Female laboratory assistants shall be paid 7s. 4d. per week in addition to their ordinary wages.

(NOTE—The above wage rates include the general order of the Court dated 4 July 1962.)

(d) Firemen, canister-makers, metal workers' assistants, tin-smiths, and painters, shall be paid the rate of wages prescribed in the respective agreements covering such workers for the time being in force in the districts in which they are employed, but shall be otherwise bound by the provisions of this agreement.

Casual Labour

4. The rate for casual workers shall be not less than 6s. 8d. per hour. A casual worker is a worker employed for less than a week.

Overtime

5. (a) Except where otherwise provided all work done outside or in excess of the hours prescribed in this agreement shall be paid for at the rate of time and a half for the first three hours, and double time thereafter, calculations to be on a daily basis.

(b) For the time worked on Sundays, workers shall be paid double rates of wages.

(c) In the event of any worker having to work on more than seven consecutive days, he shall be paid for the eighth day double ordinary rates of pay.

Holidays

6. (a) Every worker covered by this agreement shall be allowed the following holidays without deduction of wages; Christmas Day, New Year's Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, Labour Day, the birthday of the reigning Sovereign, Boxing Day, and Anniversary Day or another day in lieu thereof.

(b) The provisions of the Public Holidays Act 1910, and its amendments shall apply in respect of holidays which fall on Saturdays or Sundays.

(c) Any work performed on any of the above holidays shall be paid for at double time rates. Such payment shall be in addition to the ordinary weekly wage.

(d) In addition to the above holidays, workers covered by the agreement shall be granted two weeks holiday on full pay after each year of service. Provided that a worker leaving his employment or being dismissed at any time shall be entitled to equivalent of pay proportionate to the time he has served.

(e) Workers engaged continuously throughout the season on night shift work shall be allowed three weeks holiday instead of two weeks as prescribed above: Such holidays shall be taken during the period known as the off season, and at a time fixed by the employer.

(f) The provisions of the Factories Act 1946 relating to payment for statutory holidays, shall apply to workers coming within the scope of this agreement.

(g) Each worker shall be given seven days' notice of when his annual holiday shall commence and his holiday pay shall be paid in advance.

Deduction of Wages

7. No deduction shall be made from the weekly wages provided herein for any cause save for time lost through the workers' own default, sickness or accident to the worker.

Time and Wages Book

8. The employer shall keep a time and wages book as required by the Factories Act.

Payment of Wages

9. Wages shall be paid at the factory at not more than fortnightly intervals and not later than 5 p.m. on Wednesday of each fortnight.

Meal Time

10. No worker shall be required to work more than five hours continuously without a meal, the time allowed for same to be not less than half an hour. In the case of workers being required to work before 7 a.m. or after 6 p.m., half an hour shall be allowed for a meal without deduction. Workers who are required to work overtime after 6.30 p.m. shall be paid a meal allowance of 5s. 2d. Workers other than shift workers who commence before 7 a.m. shall be paid the meal allowance.

Change of Duties

11. Any worker doing the work usually done by a worker on a higher rate of wages shall be paid such higher rate while he is so employed.

Rest Period

12. For day workers a rest period of 10 minutes shall be allowed each morning and afternoon. Workers employed for more than two and a half hours consecutively on overtime shall be allowed a 10 minute rest at the end of each two consecutive hours. Shift workers shall be allowed two rest periods of 10 minutes in each shift in addition to half an hour crib-time.

Termination of Employment

13. In the case of workers other than casual hands, a week's notice in writing of dismissal or resignation shall be given by the employer or the worker. Where the employment is terminated without the requisite notice, one week's wages shall be paid or forfeited as the case may be. This however, shall not prevent the summary dismissal of a worker for wilful misconduct.

First-aid Outfit

14. The employer shall provide a modern first-aid emergency case, fully equipped which shall be kept in a place convenient to both day and night workers, and a case shall be kept in the malted milk department.

General Conditions

15. (a) Boiling water shall be provided for meals.

(b) Provisions for dressing-rooms, meal-rooms, lockers, or locker rooms shall be in accordance with the requirements of the Inspector of Factories. A dressing-room handy to workers at night time on pans shall be provided.

(c) Wash basins with hot water and cold water shall be provided for the workers by the employers.

(d) All workers employed in wet positions shall be supplied by the employer with suitable aprons free, which shall remain the property of the employer. Workers required to clean boilers, brine tanks, and gasometers shall be provided with overalls, and shall be paid 2s. 4d. per day dirt money in addition to the schedule rate of wages.

(e) A worker washing a vacuum pan shall be paid 2s. 7d. per pan in addition to the ordinary weekly wage, or if two workers are employed washing the same pan, the allowance shall be 1s. 6d. per pan each in addition to the ordinary weekly wage.

(f) Where workers are required to wear clothing other than their usual clothing the same shall be supplied by the employer and kept clean and in repair by the employer.

(g) Workers in the tin shop shall be supplied with overalls.

(h) Should any worker be in receipt of higher remuneration than stated in this agreement he shall not have his wages reduced through the coming into force of this agreement.

Exemptions

16. Nothing in this agreement shall apply to managers, foremen, chemists, clerical workers, or motor or horse drivers.

Matters Not Provided For

17. Any dispute in connection with any matter not provided for in this agreement shall be settled between the employer concerned and the secretary or president of the union, and in default of any agreement being arrived at, then such dispute shall be referred to the Conciliation Commissioner, who may either decide same or refer the matter to the Court. Either party if dissatisfied with the decision of the Commissioner may appeal to the Court upon giving written notice of such appeal to the other party within 14 days after such decision shall have been communicated to the party desiring to appeal.

Right of Entry

18. The secretary or other authorised officer of the union of workers shall with the consent of the employer (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld) be entitled to interview workers during their working hours, but not so far as to interfere unreasonably with the employer's business.

Unqualified Preference

19. (a) Any adult person engaged or employed in any position or employment subject to this agreement by any employer bound by this agreement, shall, if not already a member of a union of workers bound by this agreement become a member of such union within seven days after his engagement or after this clause comes into force; as the case may require.

(b) Subject to subclause (a) hereof every adult person so engaged or employed shall remain a member of a union of workers bound by this agreement so long as he continues in any position or employment subject to this agreement.

(c) Every worker obliged under subclause (a) hereof to become a member of a union who fails to become a member as required by that subclause after being requested to do so by any officer or authorised representative of the Union, and every worker who fails to remain a member of a union in accordance with subclause (b) hereof commits a breach of this agreement.

(d) Every employer bound by this agreement commits a breach of the agreement if he continues to employ any worker to whom subclauses (a) and (b) apply, after having been notified by any officer or authorised representative of the union that the worker has been requested to become a member of the union and has failed to remain a member.

(e) For the purposes of this clause "adult person" means a person of the age of 18 years or upwards, or a person who for the time being is in receipt of not less than the minimum rate of wages prescribed for adult workers by this agreement.

(f) Subject to the preceding subclauses: On the last pay day in each of the months of September, January and May, the company shall deduct as union fees the sum of 10s. from male adults, and 6s. 8d. from female adults, covered by clause 3 of this agreement, and forward the money to the union together with a list of employees from whom such deductions were made.

NOTE—Attention is drawn to subsection (4) of section 18 of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1936, which gives to workers the right to join the union.

Under-rate Workers

20. (a) Any worker who considers himself incapable of earning the minimum wage fixed by this agreement may be paid such lower wage as may from time to time be fixed on the application of the worker after due notice to the union by the local Inspector of Awards, or other such person as the Court may from time to time appoint for that purpose; and such inspector or other person in so fixing such wage shall have regard to the worker's capability, his past earnings, and such other circumstances, as such inspector or other person shall think fit to consider after hearing such evidence and argument as the union and such worker shall offer.

(b) Such permit shall be for such period not exceeding six months as such inspector or other person shall determine and after the expiration of such period shall continue in force until 14 days notice shall have been given to such worker by the secretary of the union requiring him to have his wage again fixed in manner prescribed by this clause; provided that in the case of any person whose wage is so fixed by reason of old age or permanent disability it may be fixed for such longer period as such inspector or other person shall think fit.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing it shall be competent for a worker to agree in writing with the president or secretary of the union upon such wage without having the same so fixed.

(d) It shall be the duty of the union to give notice to the Inspector of Awards of every agreement made with a worker pursuant hereto.

(e) It shall be the duty of the employer before employing a worker at such lower wage to examine the permit or agreement by which such wage is fixed.

Scope of Agreement

21. This agreement shall apply only to the parties herein.

Term of Agreement

22. This agreement in so far as the provisions relating to the rates of wages to be paid are concerned shall be deemed to have come into force on the 1st day of August 1962, and so far as all other provisions are concerned, it shall come into force on the date of the day hereof, and this agreement shall continue in force until the 30th day of June 1964.
