OTAGO AND SOUTHLAND BREWERY, MALTHOUSE, AND BOTTLING-HOUSE EMPLOYEES—AWARD

In the Court of Arbitration of New Zealand, Otago and Southland Industrial District—In the matter of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954; and in the matter of an industrial dispute between the Otago and Southland Brewery, Bottling Houses and Aerated Waters Industrial Union of Workers (hereinafter called “the union”) and the undermentioned companies (hereinafter called “the employers”):

New Zealand Breweries Ltd., Rattray Street, Dunedin.
Wilson Malt Extract Ltd., 8 Willowbank, Dunedin.

THE Court of Arbitration of New Zealand (hereinafter called “the Court”), having taken into consideration the terms of settlement arrived at in the above-mentioned dispute and forwarded directly to the Court pursuant to the provisions of section 130 of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954, doth hereby order and award:

That, as between the union and the members thereof and the employers and each and every of them, the terms, conditions, and provisions set out in the Schedule hereto and of this award shall be binding upon the union and upon every member thereof and upon the employers and upon each and every of them, and that the said terms, conditions, and provisions shall be deemed to be and they are hereby incorporated in and declared to form part of this award; and, further, that the union and every member thereof and the employers and each and every of them shall respectively do, observe, and perform every matter and thing by this award and by the said terms, conditions, and provisions respectively required to be done, observed, and performed, and shall not do anything in contravention of this award or of the said terms, conditions, and provisions, but shall in all respects abide by and perform the same. And the Court doth hereby further award, order, and declare that any breach of the said terms, conditions, and provisions set out in the Schedule hereto shall constitute a breach of this award, and that a penalty as by law provided shall be payable by any party or person in respect thereof. And the Court doth further order that this award shall take effect as hereinafter provided and shall continue in force until the 21st day of May 1962 and thereafter as provided by section 152 of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954.

In witness whereof the seal of the Court of Arbitration hath hereto been affixed, and the Judge of the Court hath hereunto set his hand, this 3rd day of February 1961.

(m) A worker who is directed to exercise authority over and/or issue instructions to three or more workers shall receive not less than 11s. 6d. per week above the rates prescribed in this award.

(n) Workers required to wear gumboots continuously shall be paid an allowance of 2s. per week in addition to their ordinary rates.

Requirements of Economic Stabilisation Regulations

5. No worker bound by this award shall in any week be paid a lesser amount by his employer than the worker would have been entitled to be paid under this award if it had specifically applied the general order of the Court dated 18 September 1959 otherwise than by incorporation pursuant to the pronouncement of the Court dated 18 September 1959.

Casual Workers

6. Workers employed for less than one week shall be paid at not less than 6s. 8½d. per hour.

Overtime

7. (a) All time worked in any day outside of or in excess of the ordinary hours prescribed in clause 3 hereof shall be deemed to be overtime and shall be paid for at the rate of time and a half for the first three hours and double time thereafter, except on Saturdays, when the rate shall be time and a half for the first four hours and double time thereafter.

(b) Workers called upon to work at any time from midnight Friday to midday Saturday shall be paid a minimum of three hours for each period upon which they are called to work, and if called upon to work between midday Saturday and midnight Sunday they shall be paid for a minimum of two hours.

All time worked on Saturday afternoon and on Sunday shall be paid for at double rates.

Meal-money

8. (a) When a worker is called upon to work overtime in excess of one hour, and notice of requirement to work overtime has not been given on the previous working-day, 5s. tea-money shall be paid.

(b) When a worker has been notified that he is required to work overtime and the notice is withdrawn on the day on which the overtime was to be worked, he shall receive a payment of 5s.

Holidays

9. (a) The following shall be observed as holidays: New Year's Day, the day following New Year's Day, Anniversary Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, Labour Day, Christmas Day, Boxing Day, and the birthday of the reigning Sovereign.

(b) When any of the holidays mentioned in subclause (a) hereof falls on a working-day, payment shall be made for same, as if worked, at ordinary rates of wages.

(c) When any of the above holidays, except Anzac Day, falls on a Saturday or Sunday, the holiday shall be observed on the next succeeding working day or days.

(d) For work done on any of the holidays mentioned in subclause (a) hereof payment shall be made at the rate of double time in addition to any payment the worker may be entitled to under subclause (b) hereof.

(e) Shift-workers whose ordinary day off falls on one of the specified holidays shall be allowed another working-day in lieu thereof, such day to be mutually agreed upon.

(f) The provisions of the Annual Holidays Act 1944 shall apply to workers covered by this award, except that shift-workers who work weekly shifts equivalent to not less than one week in every three and workers who have been employed continuously by the same employer for 10 years or more shall receive three weeks' annual holiday.

(g) Payment shall be made prior to the worker leaving for the holiday.

Special Provisions

10. (a) Workers shall be allowed, without deduction of pay, 15 minutes to cool off after taking off or turning kiln, or after working in hot hop-back or hot brewing coppers.

(b) Where and when necessary, employers shall provide waterproof aprons, suitable footwear for use in wet places, gloves, or mitts, and oilskins. Maltsters shall be provided with goggles and respirators and respirator pads.

(c) A modern first-aid emergency case, fully equipped shall be kept in a convenient and accessible place.

(d) Adequate facilities shall be provided for workers to wash and, where reasonably practicable, hot water and a drying-room shall be provided and, where necessary, a shower-bath shall be provided for malthouse and brewery workers. Adequate provision shall be made for men to change their clothes.

(e) Reasonable dining and sanitary accommodation and provision for the storing of men's clothes shall be provided.

(f) No worker shall take off a malt kiln while the tile temperature is over 170°F.

(g) When any worker residing beyond 2 miles by the nearest traffic route from the factory is required to commence or cease work after or before the commencement or cessation of public wheeled traffic which is his regular means of transport, the employer shall provide transport to and from the worker's residence or pay the sum of 3s. on each occasion in lieu thereof.

(h) Maltsters shall be supplied with one pair of suitable boots per annum.

(i) Subject to request by the worker, one pair of overalls shall be supplied after each six months' service to each worker covered by this award.

Matters Not Provided For

11. Any dispute in connection with any matter not provided for in this award shall be settled between the particular employer concerned and the secretary or president of the union, and in default of any agreement being arrived at, then such dispute shall be referred to the local Conciliation Commissioner, who may either decide the same or refer the matter to the Court. Either party, if dissatisfied with the decision of the Commissioner, may appeal to the Court upon giving written notice of such appeal to the other party within 14 days after such decision shall have been communicated to the party desiring to appeal.

Terms of Employment

12 (a) One week's notice of the termination of engagement of any worker, except casuals, shall be given by the employer or the worker, as the case may be; but this shall not affect the right of any employer to discharge a worker for good cause.

(b) Should the employment of a worker be terminated by the employer with less than one week's notice (other than for good cause), such worker shall be paid one week's wages in lieu of notice.

(c) On the termination of the employment of any worker, all wages and holiday payment due to such worker shall be paid forthwith.

(d) The employment shall be deemed to be a weekly employment and no deduction shall be made from the weekly wages except for time lost through the worker's sickness or default or through accident not arising out of or in the course of his employment.

Right of Entry Upon Premises

13. (a) The secretary or other authorised officer of the union shall, with the consent of the employer (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld), be entitled to enter at all reasonable times upon the premises or works and there interview any workers, but not so as to interfere unreasonably with the employer's business.

(b) Employers shall, not more often than once in every six months, if requested by the union, supply a list of workers in their employment.

Workers to be Members of Union

14. (a) Subject to the provisions of sections 174 (5) and 175 of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954, it shall not be lawful for any employer bound by this award to employ or to continue to employ in any position or employment subject to this award any adult person who is not for the time being a member of an industrial union of workers bound by this award.

(b) For the purposes of subclause (a) of this clause a person of the age of 18 years or upwards, and every other person who for the time being is in receipt of not less than the minimum rate of wages prescribed by this award for workers of the age of 21 years and upwards, shall be deemed to be an adult.

(c) Every person who, being obliged to become a member of any union by the operation of the foregoing provisions, fails to become a member of that union when requested so to do by his employer or any officer or representative of the union, commits a breach of this award, and shall be liable accordingly.

(NOTE—Attention is drawn to section 174 (3) of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954, which gives to workers the right to join the union.)

Under-rate Workers

15. (a) Any worker who considers himself incapable of earning the minimum wage fixed by this award may be paid such lower wage as may from time to time be fixed, on the application of the worker after due notice to the union, by the local Inspector of Awards or such other person as the Court may from time to time appoint for that purpose; and such inspector or other person in so fixing such wage shall have regard to the worker's capability, his past earnings, and such other circumstances as such inspector or other person shall think fit to consider after hearing such evidence and argument as the union and such worker shall offer.

(b) Such permit shall be for such period, not exceeding six months, as such inspector or other person shall determine, and after the expiration of such period shall continue in force until 14 days' notice shall have been given to such worker by the secretary of the union requiring him to have his wage again fixed in manner prescribed by this clause: Provided that in the case of any person whose wage is so fixed by reason of old age or permanent disability it may be fixed for such longer period as such inspector or other person shall think fit.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, it shall be competent for a worker to agree in writing with the president or secretary of the union upon such wage without having the same so fixed.

(d) It shall be the duty of the union to give notice to the Inspector of Awards of every agreement made with a worker pursuant hereto.

(e) It shall be the duty of an employer, before employing a worker at such lower wage, to examine the permit or agreement by which such wage is fixed.

Application of Award

16. This award shall apply to the original parties named herein, and shall extend to and bind as subsequent party hereto every industrial union, industrial association, or employer who, not being an original party hereto, is, when this award comes into force or at any time whilst this award is in force, connected with or engaged in the industry to which this award applies within the industrial district to which this award relates.

Scope of Award

17. This award shall operate throughout the Otago and Southland Industrial District.

Term of Award

18. This award, in so far as the provisions relating to the rates of wages to be paid are concerned, shall be deemed to have come into force on the 18th day of November 1960, and so far as all other provisions of the award are concerned, it shall come into force on the day of the date hereof; and this award shall continue in force until the 21st day of May 1962.

In witness whereof the seal of the Court of Arbitration hath hereto been affixed, and the Judge of the Court hath hereunto set his hand, this 3rd day of February 1961.
