If, however, the worker is withdrawn from such work by the employer, or if he returns therefrom requiring medical attention in consequence of accident or sickness arising out of and in the course of the employment and is in either case again required on the work the employer shall again convey him or pay his fare to and from such work.

(b) Employment shall be determined by one week's notice in the case of weekly workers and one month's notice in the case of inspectors: Provided that this shall not apply to casual employees or in the case of any employee dismissed through misconduct. In the case of casual workers, two hours' notice on either side shall terminate the engagement.

(c) Except as provided for in subclause (d) of this clause, all guns, traps, equipment, rabbit-nets, ammunition, ferrets, and pack-horses, and food for these animals shall be provided by the employer.

(d) In lieu of providing motor vehicles, guns, ferrets, and/or traps, arrangements may be made for any of these to be provided by the worker, who shall be made an allowance at a rate not less than the following:

- (i) Motor vehicles: Either 1s. per mile or an agreed weekly rate.
- (ii) Guns: 10s. per month.
- (iii) Traps: 3d. per month per trap.
- (iv) Bicycles: A weekly allowance of 3s. shall be paid to workers who use their bicycles at the employer's request.
- (v) Ferrets: 1s. 2d. per week per ferret.
- (vi) Workers using their own motor vehicles and being required to tow caravans shall be paid 6d. per mile, or trailers 2d. per mile additional whilst so employed.

(e) The employer shall not be required to provide dogs, saddle-horses and/or their harness; but where a worker is required to supply his own he shall be given an allowance as follows:

- (i) Horses, including all feed, shoeing and incidental: 23s. per week.
- (ii) Horses, where employer provides feed and shoeing: 3s. 6d. per week.
- (iii) Dogs, including all food: 4s. per dog per week.
- (iv) Dogs, where employer provides food: 9½d. per dog per week.

(g) Workers required to mix phosphorus poison shall be paid 3s. 6d. per day extra whilst so employed.

(h) Distemper injections when required either by the board or before dogs are permitted on a property shall be paid for by the board.

(i) When a worker takes his annual holiday the allowance paid to him for dogs, horses, and ferrets shall continue in cases where he has to find the feed for these animals whilst on leave.

(j) In recognition of the fact that the rates set out in this clause are, in some cases, inadequate, it shall be competent for any board to agree with the secretary or other representative of the union upon such higher rate or rates as may be considered equitable.

(k) In the event of a dispute arising under this clause, the question shall be decided by a disputes committee in accordance with clause 15 hereof.

Contract Work

10. Where any work covered by this award is carried out on contract the contractor or contractors shall be bound by the provisions of this award.

Payment of Wages

11. Wages may be paid weekly or fortnightly, as may be arranged between the employer and the worker, but by arrangement with the union representative payment may be made monthly.

Wages shall be paid or posted within three working days after the end of the pay period. When workers leave of their own accord or are dismissed, they shall be paid as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter. Where it is alleged that there has been unreasonable delay, the matter shall be dealt with under clause 15 of this award, and if the disputes committee finds that the allegation is justified it may direct that a compensatory payment be made by the employer to the worker concerned.

First-Aid

12. Employers shall provide and maintain an adequate first-aid outfit for the use of workers or, at the discretion of the employer, employees may be provided with individual kits.

When a worker using cyanide, cyanogas or chloro-picrin for the destruction of rabbits requests a gas mask, he shall be supplied with same by the employer. Masks shall remain the property of the employer.

Workers to be Members of Union

13. (a) Subject to the provisions of sections 174 (5) and 175 of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954, it shall not be lawful for any employer bound by this award to employ or to continue to employ in any position or employment subject to this award any adult person who is not for the time being a member of an industrial union of workers bound by this award.

(b) For the purposes of subclause (a) of this clause a person of the age of 18 years or upwards, and every other person who for the time being is in receipt of not less than the minimum rate of wages prescribed by this award for workers of the age of 21 years and upwards, shall be deemed to be an adult.

(c) Every person who, being obliged to become a member of any union by the operation of the foregoing provisions, fails to become a member of that union when requested so to do by his employer or any officer or representative of the union, commits a breach of this award, and shall be liable accordingly.

(NOTE—Attention is drawn to section 174 (3) of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954 which gives to workers the right to join the union.)

Under-rate Workers

14. (a) Any worker who considers himself incapable of earning the minimum wage fixed by this award may be paid such lower wage as may from time to time be fixed, on the application of the worker after due notice to the union, by the local Inspector of Awards or such other person as the Court may from time to time appoint for that purpose; and such inspector or other person in so fixing such wage shall have regard to the worker's capability, his past earnings, and such other circumstances as such inspector or other person shall think fit to consider after hearing such evidence and argument as the union and such worker shall offer.

(b) Such permit shall be for such period, not exceeding six months, as such inspector or other person shall determine, and after the expiration of such period shall continue in force until 14 days' notice shall have been given to such worker by the secretary of the union requiring him to have his wage again fixed in manner prescribed by this clause: Provided that in the case of any person whose wage is so fixed by reason of old age or permanent disability it may be fixed for such longer period as such inspector or other person shall think fit.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, it shall be competent for a worker to agree in writing with the president or secretary of the union upon such wage without having the same so fixed.

(d) It shall be the duty of the union to give notice to the Inspector of Awards of every agreement made with a worker pursuant hereto.

(e) It shall be the duty of an employer, before employing a worker at such lower wage, to examine the permit or agreement by which such wage is fixed.

Disputes Committee

15. The essence of this award being that the work of the employers shall not on any account whatsoever be impeded but shall always proceed as if no dispute had arisen, it is provided that if any dispute or difference shall arise between the parties bound by this award, or any of them, as to any matter whatsoever arising out of or connected therewith and not dealt with in this award, every such dispute or difference shall be referred to a disputes committee to be composed of two representatives of each side, together with an independent chairman to be mutually agreed on or, in default of agreement, to be appointed by a Conciliation Commissioner. Should either party fail to appoint representatives to the disputes committee either party may refer the matter in dispute to a Conciliation Commissioner who may either decide the matter or refer the matter to the Court. In the event of the disputes committee failing to agree, the matter shall be referred to the Court. In the event of the disputes committee coming to a decision, either side shall have the right of appeal to the Court against the decision of the committee or the decision of the Commissioner, and written notice of such appeal shall be given to the other side within 14 days after such decision has been made known to the party desirous of appealing.

Application of Award

16. This award shall apply to the original parties named herein, and shall extend to and bind as subsequent party hereto every industrial union, industrial association, or employer who, not being an original party hereto, is, when this award comes into force or at any time whilst this award is in force, connected with or engaged in the industry to which this award applies within the industrial districts to which this award relates.

Scope of Award

17. This award shall operate throughout the Northern, Taranaki, Wellington, Marlborough, Nelson, Westland, Canterbury, and Otago and Southland Industrial Districts.

Term of Award

18. This award, in so far as the provisions relating to the rates of wages to be paid are concerned, shall be deemed to have come into force on the 14th day of August 1961, and so far as all other provisions of the award are concerned, it shall come into force on the day of the date hereof; and this award shall continue in force until the 28th day of February 1963.
