

CANTERBURY RUBBER-FOOTWEAR OPERATIVES—AWARD

In the Court of Arbitration of New Zealand, Canterbury Industrial District—
In the matter of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954; and in the matter of an industrial dispute between the New Zealand Federated Footwear Trade Industrial Association of Workers (hereinafter called “the union”) and the under-mentioned companies (hereinafter called “the employers”):

Marathon Rubber Footwear Ltd., Christchurch.

Airfoam Footwear Ltd., 40 Vagues Road, Christchurch.

THE Court of Arbitration of New Zealand (hereinafter called “the Court”), having taken into consideration the terms of settlement arrived at in the above-mentioned dispute and forwarded directly to the Court pursuant to the provisions of section 130 of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954, doth hereby order and award:

That, as between the union and the members thereof and the employers and each and every of them, the terms, conditions, and provisions set out in the Schedule hereto and of this award shall be binding upon the union and upon every member thereof and upon the employers and upon each and every of them, and that the said terms, conditions, and provisions shall be deemed to be and they are hereby incorporated in and declared to form part of this award; and, further, that the union and every member thereof and the employers and each and every of them shall respectively do, observe, and perform every matter and thing by this award and by the said terms, conditions, and provisions respectively required to be done, observed, and performed, and shall not do anything in contravention of this award or of the said terms, conditions, and provisions, but shall in all respects abide by and perform the same. And the Court doth hereby further award, order, and declare that any breach of the said terms, conditions, and provisions set out in the Schedule hereto shall constitute a breach of this award, and that a penalty as by law provided shall be payable by any party or person in respect thereof. And the Court doth further order that this award shall take effect as hereinafter provided and shall continue in force until the 31st day of January 1961 and thereafter as provided by section 152 of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954.

In witness whereof the seal of the Court of Arbitration hath hereto been affixed, and the Judge of the Court hath hereunto set his hand, this 15th day of June 1960.

(f) For female workers employed on the production of all types of goloshes, "misses" and children's overboots, or child's booties, the rate of pay shall be £9 5s. 3d. per week after having been employed on such work for three months.

Workers employed as lasters in this section shall receive an additional 12s. 6d. per week.

Part-time Workers

8. A weekly worker whose engagement is for less than 40 hours per week shall be paid the pro rata rate calculated on the ordinary weekly wage. This clause shall not affect existing arrangements.

Bonus Payments

9. Bonus payments to workers shall be permitted in terms to be arranged between the employer and the union.

Terms of Employment

10. (a) Twenty-four hours' notice of the termination of the services of the worker shall be given by the employer to the worker or by the worker to the employer; but this shall not prevent summary dismissal for misconduct.

(b) No deduction shall be made from the wages of any worker for whom a weekly wage is provided herein except for time lost through the illness or default of the worker or through accident not arising out of or in the course of the employment.

(c) Wages shall be paid on or before Thursday in each week and within working hours. When a holiday falls on a Friday wages shall be paid on the preceding Wednesday.

General Conditions

11. (a) Individual lockers shall be provided to store outer clothing. Adequate dining and sanitary facilities shall be provided. Adequate lighting and fresh air facilities shall be provided.

(b) Notice-boards shall be provided in a prominent position for the display of union notices.

(c) In each factory there shall be provided a suitable furnished place for the use of female workers.

(d) Rest periods shall be allowed in accordance with the present practice.

(e) Youths under the age of 19 years or females shall not be employed on chain operations in the gumboot section.

Youths under the age of 19 years or females shall not be employed on the following operations in the fabric shoe section: Lasting, clicking, cutting of fabric uppers, skiving, solepressing, Wellmanknife sole cutting, last sorting and carrying.

Youths under the age of 19 years or females shall not be employed on the following operations in the light shoe section: Sole placing or rolling.

Youths under the age of 19 or females shall not be employed on hot press cutting.

Youths under the age of 19 years or females shall not be employed on the following operations in the foam tread section: Lasting or vulcanising-moulder.

Youths under the age of 19 years or females shall not be employed on the following operations in the slipper section: Lasting or vulcanising-moulder.

Youths of the age of not less than 19 may be employed in the foregoing sections in the ratio of 1 to each 10 adult male workers and shall receive the minimum rate of wages prescribed in subclause (a) of clause 7 after having been employed on such work for three months.

Females employed on motorised jobs shall receive an additional rate of 3d. per hour.

When any new type of rubber or plastic footwear is to be produced the employment of females on any of the operations shall be discussed and settled by representatives of the union and employer before being put into production.

Females employed in plastic shoe section shall receive an additional rate of 5s. per week.

(f) Male workers shall be supplied yearly with two substantial aprons of a type suitable for the work being performed. Female workers shall receive a protective clothing allowance of 2s. 3d. per week.

(g) No female worker or youth under 18 years of age shall be required to lift weights in excess of 50 lb.

(h) Males employed on varnish dipping shall receive an additional 3d. per hour as dirt money.

(i) Washing facilities including hot water, soap, and towels, shall be provided by the employer.

(j) A properly equipped first-aid outfit shall be readily accessible to all workers while work is being carried on in the factory, and temporary dressings, bandages, and antiseptic shall be available in each department.

(k) Workers on completion of 10 years' continuous service and of each subsequent year of service shall be paid a service bonus of one week's wages. On completion of 20 years' service and of each subsequent year of service the service bonus shall be two weeks' wages.

(l) By arrangement with the union and with the written consent of the workers concerned, the employer may deduct union dues from the wages of the workers and remit them to the union.

Advisory Committee

12. A committee consisting of two representatives of employers and two representatives of the union, and known as the "advisory committee" shall be set up to deal with all applications for permits to work at home, and to deal with such operations that females may be employed upon under subclause (e) of clause 11 hereof. No resolution of the committee permitting out-work shall be carried unless a majority of the representatives of each side is in agreement.

Foremen and Forewomen

13. The employer may appoint one foreman or forewoman in each department where five or more workers are employed, and, provided the person so appointed is engaged in supervising work for not less than 50 per cent of the working hours, such foreman or forewoman shall be exempted from the provisions of this award. It shall be the duty of the employer to notify the secretary of the union of the appointment of such foreman or forewoman.

Disputes Committee

14. Any dispute in connection with any matter not provided for in this award shall be settled between two representatives of the employer concerned and two representatives of the union, and in default of any agreement being arrived at, then such dispute shall be referred to the Conciliation Commissioner, who may either decide the same or refer the matter to the Court. Either party, if dissatisfied with the decision of the Conciliation Commissioner, may appeal to the Court within seven days after such decision shall have been communicated to the party desiring to appeal.

Workers to be Members of Union

15. (a) Subject to the provisions of sections 174 (5) and 175 of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954, it shall not be lawful for any employer bound by this award to employ or to continue to employ in any position or employment subject to this award any adult person who is not for the time being a member of an industrial union of workers bound by this award.

(b) For the purposes of subclause (a) of this clause a person of the age of 18 years or upwards, and every other person who for the time being is in receipt of not less than the minimum rate of wages prescribed by this award for workers of the age of 21 years and upwards, shall be deemed to be an adult.

(c) Every person who, being obliged to become a member of any union by the operation of the foregoing provisions, fails to become a member of that union when requested so to do by his employer or any officer or representative of the union, commits a breach of this award, and shall be liable accordingly.

(NOTE—Attention is drawn to section 174 (3) of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954 which gives to workers the right to join the union.)

Under-rate Workers

16. (a) Any worker who considers himself incapable of earning the minimum wage fixed by this award may be paid such lower wage as may from time to time be fixed, on the application of the worker after due notice to the union, by the local Inspector of Awards or such other person as the Court may from time to time appoint for that purpose; and such inspector or other person in so fixing such wage shall have regard to the worker's capability, his past earnings, and such other circumstances as such inspector or other person shall think fit to consider after hearing such evidence and argument as the union and such worker shall offer.

(b) Such permit shall be for such period, not exceeding six months, as such inspector or other person shall determine, and after the expiration of such period shall continue in force until 14 days' notice shall have been given to such worker by the secretary of the union requiring him to have his wage again fixed in manner prescribed by this clause: Provided that in the case of any person whose wage is so fixed by reason of old age or permanent disability it may be fixed for such longer period as such inspector or other person shall think fit.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, it shall be competent for a worker to agree in writing with the president or secretary of the union upon such wage without having the same so fixed.

(d) It shall be the duty of the union to give notice to the Inspector of Awards of every agreement made with a worker pursuant hereto.

(e) It shall be the duty of an employer, before employing a worker at such lower wage, to examine the permit or agreement by which such wage is fixed.

Right of Entry

17. The secretary or other authorised officer of the union shall, with the consent of the employer (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld), be entitled to enter at all reasonable times upon the premises or works and there interview any workers, but not so as to interfere unreasonably with the employer's business.

Requirements of Economic Stabilisation Regulations

18. No worker bound by this award shall in any week be paid a lesser amount by his employer than the worker would have been entitled to be paid under this award if it had specifically applied the general order of the Court dated 18 September 1959 otherwise than by incorporation pursuant to the pronouncement of the Court dated 18 September 1959.

Application of Award

19. This award shall apply to the original parties named herein, and shall extend to and bind as subsequent party hereto every industrial union, industrial association, or employer who, not being an original party hereto, is, when this award comes into force or at any time whilst this award is in force, connected with or engaged in the industry to which this award applies within the industrial district to which this award relates.

Scope of Award

20. This award shall operate throughout the Canterbury Industrial District.

Term of Award

21. This award, in so far as the provisions relating to the rates of wages to be paid are concerned, shall be deemed to have come into force on the 8th day of December 1959, and so far as all other provisions of the award are concerned, it shall come into force on the day of the date hereof; and this award shall continue in force until the 31st day of January 1961.

In witness whereof the seal of the Court of Arbitration hath hereto been affixed, and the Judge of the Court hath hereunto set his hand, this 15th day of June 1960.
