(3) the hours during which he has actually been employed on each day, showing the starting and finishing time each day; (4) the wages paid on each pay day, and the date thereof; and (5) such other particulars as are prescribed by regulations.

(b) The entry of the particulars hereinbefore referred to, or a memorandum in writing containing such particulars, shall be signed by the assistant at the time of payment of his wages, and such signature shall operate as a receipt for such payment.

(c) The wages and time book in use for the time being, and any such book used within the preceding five years, shall at all times be open to the inspection of an Inspector of Awards.

(d) Every assistant who fails to sign the record as provided in this clause or who wilfully signs an incorrect record is liable to a fine not exceeding £5.

(e) An Inspector of Awards may at any time require the occupier to verify the entries in the wages and time book in such form as may be prescribed.

18. (a) It shall not be lawful for any employer bound by this award to employ or to continue to employ in any position or employment subject to this award within the district in which he is employed, any adult person who is not for the time being a member of an industrial union of workers bound by this award.

(b) For the purposes of subclause (a) of this clause a person of the age of 18 years or upwards, and every other person who for the time being is in receipt of not less than the minimum rate of wages prescribed by this award for workers of the age of 21 years and upwards, shall be deemed to be an adult.

(c) Every person who, being obliged to become a member of any union by the operation of the foregoing provisions, fails to become and remain a member of that union when requested so to do by his employer or any officer or representative of the union commits a breach of this award, and shall be liable accordingly.

(NOTE—Attention is drawn to section 174 (3) of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954 which gives to workers the right to join the union.)

Under-rate Workers

19. (a) Any worker who considers himself incapable of earning the minimum wage fixed by this award may be paid such lower wage as may from time to time be fixed, on the application of the worker after due notice to the union, by the local Inspector of Awards or such other person as the Court may from time to time appoint for that purpose; and such inspector or other person in so fixing such wage shall have regard to the worker's capability, his past earnings, and such other circumstances as such inspector or other person shall think fit to consider after hearing such evidence and argument as the union and such worker shall offer.

(b) Such permit shall be for such period, not exceeding six months, as such inspector or other person shall determine, and after the expiration of such period shall continue in force until 14 days' notice shall have been given to such worker by the secretary of the union requiring him to have his wage again fixed in manner prescribed by this clause: Provided that in the case of any person whose wage is so fixed by reason of old age or permanent disability it may be fixed for such longer period as such inspector or other person shall think fit.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, it shall be competent for a worker to agree in writing with the president or secretary of the union upon such wage without having the same so fixed.

(d) It shall be the duty of the union to give notice to the Inspector of Awards of every agreement made with a worker pursuant hereto.

(e) It shall be the duty of an employer, before employing a worker at such lower wage, to examine the permit or agreement by which such wage is fixed.
