

CANTERBURY INDUSTRIAL DISTRICT ENGINEERS.—AMENDMENT OF APPRENTICESHIP ORDER

In the Court of Arbitration of New Zealand, Canterbury Industrial District.—In the matter of the Apprentices Act, 1923, and its amendments; and in the matter of the Canterbury Industrial District Engineers' apprenticeship order, dated the 11th day of October, 1938, and recorded in 38 Book of Awards 2821.

Friday, 29th September, 1944

WHEREAS by section 5 (2) of the Apprentices Act, 1923, the Court is empowered to amend any order made under section 5 (1) of the said Act: And whereas the Apprenticeship Committee for the trade in the district has made application to the Court for an amendment of the Canterbury Industrial District Engineers' apprenticeship order, dated the 11th day of October, 1938, and recorded in 38 Book of Awards 2821: And whereas the Court has considered the recommendations made to it by the said Apprenticeship Committee, and has had regard to the general purpose of the Economic Stabilization Emergency Regulations 1942: Now, therefore, the Court, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in it by the said Act, doth hereby order as follows:—

1. That clause 16 of the said order is deleted, and the following clause substituted therefor:—

“16. The hours worked by an apprentice shall, subject to any statute, be those normally worked by journeymen in accordance with the provisions of the award or industrial agreement relating to the employment of journeymen for the time being in force in the district: Provided that where the hours worked by journeymen in accordance with any such aforesaid provisions are in excess of forty per week, the wages of apprentices shall be increased by one-fortieth for each hour worked in excess of forty: Provided, further, that when a holiday occurs in any week the number of hours which would ordinarily be worked on such day shall be counted as time worked for the purpose of computing the weekly hours.”

2. That this order shall operate and take effect as from the day of the date hereof.
