Notwithstanding the above, no clerk shall be relieved by any clerk employed under this agreement on that ship to take an engagement on any other ship except in the case of a clerk who may be required to act as chief clerk of another ship, provided that the original clerk or clerks are satisfactory.

(j) If in the opinion of the supervisor or chief clerk it is considered necessary, a relieving clerk shall be engaged when six or more clerks are employed.

Travelling-time

9. Travelling-time between Wellington Wharf and suburban wharves shall be paid three-quarters of an hour each way at ordinary time rates, but if such travelling is performed in overtime, special overtime, meal-hours, or on Sundays or holidays the rate of pay shall be the ordinary overtime rate. Any such travelling-time may be included in the minimum period of engagement.

 - (f) No signing-up time to be paid to tally clerks when engaged as cargo watchmen.

Cost-of-living Bonus

12. The general orders made under the Rates of Wages Emergency Regulations 1940, and dated the 9th August, 1940, and the 31st March, 1942, respectively, shall not apply to workers employed under this agreement, but in lieu thereof there shall be paid a cost-of-living bonus at the rate of 4d. for each hour worked, irrespective of whether such time is ordinary time or overtime.

Workers to be Members of Union

13. (a) It shall not be lawful for any employer bound by this agreement to employ or to continue to employ in any position or employment subject to this agreement any adult person who is not for the time being a member of an industrial union of workers bound by this agreement or who is not for the time being a member of a trade-union which was registered as such before the 1st day of May, 1936, and which is bound by this agreement: Provided, however, that any non-unionist may be continued in any position or employment by an employer bound by this agreement during any time while there is no member of a union bound by this agreement who is available to perform the particular work required to be done and is ready and willing to undertake it. It is agreed that if by force of circumstances a non-unionist is engaged on any vessel he will be permitted to complete the day's work.

(b) For the purpose of subclause (a) of this clause a person of the age of eighteen years or upwards, and every other person who for the time being is in receipt of not less than the minimum rate of wages prescribed by this agreement for workers of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, shall be deemed an adult.

Matters not provided for

14. If a dispute shall arise between the parties to this agreement upon any matters arising out of or in connection with the agreement and not specifically dealt with therein, it shall be referred to a committee comprised of two representatives of the union and two representatives of the employers, who shall appoint an independent chairman for decision. The decision of a majority of this committee shall be binding, except that any party adversely affected thereby shall have the right, within fourteen days after the decision is given, to appeal against the decision to the Court of Arbitration, which may amend the decision in any way as, after hearing the parties, it may consider necessary or desirable.

Application of Agreement

15. This agreement shall apply only to casual tally clerks employed from day to day and/or hour to hour, and shall not apply to permanent employees, nor to the tallying of cargo or coal by any ship's officers or member of ship's crew, or winchmen; but, notwithstanding such provisions, it is agreed that the tallying of bunker coal into overseas steamers shall be given to casual tally clerks. It is also agreed that all clerical work done in connection with receiving and delivery of cargo be performed by tally clerks who are members of the union unless it be performed by permanent employees employed solely or usually on this class of work, on the waterfront, or by ship's pursers or ship's officers.

Term of Agreement

16. This agreement, in so far as it relates to wages, shall be deemed to have come into effect as from the 1st April, 1945, and so far as all other conditions are concerned it shall come into force from the day of the date hereof, and shall continue in force for a period of two years therefrom.
