(c) Every worker obliged under sub-clause (a) hereof to become a member of a union who fails to become a member, as required by that sub-clause, after being requested to do so by an officer or authorised representative of the union, and every worker who fails to remain a member of a union in accordance with sub-clause (b) hereof, commits a breach of this award.

(d) Every employer bound by this award commits a breach of this award if he continues to employ any worker to whom sub-clauses (a) and (b) apply, after having been notified by any officer or authorised representative of the union that the worker has been requested to become a member of the union and has failed to do so, or that the worker, having become a member of the union, has failed to remain a member.

(e) For purposes of this clause "adult person" means a person of the age of 18 years or upwards, or a person who for the time being is in receipt of not less than the minimum rate of wages prescribed for adult workers by this award.

Disputes

19. The essence of this agreement being that the work of the employers shall not on any account whatsoever be impeded but shall always proceed as if no dispute had arisen, it is provided that if any dispute or difference shall arise between the parties bound by this agreement, or any of them, as to any matter whatsoever arising out of or connected therewith and not specifically provided for in this agreement, every such dispute or difference shall be referred to a committee to be composed of two representatives of each side, together with an independent chairman, if required by either party, to be mutually agreed upon or, in default of agreement, to be appointed by the Conciliation Commissioner for the district. If the committee fails to reach a decision the chairman shall either decide the question or refer the matter to the Court within one month from the date of hearing by the committee. Either side shall have the right to appeal to the Court against a decision of any such committee or chairman upon giving to the other side written notice of such appeal within 14 days after such decision has been made known to the party desirous of appealing.
