(a) Every employer bound by this award shall permit the secretary or any other authorised officer of the union of workers to enter at all reasonable times (to be mutually arranged between the employer and the union) upon the premises or works and there interview any workers, but not so as to interfere unreasonably with the employer's business.

Disputes

15. ### Unqualified Preference

16. (a) Any adult person engaged or employed in any position or employment subject to this award by any employer bound by this award, shall, if he is not already a member of a union of workers bound by this award, become a member of such union within seven days after his engagement, or after this clause comes into force, as the case may require.

(c) Every worker obliged under subclause (a) hereof to become a member of a union who fails to become a member as required by that subclause, after being requested to do so by an officer or authorised representative of the union, and every worker who fails to remain a member of a union in accordance with subclause (b) hereof commits a breach of this award.

(d) Every employer bound by this award commits a breach of this award if he continues to employ any worker to whom subclauses (a) and (b) apply, after having been notified by any officer or authorised representative of the union that the worker has been requested to become a member of the union and has failed to do so, or that the worker having become a member of the union has failed to remain a member.

(e) For the purposes of this clause "adult person" means a person of the age of 18 years or upwards, or a person who for the time being is in receipt of not less than the minimum rate of wages prescribed for adult workers by this award.

(NOTE—Attention is drawn to section 174H of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954 which gives to workers the right to join the union.)

Under-rate Workers

17. (a) Any worker who considers himself incapable of earning the minimum wage fixed by this award may be paid such lower wage as may from time to time be fixed, on the application of the worker after due notice to the union, by the local Inspector of Awards or such other person as the Court may from time to time appoint for that purpose; and such inspector or other person in so fixing such wage shall have regard to the worker's capability, his past earnings, and such other circumstances as such inspector or other person shall think fit to consider after hearing such evidence and argument as the union and such worker shall offer.

(b) Such permit shall be for such period, not exceeding six months, as such inspector or other person shall determine, and after the expiration of such period shall continue in force until 14 days' notice shall have been given to such worker by the secretary of the union requiring him to have his wage again fixed in manner prescribed by this clause: Provided that in the case of any person whose wage is so fixed by reason of old age or permanent disability it may be fixed for such longer period as such inspector or other person shall think fit.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, it shall be competent for a worker to agree in writing with the president or secretary of the union upon such wage without having the same so fixed.

(d) It shall be the duty of the union to give notice to the Inspector of Awards of every agreement made with a worker pursuant hereto.

(e) It shall be the duty of an employer, before employing a worker at such lower wage, to examine the permit or agreement by which such wage is fixed.

Scope of Award

18. This award shall apply only to the parties named herein.

Term of Award

19. This award, in so far as the provisions relating to the rates of wages to be paid are concerned, shall be deemed to have come into force on the 27th day of July 1962, and so far as all other provisions of the award are concerned, it shall come into force on the day of the date hereof; and this award shall continue in force until the 31st day of January 1964.

MEMORANDUM

The award, which incorporates the terms of settlement arrived at by the parties, includes a clause designed to operate as an unqualified preference provision within the meaning of section 174 of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954 (as amended by the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Amendment Act 1961). Section 174B directs that the Court in making any award shall insert therein an unqualified preference provision only if it is satisfied under the first alternative that such a provision has been agreed upon by all the assessors in the course of an inquiry into an industrial dispute by a Council of Conciliation. For the purposes of section 174B the Court is satisfied to accept the complete settlement arrived at by the parties and executed by or on behalf of all the assessors as proof that the unqualified preference provision has been agreed to by all the assessors, and clause 16 has therefore been incorporated in the award in the form in which it was agreed upon in the Council of Conciliation.

The rates of remuneration prescribed in the award are not to be increased by the application of the provisions of the Court's general order of 4 July 1962.
