

AUCKLAND ROPE AND TWINE WORKERS—AWARD

In the Court of Arbitration of New Zealand, Northern Industrial District—In the matter of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954; and in the matter of an industrial dispute between the Auckland Rope and Twine Workers Industrial Union of Workers (hereinafter called “the union”) and the under-mentioned company (hereinafter called “the employers”):

Donaghy’s Rope and Twine Co. Ltd., Auckland.

THE Court of Arbitration of New Zealand (hereinafter called “the Court”), having taken into consideration the terms of settlement arrived at in the above-mentioned dispute and forwarded directly to the Court pursuant to the provisions of section 130 of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954, doth hereby order and award:

That, as between the union and the members thereof and the employers and each and every of them, the terms, conditions, and provisions set out in the Schedule hereto and of this award shall be binding upon the union and upon every member thereof and upon the employers and upon each and every of them, and that the said terms, conditions, and provisions shall be deemed to be and they are hereby incorporated in and declared to form part of this award; and, further, that the union and every member thereof and the employers and each and every of them shall respectively do, observe, and perform every matter and thing by this award and by the said terms, conditions, and provisions respectively required to be done, observed, and performed, and shall not do anything in contravention of this award or of the said terms, conditions, and provisions, but shall in all respects abide by and perform the same. And the Court doth hereby further award, order, and declare that any breach of the said terms, conditions, and provisions set out in the Schedule hereto shall constitute a breach of this award, and that a penalty as by law provided shall be payable by any party or person in respect thereof. And the Court doth further order that this award shall take effect as hereinafter provided and shall continue in force until the 26th day of July 1963 and thereafter as provided by section 152 of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954.

In witness whereof the seal of the Court of Arbitration hath hereto been affixed, and the Judge of the Court hath hereunto set his hand, this 3rd day of August 1961.

Terms of Employment

7. (a) The employment shall be deemed to be a weekly employment and no deduction shall be made from the weekly wages prescribed in clauses 4, 5, and 6 respectively except for time lost through the worker's default or sickness or through no fault of the employer.

(b) Not less than one week's notice, in the case of workers in weekly employment, shall be given by either party of the termination of the employment; but nothing in this clause shall prevent the employer from dismissing summarily any worker for misconduct.

Casual Labour

8. (a) The minimum rate of pay for casual workers shall be 6s. 4d. per hour.

(b) A casual worker is a worker who is employed for less than one week.

Holidays (Statutory)

9. (a) The following shall be recognised holidays which shall be paid for: Christmas Day, Boxing Day, New Year's Day and the day following that upon which New Year's Day is observed, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, Labour Day, the birthday of the reigning Sovereign, and Anniversary Day or a day in lieu thereof.

(b) For work done on any of the abovementioned days double time rates shall be paid in addition to the day's wages.

(c) For work done on Sundays, double time rates shall be paid.

(d) In the event of a holiday (other than Anzac Day) falling on a Saturday or a Sunday, such holiday shall be observed on the succeeding Monday, and in the event of another holiday falling on such Monday, such other holiday shall be observed on the succeeding Tuesday.

Holidays (Annual)

10. The provisions of the Annual Holidays Act 1944 shall apply to workers covered by the provisions of the award.

Meal-money

11. Employers shall give 24 hours' notice of overtime; failing that, they shall allow meal-money at the rate of 5s. per meal where workers are required to work overtime after 6 p.m., provided that such workers cannot reasonably get home to their meals.

Overtime

12. (a) All time worked on any day outside of or in excess of the hours prescribed in clause 2 of this award shall be deemed to be overtime and shall be paid for at the rate of time and a half for the first three hours and double time thereafter.

(b) Whenever possible, workers shall not be required to work overtime on Friday nights.

Payment of Wages

13. Wages shall be paid not later than Thursday in each week and within 10 minutes of knocking-off time.

Accidents

14. A St. John Ambulance first-aid outfit, fully equipped, shall be kept in a convenient and accessible place in the factory, and also convenience for supplying hot water at short notice.

Conveniences

15. (a) Employers shall provide toilet soap and proper sanitary and washing conveniences, which shall be kept clean by the employer.

(b) Provision shall be made for suitable dining and dressing accommodation, also facilities for boiling water at meal-times.

(c) These conveniences shall be arranged by the employer and the secretary of the union, and shall be kept clean by the employer.

Termination of Employment

16. All wages shall be paid on the dismissal of the worker. When a worker leaves his employer of his own accord, all wages due to him shall be paid by the employer within 24 hours.

Matters Not Provided For

17. Any dispute in connection with any matters not specifically provided for in this award shall be settled between the particular employer concerned and the executive of the union, and in default of any agreement being arrived at, then such dispute shall be referred to the Conciliation Commissioner for the district, who may either decide the same or refer the matter to the Court. Either party, if dissatisfied with the decision of the Commissioner, may appeal to the Court upon giving written notice of such appeal to the other party within seven days after such decision shall have been communicated to the party desiring to appeal.

Access to Factory

18. Every employer bound by this award shall permit the secretary or other authorised officer of the union to enter at all reasonable times (to be mutually arranged between the employer and the union) upon the premises or works and there interview any workers, but not so as to interfere unreasonably with the employer's business.

General Conditions

19. (a) When necessary, the employer shall, every six months supply each female worker with either a smock or overalls and suitable headgear in good order which when supplied shall be laundered and kept clean by the worker.

(b) The employer shall, where necessary, supply polishers, tar-room men, and all operators working machines on tarred goods with water-proof aprons and gloves. A worker operating tar-pot shall be paid 2d. per hour extra while so employed.

(c) A 10 minute interval each morning and afternoon shall be allowed provided there is no complete cessation of work.

(d) A clothing allowance of $\frac{1}{2}$ d. per hour shall be paid to all male workers covered by this award.

Workers to be Members of Union

20. (a) Subject to the provisions of sections 174 (5) and 175 of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954, it shall not be lawful for any employer bound by this award to employ or to continue to employ in any position or employment subject to this award any adult person who is not for the time being a member of an industrial union of workers bound by this award.

(b) For the purposes of subclause (a) of this clause a person of the age of 18 years or upwards, and every other person who for the time being is in receipt of not less than the minimum rate of wages prescribed by this award for workers of the age of 21 years and upwards, shall be deemed to be an adult.

(c) Every person who, being obliged to become a member of any union by the operation of the foregoing provisions, fails to become a member of that union when requested so to do by his employer or any officer or representative of the union, commits a breach of this award, and shall be liable accordingly.

(NOTE—Attention is drawn to section 174 (3) of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954 which gives to workers the right to join the union.)

Under-rate Workers

21. (a) Any worker who considers himself incapable of earning the minimum wage fixed by this award may be paid such lower wage as may from time to time be fixed, on the application of the worker after due notice to the union, by the local Inspector of Awards or such other person as the Court may from time to time appoint for that purpose; and such inspector or other person in so fixing such wage shall have regard to the worker's capability, his past earnings, and such other circumstances as such inspector or other person shall think fit to consider after hearing such evidence and argument as the union and such worker shall offer.

(b) Such permit shall be for such period, not exceeding six months, as such inspector or other person shall determine, and after the expiration of such period shall continue in force until 14 days' notice shall have been given to such worker by the secretary of the union requiring him to have his wage again fixed in manner prescribed by this clause: Provided that in the case of any person whose wage is so fixed by reason of old age or permanent disability it may be fixed for such longer period as such inspector or other person shall think fit.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, it shall be competent for a worker to agree in writing with the president or secretary of the union upon such wage without having the same so fixed.

(d) It shall be the duty of the union to give notice to the Inspector of Awards of every agreement made with a worker pursuant hereto.

(e) It shall be the duty of an employer, before employing a worker at such lower wage, to examine the permit or agreement by which such wage is fixed.

Transport

22. Where workers are called upon to work overtime, or workers on shift-work cease work, after the ordinary means of transport have ceased running, such workers shall be conveyed to their homes at the expense of the employer.

Scope of Award

23. This award shall apply to the parties named herein and to such other parties that may from time to time be added by order of the Court.

Term of Award

24. This award, in so far as the provisions relating to the rates of wages to be paid are concerned, shall be deemed to have come into force on the 26th day of July 1961, and so far as all other provisions of the award are concerned, it shall come into force on the day of the date hereof; and this award shall continue in force until the 26th day of July 1963.

In witness whereof the seal of the Court of Arbitration hath hereto been affixed, and the Judge of the Court hath hereunto set his hand, this 3rd day of August 1961.
