

INDEPENDENT FISHERIES LTD. AND UNITED FISHERIES LTD. OYSTER OPENERS'
—AGREEMENT UNDER THE LABOUR DISPUTES INVESTIGATION ACT 1913

This industrial agreement is made in pursuance of the Labour Disputes Investigation Act 1913, this 16th day of February 1962, between the Canterbury Wholesale Oyster Openers Society (Incorporated) (hereinafter called the society) of the one part and Independent Fisheries Ltd. and United Fisheries Ltd. (hereinafter called the employer). Now this agreement witnesseth and it is hereby mutually agreed by and between the parties hereto, as follows:

1. That the terms, conditions, stipulations, and provisions contained and set out in the Schedule hereto shall be binding upon the said parties, and they shall be deemed to be and are hereby declared to form part of this agreement.

2. The said parties hereto shall respectively do, observe, and perform every matter and thing by this agreement and the said terms, conditions, stipulations, and provisions respectively required to be done, observed, and performed, and shall not do anything in contravention of this agreement or of the said terms, conditions, stipulations, and provisions, but shall in all respects abide by and perform the same.

SCHEDULE

Industry to Which Agreement Applicable

1. This agreement shall apply to the industry of opening oysters for the wholesale trade and to employees employed thereat provided however that no further handling or processing of the oysters shall be performed under the agreement.

Hours of Work

2. (a) The ordinary hours of work for oyster openers shall be 40 per week to be worked between 7 a.m. and 9 p.m. Monday to Friday and between 7 a.m. and 11 a.m. Saturday. Subject to the overall maximum of 40 hours per week without payment of overtime, workers may be required to work eight hours per day Monday to Friday between the hours of 7 a.m. and 4 p.m. and four hours Saturday between the hours of 7 a.m. and 11 a.m. if work is available.

(b) One hour shall be allowed for luncheon each day but subject to agreement between the employer and the workers a lesser period may be allowed with a minimum of half an hour.

Wages

3. The ordinary rate of remuneration for permanent workers shall be £10 3s. 4d. per week. The ordinary rate for casuals shall be 6s. 6d. per hour.

The above rate for casuals shall be deemed to include an allowance for statutory and annual holiday pay.

Incentive Bonus Payments

4. An incentive bonus system may operate in establishments covered by this agreement. Permanent workers who open more than 900 dozen oysters per week during ordinary hours shall qualify for the additional payment provided for in this clause.

All casual workers and also permanent workers when employed on overtime, opening at the rate of 48 dozen oysters per hour, shall qualify for bonus payments in accordance with paragraph (ii) hereunder.

Subject to the following, the bonus rate per dozen for oysters opened shall be 3½d.

- (i) In the case of oysters opened by permanent workers during ordinary hours, the bonus shall be calculated on all oysters opened in excess of 900 dozen and shall be paid in addition to the weekly wage.
- (ii) In the case of casuals and also in the case of permanent workers during overtime hours, the bonus shall be calculated on all oysters opened. From the amount so calculated there shall be deducted the amount of wages earned for the period covered by the bonus calculation. The amount of the balance remaining in excess of wages shall be the bonus earned.
- (iii) Any oysters rejected for size or for other reason, e.g. mutilation, spawning, discolouration, shall not be counted.

Oysters shall be counted by the system nominated by the employer provided always that such system assures of an accurate count of oysters opened.

Payment of Wages

5. (a) All wages shall be paid weekly, not later than Thursday of each week. Each worker shall be supplied with details as to how the wage is made up.

(b) In the event of pay day being a holiday, wages shall be paid under the same conditions as set out in subclause (a) of this clause on the day succeeding the holiday.

Terms of Employment

6. (a) Not less than two days notice shall be given by either party of termination of the employment except in the case of casual hands, but nothing in this clause shall prevent an employer from summarily dismissing any worker for wilful misconduct.

(b) Failure to give the required notice shall render the employer liable to pay two days wages in lieu and in the event of the worker failing to give the required notice he shall be liable to forfeit two days' wages in lieu. For the purpose of this sub-clause the wages for an oyster opener shall be £2 0s. 8d. per working day.

(c) When a worker is discharged or leaves under the preceding sub-clause he shall be paid all wages immediately upon ceasing his employment: Provided that where the requisite notice has not been given by the worker he shall be paid on the next regular pay day.

(NOTE—For the purpose of this agreement a casual shall be a worker for whom oyster opening is not primary employment.)

Overtime

7. All time worked outside of the daily hours Monday to Saturday 11 a.m. mentioned in clause 2 (a) shall be overtime and paid for at one-half as much again as the ordinary rate prescribed in clause 3.

Saturday and Sunday Work

8. For time worked after 11 a.m. on Saturday the worker shall be paid for at one-half as much again as the ordinary rate prescribed in clause 3 hereof.

For time worked on Sundays the worker shall be paid at double the ordinary rate prescribed in clause 3 hereof.

Holidays

9. (a) The following holidays shall be allowed to permanent bona fide hands and paid for: Good Friday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day and the birthday of the reigning Sovereign.

(b) For the purpose of computation of holiday pay a working day for a permanent worker under this agreement shall be deemed as £2 0s. 8d.

(c) Any work done on any of the holidays referred to in sub-clause (a) or days observed in lieu thereof shall be paid for at double the ordinary rate prescribed in clause 3.

First-aid Equipment

10. The employer shall provide and shall keep in a convenient place in his works a fully equipped first aid emergency case, this equipment to be used only for accidents occurring on the employer's premises and not for general padding of the hands.

"Smoke-oh"

11. Ten minutes shall be allowed each worker each morning and afternoon for "smoke-oh".

General Provisions

12. (a) Sacks of oysters shall be placed in a stack or stacks as close as possible to the opening benches. Oyster openers shall take sacks from these stacks and shall tip the oysters on the bench.

(b) The employers shall provide adequate trucks or barrows so that openers can conveniently transport the oysters from the stacks to their benches.

(c) Where sacks are used for shell, openers shall change shell sacks as required and shall place the shell sacks in some convenient position as directed by the factory management.

(d) Provision shall be made to enable workers to dry their clothes and a place shall be set aside wherein they can partake of their meals.

Right of Entry

13. (a) The secretary or other authorised officer of the Canterbury Wholesale Oyster Openers' Society (Inc.) shall with the consent of the employer (which consent shall not unreasonably be withheld) be entitled to enter at all reasonable times upon the premises or works and thereto interview any worker but not so as to interfere with employers' business.

(b) The said society have no right to hold meetings in any factory premises. The right of entry given above is for individual interview.

(c) Upon written application by the secretary of the society, the employer shall supply the names of all workers in his employ who are engaged in work coming within the scope of this agreement, but the employer shall not be under any obligation to supply such information more than once every three months.

Disputes

14. The essence of this agreement being that the work of the employer shall proceed in the customary manner and shall not on any account whatsoever be impeded it is provided that should any question arise incidental to or arising out of the interpretation of the agreement or any dispute exist as to any matter not provided for in this agreement the matter shall be referred to a committee comprising two representatives of the employer and the president and secretary of the society. The parties shall appoint an independent chairman who may be the Conciliation Commissioner for the district. The decision of the committee shall be final and binding upon the parties.

Workers to be Members of the Society

15. (a) So long as the rules of the society provide that every person who is obliged to become a member of the society by the operation of this clause shall be entitled to become a member of that society on application made in accordance with its rules, and so long as the rules of the society impose no limit to membership against applicants of good character, it shall not be lawful for an employer bound by this agreement to employ or to continue to employ subject to this agreement any worker who is not for the time being a member of the Canterbury Wholesale Oyster Openers' Society Inc.

(b) All oyster openers whether casual or permanent, upon application to an employer and before commencing work at the bench, shall pay to the secretary or delegate, the sum of 5s. which will entitle that person to a receipt for such moneys and he shall then become a provisionary member of this society and will be deemed to be a financial member for a period of two weeks and subject to all provisions of this agreement and any shed rules prevailing.

(c) Every person, who being obliged to become a member of the society by the operation of the foregoing provisions, fails to become a member of that society when requested so to do by his employer or any officer or representative of the society, commits a breach of this agreement and shall be liable accordingly.

Scope of Agreement

16. This agreement shall bind only the original parties hereto.

Term of Agreement

17. This agreement shall come into force on the day of the date hereof and continue in force until the 31st day of January 1963.
