(b) Where the employer maintains a cafeteria and supplies a suitable meal free of charge to his employees the meal allowance shall not be paid.

(c) The meal money payment shall be made to the worker each day before commencing overtime.

(d) A break of 10 minutes for tea shall be allowed each morning and afternoon without deduction from wages: Provided that the afternoon break shall be allowed not later than one hour before the ordinary closing time of the factory.

(b) Payment of wages for the said holidays shall be made to all persons who have been employed at any time during the fortnight ending on the day on which the holiday occurs.

(c) Should any of the prescribed holidays, except Anzac Day, fall on a Saturday or a Sunday, such holiday shall be observed on the next ordinary working day or days.

Right of Entry

13. Every employer bound by this award shall permit the secretary of the union, or other authorised representative, to enter at all reasonable times upon the premises or works and there interview any worker, but not so as to interfere unreasonably with the employer's business.

Termination of Employment

14. One week's notice shall be given on either side before dismissal or leaving employment. This shall not prevent an employer from summarily dismissing a worker for misconduct.

Where the employment is terminated by either party without notice and without good cause, one week's wages shall be paid or forfeited in lieu of notice.

General

15. (a) The employers shall grant five minutes before the ordinary hour of ceasing work, and provide facilities for their workers to clean their hands and brush their clothes. Hot water, soap and clean towels (or other suitable means of drying) shall be available and provided by the employer.

Should any worker meet with an accident requiring medical attention during the course of her employment the employer shall immediately after the accident arrange for the worker's transport to a nearby doctor or to a hospital in order that the worker may receive the necessary immediate medical or surgical attention.

(f) A timepiece shall be kept in every workroom in a place visible to workers.

(g) The employers shall supply and keep in order a dining room for women workers, provided such room, in the opinion of the Inspector of Factories, is necessary.

(h) The employer shall provide a separate room in which kapok, down, fibre, or feathers shall be worked. Every such room shall be ventilated in accordance with section 56 of the Factories Act 1946.

(i) No female shall be allowed to handle used carpets, outside awnings, curtains, rugs, or quilts unless same have been thoroughly sterilised or cleaned.

(j) If a worker, at the direction of her employer, commences work at any place other than the workshop of the employer, she shall be paid for the extra time necessarily involved in commencing work at such other place instead of the workshop.

(k) Employers shall provide and launder smocks or overalls for use when workers are employed as carpet workers, workers engaged on sun awnings and making roller blinds, and on filling kapok or down, or when employed on secondhand repair or alteration work. The smocks or overalls shall remain the property of the employer.

(l) Every employer shall, on request from the local union or its representatives, supply within one month from the date requested the names and occupations of all workers in his employ coming within the scope of this award, but not more often than at three monthly periods.

Matters Not Provided For

16. The essence of this award being that the work of the employers shall not on any account whatsoever be impeded but shall always proceed as if no dispute had arisen, it is provided that if any dispute or difference shall arise between the parties bound by this award, or any of them, as to any matter whatsoever arising out of or connected therewith and not dealt with in this award, every such dispute or difference shall be referred to a committee to be composed of two representatives of each side, together with an independent chairman to be mutually agreed upon, or, in default of agreement, to be appointed by the Conciliation Commissioner for the district. If the committee is unable to decide the question then the chairman shall give a decision or refer the matter to the Court. Either side shall have the right to appeal to the Court against a decision of any such committee or chairman upon giving to the other side written notice of such appeal within 14 days after such decision has been made known to the party desirous of appealing.

Under-rate Workers

17. (a) Any worker who considers himself incapable of earning the minimum wage fixed by this award may be paid such lower wage as may from time to time be fixed, on the application of the worker after due notice to the union, by the local Inspector of Awards or such other person as the Court may from time to time appoint for that purpose; and such inspector or other person in so fixing such wage shall have regard to the workers capability, his past earnings, and such other circumstances as such inspector or other person shall think fit to consider after hearing such evidence and argument as the union and such worker shall offer.

(b) Such permit shall be for such period, not exceeding six months, as such inspector or other person shall determine, and after the expiration of such period shall continue in force until 14 days' notice shall have been given to such worker by the secretary of the union requiring him to have his wage again fixed in manner prescribed by this clause: Provided that in the case of any person whose wage is so fixed by reason of old age or permanent disability it may be fixed for such longer period as such inspector or other person shall think fit.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, it shall be competent for a worker to agree in writing with the president or secretary of the union upon such wage without having the same so fixed.

(d) It shall be the duty of the union to give notice to the Inspector of Awards of every agreement made with a worker pursuant hereto.

(e) It shall be the duty of an employer, before employing a worker at such lower wage, to examine the permit or agreement by which such wage is fixed.

Unqualified Preference

18. (a) Any adult person engaged or employed in any position or employment subject to this award by any employer bound by this award shall, if he is not already a member of a union of workers bound by this award, become a member of such union within 14 days after his engagement, or after this clause comes into force, as the case may require.

(b) Subject to subclause (a) hereof, every adult person so engaged or employed shall remain a member of a union of workers bound by this award so long as he continues in any position or employment subject to this award.

(c) Every worker obliged under subclause (a) hereof to become a member of a union who fails to become a member, as required by that subclause, after being requested to do so by an officer or authorised representative of the union, and every worker who fails to remain a member of a union in accordance with subclause (b) hereof commits a breach of this award.

(d) Every employer bound by this award commits a breach of this award if he continues to employ any worker to whom subclauses (a) and (b) apply, after having been notified by any officer or authorised representative of the union that the worker has been requested to become a member of a union and has failed to do so, or that the worker having become a member of the union has failed to remain a member.

(e) For the purposes of this clause "adult person" means a person of the age of 18 years or upwards, or a person who for the time being is in receipt of not less than the minimum rate of wages prescribed for adult workers by this award.

(NOTE—Attention is drawn to section 174H of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954 which gives to workers the right to join the union.)

Application of Award

19. This award shall apply to the original parties named herein, and shall extend to and bind as subsequent party hereto every industrial union, industrial association, or employer who, not being an original party hereto, is, when this award comes into force or at any time whilst this award is in force, connected with or engaged in the industry to which this award applies within the industrial districts to which this award relates.

Scope of Award

20. This award shall operate throughout the Taranaki, Wellington, Marlborough, Nelson, Westland, Canterbury, and Otago and Southland Industrial Districts.

Term of Award

21. This award, in so far as the provisions relating to the rates of wages to be paid are concerned, shall be deemed to have come into force on the first day of the working week in each establishment commencing on or after the 6th day of August 1962, and so far as all other provisions of the award are concerned, it shall come into force on the day of the date hereof; and this award shall continue in force until the 31st day of December 1963.

In witness whereof the seal of the Court of Arbitration hath hereto been affixed, and the Judge of the Court hath hereunto set his hand, this 19th day of September 1962.

MEMORANDUM

The award, which incorporates the terms of settlement arrived at by the parties, includes a clause designed to operate as an unqualified preference provision within the meaning of section 174 of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954 (as amended by the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Amendment Act 1961). Section 174B directs that the Court in making any award shall insert therein an unqualified preference provision only if it is satisfied under the first alternative that such a provision has been agreed upon by all the assessors in the course of an inquiry into an industrial dispute by a Council of Conciliation. For the purposes of section 174B the Court is satisfied to accept the complete settlement arrived at by the parties and executed by or on behalf of all the assessors as proof that the unqualified preference provision has been agreed to by all the assessors, and clause 18 has therefore been incorporated in the award in the form in which it was agreed upon in the Council of Conciliation.

The rates of remuneration prescribed in the award are not to be increased by the application of the provisions of the Court's general order of 4 July 1962.
