Casual Workers

9. (a) Any worker employed for less than two full weeks in any one engagement shall be termed a casual worker.

No Reduction in Wages

12. No worker coming within the scope of this award shall have his wages or salary reduced by reason of the operation of this award.

Terms of Employment

13. For workers other than casual workers the employment shall be deemed to be a monthly one, and a month's notice shall be given by either side; but this shall not prevent any council or board from summarily dismissing any worker for wilful misconduct or other just cause.

Wages and Time Book

14. The employer shall keep in prescribed form a time book to show the hours of work per day of each worker, and to show morning hours, afternoon hours, and overtime hours. #### Right of Entry

15. (a) The secretary or other authorised representative of the union shall, with the consent of the employer (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld), be entitled to enter the office or works at all reasonable times to interview any worker, but not so as to interfere unreasonably with the employer's business.

Conditions as to Offices

16. (a) Each employer shall, where practicable, permit his workers to have lunch during the lunch interval on the premises.

(b) In offices in which not less than six females are employed reasonable dining accommodation shall be provided, if required; also a cloakroom or enclosure in which reasonable privacy is secured for dressing. There shall also be provided, where practicable, a room with suitable couch accommodation for rest in cases of temporary indisposition, but where it is impracticable to set a room apart for that purpose it shall be sufficient if a couch or couches are provided in a portion of the cloakroom screened off from the place where clothing is hung.

(c) Adequate lighting, ventilation, heating, and hand-washing facilities shall be provided in all offices.

(d) A reasonable number of smocks shall be supplied by the employer for use by workers when required to perform duties which are such as to necessitate some form of protective clothing.

Part-time Offices

17. When the requirements of the council or board do not customarily necessitate the office being open for the full weekly period, the employees shall be paid pro rata to the time worked at the appropriate rate specified in clause 3, plus 10 per cent.

Matters Not Provided For

18. Any dispute in connection with any matter not provided for in this award shall be settled between the particular employer concerned and the secretary or president of the union, and in default of any agreement being arrived at, then such dispute shall be referred to the local Conciliation Commissioner, who may either decide the same or refer the matter to the Court. Either party, if dissatisfied with the decision of the Commissioner, may appeal to the Court upon giving written notice of such appeal to the other party within 14 days after such decision shall have been communicated to the party desiring to appeal.

(b) Subject to subclause (a) hereof, every adult person so engaged or employed shall remain a member of a union of workers bound by this award so long as he continues in any position or employment subject to this award.

(c) Every worker obliged under subclause (a) hereof to become a member of a union who fails to become a member, as required by that subclause, after being requested to do so by an officer or authorised representative of the union, and every worker who fails to remain a member of a union in accordance with subclause (b) hereof commits a breach of this award.

(d) Every employer bound by this award commits a breach of this award if he continues to employ any worker to whom subclauses (a) and (b) apply, after having been notified by any officer or authorised representative of the union that the worker has been requested to become a member of the union and has failed to do so, or that the worker having become a member of the union has failed to remain a member.

(e) For the purposes of this clause "adult person" means a person of the age of 18 years or upwards, or a person who for the time being is in receipt of not less than the minimum rate of wages prescribed for adult workers by this award.

(NOTE—Attention is drawn to section 174H of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954 which gives to workers the right to join the union.)

Under-rate Workers

20. (a) Any worker who considers himself incapable of earning the minimum wage fixed by this award may be paid such lower wage as may from time to time be fixed, on the application of the worker after due notice to the union, by the local Inspector of Awards or such other person as the Court may from time to time appoint for that purpose; and such inspector or other person in so fixing such wage shall have regard to the worker's capability, his past earnings, and such other circumstances as such inspector or other person shall think fit to consider after hearing such evidence and argument as the union and such worker shall offer.

(b) Such permit shall be for such period, not exceeding six months, as such inspector or other person shall determine, and after the expiration of such period shall continue in force until 14 days' notice shall have been given to such worker by the secretary of the union requiring him to have his wage again fixed in manner prescribed by this clause: Provided that in the case of any person whose wage is so fixed by reason of old age or permanent disability it may be fixed for such longer period as such inspector or other person shall think fit.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, it shall be competent for a worker to agree in writing with the president or secretary of the union upon such wage without the same so fixed.

(d) It shall be the duty of the union to give notice to the Inspector of Awards of every agreement made with a worker pursuant hereto.

(e) It shall be the duty of an employer, before employing a worker at such lower wage, to examine the permit or agreement by which such wage is fixed.

References

21. (a) Original references shall be the property of the worker or applicant, and shall, on request, be returned within 48 hours after engagement or rejection of application.

(b) Each worker on leaving or being discharged from his or her employment shall, on request, be furnished within 24 hours thereafter with a statement in writing setting out the position held and length of service.

Scope of Award

22. This award shall apply only to the parties named herein in the Canterbury Industrial District.

MEMORANDUM

The award, including the operative date of provisions relating to wages, incorporates the terms of settlement arrived at by the parties in the course of an inquiry held before a Council of Conciliation.

Upon being satisfied by supporting documentary evidence that an unqualified preference provision has been agreed to by all the assessors in accordance with section 174B of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954 (as enacted by the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Amendment Act 1961), the Court has inserted clause 19 in the award in the form in which it was agreed upon in the Council of Conciliation.
