Such a certificate shall entitle the assistant to payment by a future employer at the wages herein provided according to the time actually worked at the trade.

(f) An employer who engages an assistant shall be deemed to have undertaken the duty of teaching him one or more branches of the trade as carried on by the employer, which duty shall be enforceable under this award.

Requirements of Economic Stabilisation Regulations

6. No worker bound by this award shall in any week be paid a lesser amount by his employer than the worker would have been entitled to be paid under this award if it had specifically applied the general order of the Court dated 18 September 1959 otherwise than by incorporation pursuant to the pronouncement of the Court dated 18 September 1959.

Holidays

7. (a) The following shall be the recognised holidays: New Year's Day, 2 January, Good Friday, Easter Monday, the birthday of the reigning Sovereign, Labour Day, Christmas Day, Boxing Day, Anzac Day, and Anniversary Day (or a day in lieu thereof). No deduction from the wages of workers shall be made in respect of the holidays mentioned in this subclause.

(b) For work done on any of the holidays mentioned in this clause or on Sundays double time shall be paid.

(c) When any of the holidays mentioned in subclause (a) of this clause, except Anzac Day, falls on a Saturday or a Sunday, such holiday shall be observed on the following working-day.

Annual Holidays

8. The provisions of the Annual Holidays Act 1944, and its amendments, shall apply to all workers employed under this award. Where it is customary for any employer to allow annual holidays to his workers or to any class of his workers during the period in each year when his premises are closed or the work of those workers is for any reason discontinued, and at the date of the commencement of any such period any such worker has not become entitled to an annual holiday, then that worker shall not be entitled to any wages for two weeks following that date, but the employer shall before that date pay to him, in addition to all other amounts due to him at that date including amounts to which he is entitled in respect of any special holidays, an amount equal to one twenty-fifth of his ordinary pay for the period of his employment up to that date, and for the purposes of the Annual Holidays Act, the next year of his employment shall be deemed to commence on that date.

Terms of Employment

9. (a) Not less than 24 hours' notice of the termination of the employment shall be given by the employer or the worker, as the case may be, but this shall not prevent an employer from dismissing a worker summarily for wilful misconduct.

(b) The employer shall have the right to make a rateable deduction from the wages prescribed in this award for any time lost by a worker through his own default, sickness, or accident.

Right of Entry

10. The secretary or other authorised officer of the union of workers shall, with the consent of the employer or his representative (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld), be entitled to enter at all reasonable times upon the premises or works, and there interview any workers, but not so as to interfere unreasonably with the employer's business.

Matters Not Provided For

11. The essence of this award being that the work of the employers shall not on any account whatsoever be impeded but shall always proceed as if no dispute had arisen, it is provided that if any dispute or difference shall arise between the parties bound by this award, or any of them, as to any matter whatsoever arising out of or connected therewith and not dealt with in this award, every such dispute or difference shall be referred to a committee to be composed of two representatives of each side, together with an independent chairman to be mutually agreed upon or, in default of agreement, to be appointed by the Conciliation Commissioner for the district. Either side shall have the right to appeal to the Court against a decision of any such committee upon giving to the other side written notice of such appeal within 14 days after such decision has been made known to the party desirous of appealing.

General Conditions

12. (a) A 10-minute break, morning and afternoon, shall be allowed the workers without deduction from pay.

(b) Provision shall be made for an adequate supply of hot and cold water for washing facilities, excepting in those cases where the union is satisfied that it is impracticable to make the necessary provision.

(c) The employer shall supply to each worker a set of the necessary tools which shall remain the property of the employer.

(d) The employer shall provide reasonable facilities for supplying warmth for men working in workshops in cold weather.

(e) Each worker shall be supplied with two overalls in each year of his employment with the same employer, the first two overalls to be made available within one month of engagement. On the termination of employment each worker shall hand in his overalls to the employer or his agent.

"Overall" means boiler-suit, bib-overall, dust-coat, or drill apron as customarily worn by the worker.

(f) A first-aid compressed kit, fully equipped, shall be kept in a convenient and accessible place in every works, and shall be open for inspection once a month by a union official.

(g) Provision shall be made for a supply of hot water at short notice.

(h) Where the worker is injured in the course of his employment and is obliged to attend hospital or a doctor for treatment during working hours, such worker shall be paid by the employer for time lost on the day of the accident, but not more than two hours.

Workers to be Members of Union

13. (a) Subject to the provisions of sections 174 (5) and 175 of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954, it shall not be lawful for any employer bound by this award to employ or to continue to employ in any position or employment subject to this award any adult person who is not for the time being a member of an industrial union of workers bound by this award.

(b) For the purposes of subclause (a) of this clause a person of the age of 18 years or upwards, and every other person who for the time being is in receipt of not less than the minimum rate of wages prescribed by this award for workers of the age of 21 years and upwards, shall be deemed to be an adult.

(c) Every person who, being obliged to become a member of any union by the operation of the foregoing provisions, fails to become a member of that union when requested so to do by his employer or any officer or representative of the union, commits a breach of this award, and shall be liable accordingly.

(d) Within one month after the date of coming into operation of this award each employer shall, if requested by the secretary of the union, either supply him with a list of all those workers in his employ covered by this award or provide facilities for the secretary to obtain this list. Thereafter at intervals of not less than three months, each employer shall, if required by the secretary of the union, supply a list of employees engaged since the last list was supplied.

(NOTE—Attention is drawn to section 174 (3) of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954 which gives to workers the right to join the union.)

Under-rate Workers

14. (a) Any worker who considers himself incapable of earning the minimum wage fixed by this award may be paid such lower wage as may from time to time be fixed, on the application of the worker after due notice to the union, by the local Inspector of Awards or such other person as the Court may from time to time appoint for that purpose; and such inspector or other person in so fixing such wage shall have regard to the worker's capability, his past earnings, and such other circumstances as such inspector or other person shall think fit to consider after hearing such evidence and argument as the union and such worker shall offer.

(b) Such permit shall be for such period, not exceeding six months, as such inspector or other person shall determine, and after the expiration of such period shall continue in force until 14 days' notice shall have been given to such worker by the secretary of the union requiring him to have his wage again fixed in manner prescribed by this clause: Provided that in the case of any person whose wage is so fixed by reason of old age or permanent disability it may be fixed for such longer period as such inspector or other person shall think fit.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, it shall be competent for a worker to agree in writing with the president or secretary of the union upon such wage without having the same so fixed.

(d) It shall be the duty of the union to give notice to the Inspector of Awards of every agreement made with a worker pursuant hereto.

(e) It shall be the duty of an employer, before employing a worker at such lower wage, to examine the permit or agreement by which such wage is fixed.

Application of Award

15. This award shall apply to the original parties named herein, and shall extend to and bind as subsequent party hereto every industrial union, industrial association, or employer who, not being an original party hereto, is, when this award comes into force or at any time whilst this award is in force, connected with or engaged in the industry to which this award applies within the industrial districts to which this award relates.

Scope of Award

16. This award shall operate throughout the Northern, Taranaki, Wellington, Marlborough, Nelson, Westland, Canterbury, and Otago and Southland Industrial Districts.
