A. TYNDALL, Judge.

SCHEDULE

Industry to Which Award Applies

1. This award shall apply to the bacon industry in all its branches except the clerical branch, and to all trades related thereto except in so far as such related trades are carried on outside of and apart from the bacon industry and are covered by other awards or industrial agreements.

Hours of Work

2. (a) The ordinary hours of work shall not exceed 40 hours per week nor eight hours per day to be worked on five days of the week, Monday to Friday inclusive, between 7.30 a.m. and 5 p.m.

(b) One hour shall be allowed for all meals, except where otherwise mutually arranged to the satisfaction of a majority of the workers in any department of the works when a minimum of half an hour may be taken.

Overtime

3. (a) Except where otherwise provided, all time worked outside of or in excess of the hours mentioned in subclause (a) of clause 2 in any one day shall be considered overtime and shall be paid for at the rate of time (or rate) and a half for the first three hours and double time (or rate) thereafter, computed on a daily basis.

(b) Work done on Saturdays shall be paid for at time (or rate) and a half for the first four hours and double time (or rate) thereafter: Provided that work done after noon on Saturday shall be paid for at double time (or rate).

(c) After eleven hours' work, overtime rates shall be paid until the worker has had a break of one hour for every two hours worked, with a minimum break of eight hours. This provision shall apply whether the period so worked falls wholly within one day or partly within one day and partly within the succeeding day.

(d) When a worker has been notified on or before the previous day of intention to work overtime after the ordinary ceasing time as specified in clause 2 (a) hereof, such worker shall receive a minimum of one hour's pay at overtime rates.

(e) When men are required to work overtime after 6 p.m. or after 1 p.m. on Saturday, Sunday, or holidays, a suitable hot meal shall be provided by the employer, or the employer shall pay each worker the sum of 5s. unless such worker can reasonably go home for his meal and return within the meal interval allowed to his place of employment, in which case the meal shall not be provided, nor the sum of 5s. paid.

"Smoke-oh"

4. An interval of 15 minutes for all workers without stoppage of pay shall be allowed for "smoke-oh" every morning and afternoon. When men are required to work overtime "smoke-oh" or similar time shall be allowed every two hours. If the interval of 15 minutes is exceeded without the permission of the foreman, the employer shall deduct pay to the extent of six minutes for every one minute by which such interval of 15 minutes is exceeded.

Wages

5. The following shall be the minimum rates of wages payable to the under-mentioned workers:

(a) Workers employed at sticking, singeing, scalding, gambrelling off, opening up, pulling and stripping runners, marking and/or backing down, chopping, boning, rolling, cutting up, and operating small goods silent cutter machine or mechanical saws, 6s. 11½d. per hour.

(b) Head curer, £14 16s. 8d. per week.

(c) First small-goods-man, £14 16s. 8d. per week.

(d) Other small-goods-man, 6s. 10d. per hour.

"Small-goods-man" means a worker employed at mincing, mixing and filling and cutting up boneless meat for small goods.

(e) Pig catchers, black scrapers, scudders, shavers, cellar-men, and baconwashers, 6s. 10d. per hour.

(f) Leading lard hand, 6s. 10d. per hour.

(g) Man in charge of ham cooking department, 6s. 10d. per hour.

(h) Freezing chamber hands, 7s. 2½d. per hour.

(i) All other workers, 6s. 6½d. per hour.

(j) Leading hands appointed as such by the employer shall be paid 3d. per hour in addition to the above rates of pay. This provision shall not apply to the workers classified under subclauses (b), (c), (f) and (g) above, unless they are so designated by the employer.

Piecoworkers

6. The following shall be the minimum rates of wages:

Piecoworkers slaughtering:

	Ordinary Time		Overtime
	Basic Rate		Basic Rate
	s.	d.	s.	d.
(a) Pigs up to 120 lb per head (actual dressed weight)	1	9	1	11·625
Pigs, 121 lb to 200 lb per head (actual dressed weight)	2	7·5	2	11·4375
Pigs, 201 lb to 300 lb per head (actual dressed weight)	4	0	4	6
Pigs, over 300 lb—per 100 lb or fraction of 100 lb (actual dressed weight)	1	4	1	6
Chopper pigs, mechanically skinned, all weights, per head	3	11	4	4·875
Chopper pigs, hand skinned, all weights, per head	5	2	5	9·75

(b) For every pig singed, 2d. shall be added to the above rates.

(c) For every pig de-haired by hand, 4d. shall be added to the above rates.

(d) Where the employer requires jowls only to be cleaned, one half penny shall be deducted from the above rates.

(e) Where the employer does not require any part of the head to be cleaned, one penny shall be deducted from the above rates.

(f) When piecoworkers are required to wait for work after the arranged time of starting, they shall be paid at the rate of 6s. 11½d. per hour for all time so waited.

(g) Where in a pay-week piecoworkers employed in that week solely as such earn more than the sum of £13, the sum of £3 2s. 5d. shall be added to their piecwork earnings. Where however, the said piecoworkers do not earn £13 in a pay-week solely on piecwork, the sum actually earned shall be increased by an amount equal to 24 per cent thereof. Provided however, that where in a pay-week workers are employed both on piecwork and hourly work that portion of their earnings calculated on hourly rates in ordinary time which represents incorporation of the Court's general wage order of 18th September 1959, shall be taken into credit when computing the make-up of £3 2s. 5d. as above. Where the total earnings in a pay-week of such composite hourly/pieceworkers as above do not exceed £13, only that portion of their earnings which represents piecework shall be increased by an amount equal to 24 per cent thereof.

(h) For every hour worked by pieceworkers on piecework within the ordinary hours of work, they shall be paid the sum of 1d. in addition to their earnings computed at piecework rates prescribed in this award.

(i) Penal Payments—

Boars, 120 lb and over, and genuine stags:	s.	d.

Pigs over 300 lb, per 100 lb or fraction of 100 lb extra	1	4
Chopper pigs, mechanically skinned, extra each	3	11
Chopper pigs, hand skinned, extra each	5	2

Youths

7. (a) Youths up to the age of 19 years may be employed at the following rates:

	Per Week
	£	s.	d.
16 years of age	4	9	11
16½ years of age	5	5	5
17 years of age	6	0	11
17½ years of age	6	16	5
18 years of age	7	11	11
18½ years of age	8	7	5

And thereafter, the minimum wage for adults: Provided that the wages of any youths at present employed shall not be reduced during the term of this award.

(b) Youths under 16 years of age shall not be employed.

Females

8. (a) Females may be employed at the following and similar classes of work, that is to say:

Small-goods Department—Cutting off, weighing and wrapping and packing small-goods;

Lard Department—Attending cooling-machines, attending patting-machine, gumming cartons, inserting parchment liners and filling same, packing cartons or pats in boxes;

Bacon Department—Bagging, sewing, and seeding bacon and hams; wrapping and packing bacon and ham;

Preserving Department—Labelling and packing;

Bagmaking Department—Sewing and printing bags:

Provided that no female worker shall be required to handle raw meats or to handle any weight in excess of 20 lb: Provided, also, that the employer shall supply smocks and suitable footwear, also wooden gratings where circumstances demand.

(b) Suitable heated dressing-rooms shall be provided.

(c) The ordinary hours of work shall not exceed 40 hours per week. Not more than eight hours shall be worked on five days of the week, Monday to Friday, both days inclusive, between the hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. The hours of work shall be continuous save for an interval of one hour for lunch. Provided that this hour may be reduced to not less than half an hour by mutual arrangement with a majority of the female workers concerned.

(d) Time worked on any day outside of or in excess of the hours mentioned in the preceding subclause shall be deemed to be overtime and shall be paid for at the rate of time and a half.

(e) The following shall be the minimum weekly rates of payment for female workers:

Age	First Six Months	Second Six Months	Third Six Months	Fourth Six Months	Fifth Six Months
Under 18	£ s. d. 4 9 11	£ s. d. 5 5 5	£ s. d. 6 0 11	£ s. d. 7 5 8	£ s. d. 8 10 6
18 to 19	5 8 6	6 0 11	7 5 8	8 10 6	..
19 to 20	6 7 1	7 5 8	8 10 6
20 to 21	7 5 8	8 10 6
21 and over	8 10 6

And thereafter, £8 10s. 6d. per week.

(f) No female under the age of 16 years shall be employed.

(g) Female workers may be employed on part-time work under this clause, and they shall be paid for all time worked at an hourly rate equivalent to one-fortieth of the appropriate wages specified in subclause (e) hereof.

(h) A female worker placed in charge shall be paid 3d. per hour extra.

Requirements of Economic Stabilisation Regulations

9. No worker bound by this award shall in any week be paid a lesser amount by his employer than the worker would have been entitled to be paid under this award if it had specifically applied the general order of the Court dated 18 September 1959 otherwise than by incorporation pursuant to the pronouncement of the Court dated 18 September 1959.

Payment of Wages

10. (a) Wages shall be paid weekly, where possible not later than Thursday, in the employer's time. Two days' lie-time shall be allowed. Any error or omission in the pay-sheet shall be adjusted within 48 hours.

(b) Two days' notice of termination of employment shall be given by the employer or the worker as the case may be, but this shall not prevent the employer from summarily dismissing a worker for misconduct. In the event of any worker leaving his employment without giving two days' notice as aforesaid, the employer shall be entitled to retain an amount not exceeding two days' pay at ordinary rates from any moneys due to the worker. Should the employer not give two days' notice as required, two days' pay shall be given in lieu thereof, except in the case of summary dismissal for misconduct when this provision shall not apply.

(c) No deduction shall be made from the weekly rates prescribed herein excepting in respect of the time lost through sickness, accident, or default or time off allowed a worker at his or her own request.

Holidays

11. (a) The following holidays shall be observed: New Year's Day, 2 January, Anniversary Day, Anzac Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Labour Day, Christmas Day, Boxing Day, and the birthday of the reigning Sovereign.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, another day may be substituted for Anniversary Day by agreement between the union and the employer.

(c) All holidays mentioned in subclause (a) of this clause shall be paid for as an ordinary working day of eight hours. All work done on any of the foregoing holidays shall be paid for at double time (or rate) in addition to the ordinary time (or rate) provided for herein.

(d) In the event of a holiday, other than Anzac Day, falling on a Saturday or a Sunday, such holiday shall be observed on the succeeding Monday, and in the event of another holiday falling on such Monday, such holiday shall be observed on the succeeding Tuesday. The provisions of the Public Holidays Act 1955, shall apply to the holidays mentioned in subclause (a) of this clause.

(e) Where weekly hands are employed on any holiday they shall be paid the rate specified for holidays in addition to the weekly wage provided in this award.

Annual Holidays

12. (a) Holidays shall be allowed in accordance with the provisions of the Annual Holidays Act 1944: Provided that upon completion of 10 years' continuous employment with the same employer, a worker shall be granted in respect of each further year of employment with that employer an annual holiday of three weeks instead of two weeks.

(b) Where practicable at least one month's notice of annual holidays shall be given by the employer.

General Conditions

13. (a) When working overtime or when loading out, meal-times shall be at intervals of not more than four hours. No meal break is allowable upon cessation of work.

(b) Spells of a reasonable time, being not less than 10 minutes, shall be allowed chamber hands who are in a heated condition, through working outside, to cool down before entering the freezing-chambers. No deduction shall be made from the men's wages on account of such spell.

(c) All freezing-chambers shall be provided with a light, and adequate provision shall be made for communication with the outside.

(d) Disinfectants shall be supplied in any department where necessary.

(e) All workers shall be supplied with articles reasonably necessary to carry on the work, or materials for making the same. All such articles shall be replaced by the employer when worn out and beyond repair as the result of fair wear-and-tear, and shall remain the property of the employer. The articles to be supplied in the various departments shall be as follows:

- (i) Chamber-hands—Two-piece overalls, gloves, jerseys, and rubber soled moccasins and waterproof clothing when defrosting.
- (ii) Preserving, Killing, and Washing Department and Pig-catchers and Yardmen—Overalls, clogs, or boots, gumboots, where necessary, aprons (waterproof where necessary), stones, knives, pouches, steels, leggings.
- (iii) Manure and Tallow Department—Overalls, aprons (waterproof where necessary), clogs, or boots, gumboots where necessary.
- (iv) All coats, smocks, overalls, cloth aprons and jerseys shall be laundered at the employer's expense.

(f) Where chamber-hands are called upon to work overtime for more than four consecutive hours, the employer shall provide a meal during each such four hours.

(g) St. John or similar first-aid outfits shall be provided in each factory.

(h) Provision shall be made by the employer for a suitable place for the workers to place their bicycles in during working hours.

(i) When men are employed grinding bones, double ordinary rates shall be paid.

(j) Five minutes shall be allowed all hands for changing clothes at knock-off time without deduction from the workers' pay.

(k) Grindstones driven by power shall be provided where necessary.

(l) Clocks shall be supplied in all factories or in departments where necessary.

(m) In all cases where men are called out on Saturdays, Sundays, or holidays and there is no work or less than four consecutive hours' work available, they shall receive not less than four consecutive hours' pay at the rate specified.

(n) The union representative shall be allowed to interview the members of the union at the factory at a time to be arranged with the employer.

Dining, Dressing, and Bath Rooms

14. Accommodation for dining, for dressing, for washing, and for drying clothes shall be provided in accordance with the following conditions:

(a) A room sufficiently large to provide space for dining and dressing, or one room for dining and another for dressing, shall be provided.

(b) A separate drying-room for no other purpose than drying clothes shall be provided.

(c) Facilities for shower-baths shall be provided.

(d) Hot water and cold water shall be provided for wash-hand basins and showers.

(e) Hot-water urns and an ample supply of fresh drinking-water and sufficient accommodation for the seating of all workers properly using the dining-room shall be provided in the dining-room.

(f) A number of lockers shall be provided in the dressing-room sufficient to supply each worker.

(g) Every dining-room shall be fitted with fly-proof doors and windows where necessary, and shall be cleaned after each meal.

(h) The employer shall not permit or suffer any dressing-room, bath-room, water-closet, or urinal to become insanitary.

(i) The accommodation above referred to shall be kept clean by the employers, who shall clean the dining-room after each meal.

(j) Subject to the consent of the Court, the conditions of the above subclauses may be varied by arrangement between the employer and the union.

(k) The union shall appoint delegates whose duty it shall be to see that the workers do everything in their power to maintain the dining, dressing, and bathrooms in a clean and tidy condition.

(l) The dressing and dining-rooms shall be suitably heated.

(m) Where required, proper facilities for heating food shall be supplied.

Disputes

15. Anything not provided for in this award, or any dispute that may arise over anything that is provided for in this award, shall be mutually arranged between two representatives of the union and of the employer. In the event of their being unable to agree, the matter shall be referred to the Conciliation Commissioner for settlement. Either side, if dissatisfied with the decision of the Conciliation Commissioner, shall have the right to appeal to the Court.

Workers to be Members of Union

16. (a) Subject to the provisions of sections 174 (5) and 175 of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954, it shall not be lawful for any employer bound by this award to employ or to continue to employ in any position or employment subject to this award any adult person who is not for the time being a member of an industrial union of workers bound by this award.

(b) For the purposes of subclause (a) of this clause a person of the age of 18 years or upwards, and every other person who for the time being is in receipt of not less than the minimum rate of wages prescribed by this award for workers of the age of 21 years and upwards, shall be deemed to be an adult.

(c) Every person who, being obliged to become a member of any union by the operation of the foregoing provisions, fails to become a member of that union when requested so to do by his employer or any officer or representative of the union, commits a breach of this award, and shall be liable accordingly.

(NOTE—Attention is drawn to section 174 (3) of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954 which gives to workers the right to join the union.)

Under-rate Workers

17. (a) Any worker who considers himself incapable of earning the minimum wage fixed by this award may be paid such lower wage as may from time to time be fixed, on the application of the worker after due notice to the union, by the local Inspector of Awards or such other person as the Court may from time to time appoint for that purpose; and such inspector or other person in so fixing such wage shall have regard to the worker's capability, his past earnings, and such other circumstances as such inspector or other person shall think fit to consider after hearing such evidence and argument as the union and such worker shall offer.

(b) Such permit shall be for such period, not exceeding six months, as such inspector or other person shall determine, and after the expiration of such period shall continue in force until 14 days' notice shall have been given to such worker by the secretary of the union requiring him to have his wage again fixed in manner prescribed by this clause: Provided that in the case of any person whose wage is so fixed by reason of old age or permanent disability it may be fixed for such longer period as such inspector or other person shall think fit.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, it shall be competent for a worker to agree in writing with the president or secretary of the union upon such wage without having the same so fixed.

(d) It shall be the duty of the union to give notice to the Inspector of Awards of every agreement made with a worker pursuant hereto.

(e) It shall be the duty of an employer, before employing a worker at such lower wage, to examine the permit or agreement by which such wage is fixed.

Application of Award

18. This award shall apply to the original parties named herein, and shall extend to and bind as subsequent party hereto every industrial union, industrial association, or employer who, not being an original party hereto, is, when this award comes into force or at any time whilst this award is in force, connected with or engaged in the industry to which this award applies within the industrial district to which this award relates.

Exemptions

19. Nothing in this award shall apply to foreman, graders, or clerical staff attached to a factory covered by this award.

Scope of Award

20. This award shall operate throughout the Wellington Industrial District.

Term of Award

21. This award, in so far as the provisions relating to the rates of wages to be paid are concerned, shall be deemed to have come into force on the first day of the first working week in each establishment that occurs on or after the 1st day of August 1960, and so far as all other provisions of the award are concerned, it shall come into force on the day of the date hereof; and this award shall continue in force until the 31st day of July 1961.

In witness whereof the seal of the Court of Arbitration hath hereto been affixed, and the Judge of the Court hath hereunto set his hand, this 7th day of September 1960.
