A country traveller shall be paid a minimum wage of £14 7s. per week, exclusive of car allowance and travelling expenses.

(b) If a traveller is employed by more than one employer, the employers collectively shall pay the traveller the minimum wage prescribed in the preceding subclause, and every such arrangement shall be submitted by the employers concerned to the Inspector of Factories for his approval.

(c) A "country traveller" is a traveller wholly or substantially engaged outside of the town and suburbs thereof in which the warehouse is situated, and nothing in this award in respect to hours of work and overtime shall apply to country travellers.

(d) A warehouseman may be employed as a probationary traveller for a period not exceeding three months, and while so employed shall be paid a special allowance of £1 per week, provided, however, that if his age is under 21 years, his minimum weekly rate including the allowance shall not be less than £9 10s., and provided, also, that if he operates outside of the town and suburbs thereof in which the warehouse is situated, clauses 3 and 7 of the award shall continue to apply to him.

The proportion of probationary travellers at any one time shall not exceed 20 per cent of the total number of travellers employed by an employer, but the operation of this proportion shall not prohibit the employment of one probationary traveller.

Casuals

6. A casual hand shall be paid not less than 6s. 10d. per hour. A warehouseman shall be deemed to be a casual hand when employed for less than one week.

Overtime and Holidays

7. (a) All work done in any one day outside or in excess of the hours prescribed in clause 3 hereof shall be deemed to be overtime, and shall be paid for at the rate of time and a half for the first three hours and double time thereafter.

(b) Workers required to work overtime after 6 p.m. or to work during the morning and continuing to work after 1 p.m. on Saturday or Sunday shall be given an interval for a meal and shall be paid 5s. meal money.

(c) The following shall be the recognised holidays: Christmas Day, Boxing Day, New Year's Day, 2 January, Anzac Day, Good Friday, Easter Saturday, Easter Monday, Labour Day, the birthday of the reigning Sovereign and Anniversary Day: Provided that in any district where Anniversary Day is not observed as a holiday, another day shall be allowed as a holiday in lieu thereof.

(d) Should any of the above holidays, except Anzac Day and Easter Saturday, fall on a Saturday or a Sunday, then for the purpose of this award such holiday shall be observed on the following Monday. In the event of Christmas Day and New Year's Day being observed on a Monday in pursuance of the foregoing, Boxing Day and 2 January shall be observed on the Tuesdays following the respective Mondays.

(e) All work done on Sundays, Christmas Day, Good Friday, or Anzac Day shall be paid for at double time rates; and all work done on any of the other specified holidays, or any day observed in lieu thereof, shall also be paid for at double time rates. The said payment shall be in addition to the ordinary weekly wage.

(f) The employer shall pay one-tenth of a day's ordinary wages to each worker in respect of each ordinary day worked by him for that employer during the fortnight ending on the day of the holidays referred to in subclause (c) of this clause.

Annual Holidays

8. (a) Two weeks' holiday on full pay shall be allowed to each worker on the completion of each year of employment. Subject to the provision of the Annual Holidays Act 1944, such holiday may be allowed in conjunction with the Christmas and New Year holiday. For less than one year of employment payment shall be made in conformity with the provisions of the Annual Holidays Act 1944. Such holidays shall be given in addition to the holidays specified in clause 7 of this award.

(b) Upon completion of 10 years' continuous employment with the same employer, a worker shall be granted an annual holiday of three weeks instead of two weeks as mentioned in subclause (a) of this clause.

(c) Where it is customary for any employer to allow annual holidays to his workers or to any class of his workers during a period in each year when his premises are closed or the work of these workers is for any reason discontinued, and at the date of the commencement of any such period any such worker has not become entitled to an annual holiday, then, subject to any agreement under the proviso to subsection (2) of section 3 of the Annual Holidays Act, that worker, notwithstanding the provisions of subclause (a) of clause 13 hereof, shall not be entitled to any wages for the two weeks following that date but the employer shall before that date pay to him in addition to all other amounts due to him at that date, including amounts to which he is entitled in respect of special holidays, an amount equal to one twenty-fifth of his ordinary pay for the period of his employment up to that date, and for the purposes of the Annual Holidays Act the next year of his employment shall be deemed to commence on that date.

Proportion

9. (a) The proportion of juniors to seniors in any warehouse or branch warehouse shall not exceed one junior to each senior substantially employed as a warehouseman under this award.

(b) The proportion of female workers to male workers in any warehouse or branch warehouse shall not exceed one female to each three male workers substantially employed as warehousemen under this award.

References

10. (a) Each worker on leaving or being discharged from his employment shall be given a reference in writing, on request, stating the position held and length of service.

(b) Original references shall be the property of the worker and shall be returned on request.

Payment of Wages

11. Wages shall be paid fortnightly, and in cash on any day not later than Thursday and in the employer's time, except in the case of casual workers, who shall be paid immediately upon discharge.

Transferring of Workers

12. Any employer transferring a worker, except at his own request, from one town to another shall pay such worker's fare, first class, rail or boat, and the transport of the worker's furniture and effects, to the place where such worker is transferred, and, if the worker does not terminate his employment within six months after the transfer, the employer shall refund the fare of the worker's wife and children (if any).

Terms of Employment

13. (a) The employment shall be deemed to be a weekly employment, and no deduction shall be made from the weekly wages except for time lost through the worker's sickness or default or through any accident not arising out of or in the course of the worker's employment.

(b) Not less than seven days' notice shall be given by either party of the termination of the employment, except in the case of casual hands; but nothing in this clause shall prevent an employer from summarily dismissing any worker for wilful misconduct.

Accommodation and Clothing

14. (a) Where required by the provisions of the Shops and Offices Act 1955, and regulations made thereunder, and otherwise where practicable, the employer shall provide a suitable dining-room, a room for changing clothes, and facilities for boiling water for the purpose of making tea. He shall also supply a sufficient number of wash-hand basins, clean towels, soap, and proper lavatory accommodation.

(b) Where three or more females are employed, a suitable rest-room and cloak-room shall be provided. If any females are employed, separate sanitary accommodation shall also be provided.

(c) In the event of any dispute as to the practicability of providing accommodation, the matter shall be dealt with under clause 15.

(d) On request, the employer shall supply smocks where the nature of the work makes it necessary.

Matters Not Provided For

15. Any dispute in connection with any matter not provided for in this award shall be settled between the particular employer and the secretary of the union, and in default of any agreement being arrived at, then such dispute shall be referred to the local Conciliation Commissioner, who may either decide the same or refer the matter to the Court. Either party, if dissatisfied with the decision of the Commissioner, may appeal to the Court upon giving written notice of such appeal to the other party within 14 days after such decision shall have been communicated to the party desiring to appeal.

Right of Entry

16. The secretary or other authorised officer of the union shall, with the consent of the employer (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld), be entitled to enter at all reasonable times upon the premises or works and there interview any workers, but not so as to interfere unreasonably with the employer's business.

Notification

17. Employers shall, on written request, at intervals of not more than three months supply to the secretary of the union the names of all workers employed by them under this award.

Rest Period

18. A rest period of 10 minutes shall be allowed to workers each morning and afternoon, but the periods for various workers shall be staggered if necessary to enable the business of the employer to be carried on.

Workers to be Members of Union

19. (a) Subject to the provisions of sections 174 (5) and 175 of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954, it shall not be lawful for any employer bound by this award to employ or to continue to employ in any position or employment subject to this award any adult person who is not for the time being a member of an industrial union of workers bound by this award.

(b) For the purposes of subclause (a) of this clause a person of the age of 18 years or upwards, and every other person who for the time being is in receipt of not less than the minimum rate of wages prescribed by this award for workers of the age of 21 years and upwards, shall be deemed to be an adult.

(c) Every person who, being obliged to become a member of any union by the operation of the foregoing provisions, fails to become a member of that union when requested so to do by his employer or any officer or representative of the union, commits a breach of this award, and shall be liable accordingly.

(NOTE—Attention is drawn to section 174 (3) of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954 which gives to workers the right to join the union.)

Under-rate Workers

20. (a) Any worker who considers himself incapable of earning the minimum wage fixed by this award may be paid such lower wage as may from time to time be fixed, on the application of the worker after due notice to the union, by the local Inspector of Awards or such other person as the Court may from time to time appoint for that purpose; and such inspector or other person in so fixing such wage shall have regard to the worker's capability, his past earnings, and such other circumstances as such inspector or other person shall think fit to consider after hearing such evidence and argument as the union and such worker shall offer.

(b) Such permit shall be for such period, not exceeding six months, as such inspector or other person shall determine, and after the expiration of such period shall continue in force until 14 days' notice shall have been given to such worker by the secretary of the union requiring him to have his wage again fixed in manner prescribed by this clause: Provided that in the case of any person whose wage is so fixed by reason of old age or permanent disability it may be fixed for such longer period as such inspector or other person shall think fit.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, it shall be competent for a worker to agree in writing with the president or secretary of the union upon such wage without having the same so fixed.

(d) It shall be the duty of the union to give notice to the Inspector of Awards of every agreement made with a worker pursuant hereto.

(e) It shall be the duty of an employer, before employing a worker at such lower wage, to examine the permit or agreement by which such wage is fixed.

Application of Award

21. This award shall apply to the original parties named herein, and shall extend to and bind as subsequent party hereto every industrial union, industrial association, or employer who, not being an original party hereto, is, when this award comes into force or at any time whilst this award is in force, connected with or engaged in the industry to which this award applies within the industrial districts to which this award relates.
