MEMORANDUM

Mr. Prime desires to draw attention to his dissenting opinion on the amendment to the Northern and Wellington Cardboard-box, Carton, and Paper-bag Makers' award.

Mr. Monteith is not in agreement, and his dissenting opinion follows.

A. TYNDALL, Judge.

DISSENTING OPINION OF MR. MONTEITH

I dissent from this decision on account of the adult female wage awarded—namely, £3 plus 5 per cent. plus 2s. 6d., which, less taxation (8s. 3d.), leaves these workers £2 17s. 4d. to live on. This, in my opinion, is not sufficient to allow adult women to live decently. It has to be noted that a number of agreements covering similar work have reached the Court from different parts of the Dominion with a rate of £3 4s. 9d. plus 5 per cent. plus 2s. 6d. Also, another agreement for like work has been made and is now in operation for £4 a week. In face of these facts, it certainly appears that a number of employers employing a very large number of workers hold the same opinion as I do. On present prices and in view of agreements made, I think that at least another 5s. 6d. should have been awarded, and this would have given these adult women a net wage of approximately £3 2s. 6d. to live on.
