

AUCKLAND TRANSPORT BOARD'S MAINTENANCE OFFICERS—AWARD

In the Court of Arbitration of New Zealand, Northern Industrial District.—In the matter of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1925, and its amendments; and in the matter of an industrial dispute between the Auckland Transport Board's Maintenance Officers' Industrial Union of Workers (hereinafter called "the union") and the undermentioned Board (hereinafter called "the employer") :—

Auckland Transport Board, 43 Customs Street West, Auckland, C. 1.

THE Court of Arbitration of New Zealand (hereinafter called "the Court"), having taken into consideration the terms of settlement arrived at in the above-mentioned dispute and forwarded directly to the Court pursuant to the provisions of section 3 of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Amendment Act (No. 2), 1939, doth hereby order and award :—

That, as between the union and the members thereof and the employers and each and every of them, the terms, conditions, and provisions set out in the schedule hereto and of this award shall be binding upon the union and upon every member thereof and upon the employers and upon each and every of them, and that the said terms, conditions, and provisions shall be deemed to be and they are hereby incorporated in and declared to form part of this award ; and, further, that the union and every member thereof and the employers and each and every of them shall respectively do, observe, and perform every matter and thing by this award and by the said terms, conditions, and provisions respectively required to be done, observed, and performed, and shall not do anything in contravention of this award or of the said terms, conditions, and provisions, but shall in all respects abide by and perform the same. And the Court doth hereby further award, order, and declare that any breach of the said terms, conditions, and provisions set out in the schedule hereto shall constitute a breach of this award, and that a penalty as by law provided shall be payable by any party or person in respect thereof. And the Court doth further order that this award shall take effect as hereinafter provided, and shall continue in force until the 30th day of April, 1951, and thereafter as provided by subsection (1) (d) of section 89 of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1925.

In witness whereof the seal of the Court of Arbitration hath heretobeen affixed, and the Judge of the Court hath hereunto set his hand, this 16th day of December, 1949.

Shift-workers

3. (a) Where workers are regularly employed outside the hours of 7.30 a.m. and 5 p.m. or on Saturdays or Sundays as part of their five-day week, they shall be regarded as shift-workers and shall be paid the same shift allowance as members of the Tramway Union on similar shifts.

(b) Work which commences on Friday night and finishes on Saturday shall be deemed to be Saturday work and work which commences on Saturday night and finishes on Sunday shall be deemed to be Sunday work.

Dirt-money Allowance

4. When a permanent-way foreman or permanent-way ganger is required to handle tar, bitumen, or bituminous emulsion he shall be paid at the rate of 2d. per hour for such time as he is so required, the said payment to be in addition to his ordinary weekly wage.

Meal-money

5. Workers engaged in workshops and stores, when required to work overtime after 6 p.m. Monday to Friday or after 1 p.m. on Saturdays or Sundays shall be paid a meal-allowance of 2s. 6d.

Deductions from Wages

6. An employer shall be entitled to make a rateable deduction from the weekly wages of any worker for any time lost by him through sickness, accident, or default.

Holidays

7. (a) Storemen engaged on the revenue truck shall receive three weeks' holiday leave every nine months while regularly required to work on public and statutory holidays; all other workers covered by this award shall receive holidays on the same basis as the general staff of the departments concerned, provided that in no case shall the holidays be less than the holidays received prior to this award.

(b) An officer discharged for any cause other than misconduct shall be paid at ordinary rates for such proportion of his holidays as shall then have accrued.

Relieving

8. Any employee definitely appointed to act in any superior position provided for in this award while so employed shall be paid at the higher rate specified for such work.

Uniforms, &c.

9. Distribution foremen shall be supplied with a uniform, great-coat, waterproof overcoat, and gumboots as required.

Depot foremen shall be supplied with two pairs of overalls or two dust coats and a waterproof coat as required.

Workshops foremen shall be supplied with two dust coats, and a waterproof coat as required.

Storemen shall be supplied with two pairs of overalls or two dust coats, and a waterproof coat as required.

Permanent-way foremen and gangers shall be supplied with a greatcoat, waterproof oilskin, and gumboots as required, and with such other items as may be supplied from time to time to employees working under the respective foremen and gangers.

Promotions

10. Promotions shall be governed by efficiency, and, in the event of equal efficiency, by seniority, subject to the right of appeal as provided by the Tramways Amendment Act, 1910.

"Efficiency" means special qualities and aptitude for the discharge of the duties of the office to be filled, together with merit and good, diligent conduct. When any appointments are to be made to positions affected by this award, notices calling for applications shall be posted in all departments concerned.

Charges

11. (a) Any charge laid against an officer shall be made known to him as soon as practicable after the alleged offence is said to have been committed.

(b) Any report against an officer shall be in writing, and the officer shall be entitled to see such report and make a copy of it before he is called upon to answer the charge.

(c) An officer may call evidence when an inquiry is held by the employer, and the employer shall, when necessary, have the person making the charge, the secretary of the union or his deputy, and the president of the union in attendance at such inquiry.

(d) Only one person from either side shall be allowed to cross-examine at the inquiry.

(e) All complaints against an officer shall be in writing.

Workers to be Members of Union

12. (a) Subject to the provisions of subsection (5) of section 18 of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Amendment Act, 1936, it shall not be lawful for any employer bound by this award to employ or to continue to employ in any position or employment subject to this award any adult person who is not for the time being a member of an industrial union of workers bound by this award.

(b) For the purposes of subclause (a) of this clause a person of the age of eighteen years or upwards, and every other person who for the time being is in receipt of not less than the minimum rate of wages prescribed by this award for workers of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, shall be deemed to be an adult.

(c) Every person who, being obliged to become a member of any union by the operation of the foregoing provisions, fails to become a member of that union when requested so to do by his employer or any officer or representative of the union, commits a breach of this award, and shall be liable accordingly.

(NOTE.—Attention is drawn to subsection (4) of section 18 of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Amendment Act, 1936, which gives to workers the right to join the union.)

Disputes Clause

13. Any dispute in connection with any matter arising out of or not provided for in this award shall be settled between two representatives of the union and two representatives of the employer, and in default of any agreement being reached, such dispute shall be referred to the Conciliation Commissioner for the district, who may either decide the same or refer the matter to the Court. Either party, if dissatisfied with the decision of the Commissioner, may appeal to the Court upon giving written notice of such appeal to the other party within fourteen days after such decision shall have been communicated to the party desiring to appeal.

Rest Period

14. Before a worker is required to commence a new day's work he shall be allowed a rest period not less in length than that which applies for the time being and from time to time to permanent-way repairers employed by the Auckland Transport Board.

Term of Award

15. This award, in so far as it relates to wages, shall be deemed to have come into force on the 1st day of June, 1949, and so far as all the other conditions of this award are concerned it shall come into force on the day of the date hereof; and this award shall continue in force until the 30th day of April, 1951.

In witness whereof the seal of the Court of Arbitration hath hereto been put and affixed, and the Judge of the Court hath hereunto set his hand, this 16th day of December, 1949.
