5. Computation of Output

For the purpose of defining the output, the factory weights shall apply and the scale paid accordingly.

6. Holidays

(a) Managers of cheese factories shall be allowed four weeks' holiday on full pay each year, and managers of butter factories shall be allowed three weeks' holiday on full pay each year.

(b) If the employment is terminated before the close of the season a proportionate holiday or payment in lieu thereof shall be allowed.

7. Payment of Salaries

The manager shall receive his salary monthly at the close of each month, such to be based on the estimated current year's output, and any final adjustment within 14 days after the close of the employer's financial year.

8. Term of Engagement

One month's notice in writing shall be given on either side of the intention to terminate the engagement, but this shall not interfere with the right of any employer to dismiss a manager summarily for misconduct, insubordination or incompetency.

9. Assistants

The manager shall engage and discharge assistants, and shall keep their time and furnish a correct statement of such time to the directors or secretary of the company. Should any question arise between the manager and the company as to the staffing of the factory it shall be referred to and dealt with by the committee set up for the purpose of such disputes as provided for in clause 10 hereof.

10. Matters Not Provided For

The essence of this agreement being that the work of the employer shall not on any account whatsoever be impeded but shall always proceed as if no dispute had arisen, it is provided that if any dispute or difference shall arise between the parties bound by this agreement or any of them as to any matter whatsoever arising out of or connected therewith and not dealt with therein, every such dispute or difference shall be referred to a committee to be composed of two representatives of the union and two representatives of the employers together with an independent chairman to be mutually agreed upon. In the event of such committee being unable to settle the dispute it may refer the matter to the Court of Arbitration. Either side shall have the right to appeal to the Court against any decision of such committee upon giving the other side written notice of such appeal within 14 days after such decision shall have been made known to the party desirous of appealing.

11. Definitions

For the purpose of this agreement a "manager" is the person appointed by a dairy company or owner of a dairy factory and who is held responsible for the manufacture of butter and/or cheese, is duly registered as a factory manager under the Dairy Factory Managers' Regulations and their amendments, and is also the holder of a cream grader's and/or milk grader's certificate under the Dairy Regulations and their amendments.

12. Engagements of Managers

(a) All testimonials, references and application papers submitted to an employer by a person who is the holder of dairy factory manager's qualifications and who is answering an advertisement for a position as manager shall be dealt with in confidence by the employer and shall not be published to any person other than a supplier or shareholder of the company.

(b) If the employer requests an interview with the applicant he shall reimburse the applicant for expenses reasonably incurred where such applicant has to travel more than 50 miles.

13. Workers to be Members of Union

(a) It shall not be lawful for any employer bound by this agreement to employ or to continue to employ in any position or employment subject to this agreement any adult person who is not for the time being a member of an industrial union of workers bound by this agreement: Provided, however, that any non-unionist may be continued in any position or employment by an employer bound by this agreement during any time while there is no member of a union bound by this agreement who is available to perform the particular work required to be done and is ready and willing to undertake it.

(b) For the purpose of subclause (a) of this clause a person of the age of 18 years or upwards, and every person who for the time being is in receipt of not less than the minimum rate of wages prescribed by this agreement for workers of the age of 21 years and upwards, shall be deemed to be an adult.

(NOTE—Attention is drawn to subsection (4) of section 18 of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Amendment Act 1936, which gives to workers the right to join the union.)

14. Application of Agreement

This agreement shall apply to the original parties named herein, and shall extend to and bind as subsequent party hereto every trade union, industrial union, industrial association, or employer who not being an original party hereto, is, when this agreement comes into force, connected with or engaged in the industry to which this agreement applies within the industrial districts to which this agreement relates.

15. Scope of Agreement

This agreement shall operate throughout the Marlborough Nelson, Westland and Canterbury Industrial Districts.

16. Term of Agreement

This agreement in so far as it relates to wages, shall be deemed to have come into force on the 1st day of August 1960 and so far as all other provisions are concerned it shall come into force on the day of the date hereof; and this agreement shall continue in force until the 31st day of July 1962.
