.

General Orders under Rates of Wages Emergency Regulations 1940.

4. The two general orders made under the Rates of Wages Emergency Regulations 1940, and dated 9th August, 1940, and 31st March, 1942, respectively, shall be deemed to be incorporated in this award and shall have effect according to their tenor.

Overtime.

5. All time worked in excess of the hours mentioned in section 1 in any one day shall be considered overtime and shall be paid for at the rate of time and a half. All work done on Sundays shall be paid for at the rate of time and a half.

Holidays.

6. Employees shall have holidays during the year to fit in with the current Retail Butchers' award. All work done on these specified holidays shall be paid at the rate of time and a half. (Holidays at present observed by retail butchers being New Year's Day, 2nd January, Good Friday, Easter Saturday, Easter Monday, Labour Day, Sovereign's Birthday, Christmas Day, Boxing Day, Anzac Day, and Show Day.) Two weeks' holiday on full pay shall be allowed each worker (irrespective of the specified holidays as above provided) after twelve months' service; no holiday will be allowed to accumulate or any allowance made to workers who leave without first obtaining consent of the employer. Where men leave or are dismissed they shall receive the proportion of holiday allowance due.

General.

7. (a) A first-aid outfit shall be available at all times at the abattoir.

(b) Fifteen minutes' "smoke-oh" shall be allowed both morning and afternoon.

(c) A hot-water urn shall be provided.

(d) A hot-water shower shall be provided.

(e) Disinfectants shall be available at all times.

(f) Wages shall be paid fortnightly in cash. Casual employees to be paid when discharged.

(g) The employers shall provide saws, choppers, and knives, and all tools necessary, and other requisites as at present provided to carry on the work.

(h) The employer shall have the right to keep men fully employed for forty-four hours per week at work solely confined to the abattoir and precincts and in connection with abattoir-work.

(i) The dressing and bath room shall be convenient to each other and shall be fly-proof. These shall be kept clean by the employer.

(j) The employer shall see that no daggy sheep are penned up for killing.

(k) The employer shall have the fullest right to control (subject to the special conditions of this agreement) over its abattoir and works, and may make such rules for the necessary and proper management thereof as may be deemed to be expedient.

(l) Not less than forty-five minutes shall be allowed for meals.

(m) That the methods of killings and work at the abattoir at present existing shall continue.

Under-rate Workers.

8. Court's usual clause.

Preference.

9. If any employer shall hereafter engage any worker coming within the scope of this agreement who shall not be a member of the union and who shall not become a member thereof within fourteen days after his engagement and remain such member, the employer shall dismiss such worker from his service if requested to do so by the union.

Limitation of Agreement.

10. This agreement shall bind only the parties named herein.

Terms of Agreement.

11. This agreement shall come into force on the 14th day of September, 1942, and shall continue in force until the 14th day of September, 1943.
