

PALMERSTON NORTH CITY COUNCIL OFFICERS—INDUSTRIAL AGREEMENT

[Filed in the Office of the Clerk of Awards, Wellington.]

THE industrial agreement, made in pursuance of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954, this first day of June 1963, between the Palmerston North City Council (hereinafter called the "council" or the "employer") of the one part and the Wellington, Marlborough, Westland, Nelson and Taranaki Local Bodies' Officers Industrial Union of Workers (hereinafter called the "union") of the other part, whereby it is mutually agreed by and between the said parties as set out in the following Schedule.

SCHEDULE

Application

1. (a) The agreement shall apply to all technical, professional, administrative and clerical officers employed by the Palmerston North City Council, whose conditions of service are based on an annual salary with the exception of the following: Town Clerk, City Engineer, City Electrical Engineer, Gas Manager, Superintendent of Reserves, City Treasurer, City Librarian, Bus Manager, Assistant Town Clerk, Assistant City Engineer, Assistant City Electrical Engineer, Deputy City Librarian, Deputy Superintendent of Reserves, Senior Engineer, Town Planner, Assistant to City Treasurer, Senior Staff Engineer (Design), Internal Auditor, Powerhouse Superintendent, Sexton, Workshop Manager, Accountant, and Accountant (Trading and Administrative), and the Council reserves the right to amend the classification and nomenclature of these positions.

(b) Employees subject to this agreement shall be grouped under one of the three following sections each of which shall be represented in negotiating its own salary scale.

1. Clerical staff.
2. Technical staff.
3. Library staff.
4. Senior staff.

(c) No person to whom this agreement applies shall have his present salary or conditions of employment lessened by virtue of its coming into force.

Hours of Work

2. (a) The ordinary hours of work shall be the existing customary hours which shall not exceed 40 per week, eight of which shall be worked on each of five days of the week between the hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. Monday to Friday inclusive.

(b) Where special circumstances dictate, the hours of work of any officer may be extended or varied by mutual agreement between a staff committee and the council, provided that the officer is adequately compensated by extended annual leave, payment in lieu of overtime or in some other manner acceptable to all the aforesaid parties. In the event of failure to agree, the matter may be referred to a committee as provided in clause 12.

(c) The hours of library staff may be arranged to provide that the ordinary hours may extend beyond 5 p.m. on any day Monday to Friday inclusive, and between 9 a.m. and 12 noon on Saturdays, provided that 40 hours or the existing customary hours where less shall not be extended without the payment of overtime: Provided also, that not more than eight hours shall be worked on any day without payment of overtime. These hours shall also apply to health and sanitary inspectors, and bus inspectors, provided in their case not more than 10 hours including a meal break where it does not exceed 30 minutes, shall be worked in any one day without payment of overtime. To compensate for the elasticity of hours when worked, the employees concerned shall be paid 7s. 6d. per week additional on usual rates.

Overtime

3. (a) Any time worked in any one day outside or in excess of the hours specified in clause 2, shall be considered as overtime and shall be paid for at the rate of time and a half for the first three hours and thereafter at double time. Double time rates shall be paid for all work performed on Sundays or afternoon on Saturdays. A minimum of two hours at overtime rates shall be paid for each period worked on any non-working day: Provided, however, that no overtime will be paid where gross salary exceeds £1,229 for males and £922 10s. for females. The salaries payable under 17 (iii) (h), (i) and (k) are inclusive of overtime.

(b) No overtime for which overtime rates are payable shall be worked by any officer without prior approval of the head of the department.

(c) Any officer called upon to work later than 6 p.m. on any day of the week shall be paid 5s. meal money if that officer cannot reasonably journey to and from his home for a meal, or if a meal is not supplied.

(d) An officer shall not be required to work for more than five hours continuously without a reasonable interval for a meal.

(e) Any worker required to commence work after the cessation of public wheeled traffic, or before the ordinary time of starting such traffic, shall be conveyed to and from his home at the expense of the council, or shall be paid for time reasonably occupied on travelling at ordinary rates of pay. For the purpose of this agreement, "public wheeled traffic" shall mean buses or trains, ordinarily used by such worker travelling to and from his work.

(f) None of the clauses in this section shall apply to clause 17 (iii), (c), (d) and (e).

General

4. (a) Officers shall proceed to the next step in their salary grade on the first day of January of each year.

Where officer's present salary is maximum for his position under this agreement, they shall be considered by council for a salary increase which will be at the discretion of the council.

(b) The council may engage an officer at any stated rate of salary in clause 17 (i) to (vi) inclusive, being not less than the amount to which the officer is entitled under the agreement, provided that such commencing rate shall be increased by the increments for subsequent service as set out therein.

(c) The rates set out in 17 (ii) to (vi) inclusive, represent the annual increments which shall apply to the officer and be paid to him as from 1 January of the year nearest to the anniversary of his engagement.

(d) For the purpose of qualifications under the general scale in 17, experience in any employment of a similar character to that upon which the officer is engaged shall be counted as if it were experience in employment covered by this agreement. Provided that where Council wishes to employ retired personnel in either temporary or permanent capacity they may do so under such salary conditions as shall be individually determined by a committee comprising equal representation of council and staff members.

(e) Electric and gas meter readers who collect cash from slot meters shall be paid a cashier's risk allowance of 7s. 6d. each period during which cash is collected.

(f) An officer who acts as cashier, or relieving cashier, shall be paid 10s. per week as a cashier's risk allowance. Officers required to relieve as cashiers shall qualify for 5s. per week allowance.

(g) Any person substantially employed on ledger-posting machines or book-keeping machines or analysis machines, (other than adding machines) shall be paid 10s. per week in addition to the rate which that person is receiving under sub-clause (a) or (b) of this clause.

(h) No deduction (other than superannuation or such other contribution as may be agreed upon between the employer and the officer) shall be made from the wages of any officer except for time lost by the officer through default or sickness.

(i) All salaries shall be payable fortnightly.

(j) Part-time Workers—Where the employer does not regularly require the services of the worker for the full period per week, he shall be paid as follows:

(i) Part time employees shall receive pro rata the appropriate salary scale.

(ii) Temporary employees shall receive 10 per cent above the appropriate scale.

“Part-time employee” means a regular employee who is engaged every week of the working year for a specified number of hours or days per week.

“Temporary employee” is an employee who is employed at random during the year for a period of not longer than three months. This clause shall not apply to the Library.

Conditions of Employment

5. (a) Applicants, before joining the staff, shall pass a medical examination by a selected doctor if required to do so.

(b) In offices in which three or more females are employed, reasonable accommodation shall be provided for their exclusive use. Where satisfactory arrangements do not already exist, there shall also be provided, where practicable, a room with suitable couch accommodation to be used in cases of temporary indisposition but where it is impracticable to set a room apart for that purpose, it will be sufficient for a couch or couches to be provided in a portion of the cloakroom screened off for privacy.

(c) Adequate lighting, heating and ventilation shall be provided in all offices.

(d) Hot and cold water shall be provided in toilets or washrooms in municipal buildings.

(e) There shall be provided a lunch room for tea and lunch breaks, suitably equipped to seat 50 per cent of the staff.

Tea Breaks

6. An interval not exceeding 10 minutes shall be allowed each morning and afternoon.

Holidays

7. (a) Holidays shall be allowed in accordance with the provisions of the Annual Holidays Act 1944, but in the case of officers with five years' continuous service with the council, or senior officers, overseers or library staff, three weeks' holiday shall be allowed. Holidays shall not be accumulated for more than two years without consent of council.

(b) The undermentioned shall be paid holidays and shall not be considered as part of the annual holidays. New Year's Day and the following day, Anniversary Day, Christmas Day, Boxing Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, the birthday of the reigning Sovereign, Anzac Day, Labour Day, and one other day to be arranged.

(c) The provisions of the Public Holidays Act 1955, shall be deemed to be incorporated in this agreement.

(d) Where practicable, the annual holidays shall be given in proximity to the Christmas or Easter holidays. The dates of the holidays shall be mutually agreed upon between officers and heads of departments.

(e) Except as may be provided in accordance with the provisions of subclause (b) of clause 2, time on duty on Christmas Day, Boxing Day and New Year's Day, mentioned herein, shall be paid for at double rates in addition to the usual rates.

(f) The “leave year” shall be the period encompassed from 1 December until 30 November of the succeeding year.

Expenses

8. (a) All authorised out-of-pocket expenses incurred by any officer in the execution of his duties shall be paid by the council.

(b) Officers who provide their own cars or motor cycles by and at the request of the employer through departmental head for carrying out their official duties, shall be paid an allowance in accordance with the Public Service scale.

(c) Officers shall be paid an allowance of 3s. 6d. for each week during which they are required to use their own bicycles in the performance of their duties.

Uniforms and Footwear

9. Existing conditions as to uniforms shall continue. Officers required to work in all weather shall be supplied with suitable waterproof clothing and protective footwear.

Classified Higher Grade Duties

10. Any officer who is instructed to perform the full duties of a classified higher-grade officer under this agreement shall, if he occupies the higher-grade position for more than four weeks continuously, be paid from the date upon which he commenced the higher-grade duty and whilst engaged in performing such higher-grade duty, at a rate not less than the minimum salary for the higher position. Provided that where a position is vacant, promotion on trial for a maximum of six months may be made at a salary not less than the present salary of such appointee if already covered by this agreement.

General Conditions

11. Vacant positions shall be filled, where practicable, by promoting employees already on the staff and the appointment of juniors, and where any position is created or a vacancy occurs on the staff, applications to fill same shall be called from the staff at the same time as any applications are called from the general public.

Matters Not Provided For and Appeals

12. The essence of this agreement being that the work of the employers shall not on any account whatsoever be impeded but shall always proceed as if no difference has arisen, it is hereby provided that if any difference in interpretation of this agreement shall arise between the parties bound by this agreement, or any of them, every such difference shall be referred to a committee to be composed of three members of the council and three persons representing the staff, together with the mayor, provided that all differences shall be considered by this committee within one month of the date of being requested to do so.

Termination of Employment

13. In the absence of special written agreement between the officer and the council, one month's notice of resignation or dismissal shall be given by the officer or the council except in cases of misconduct, where an officer shall be subject to instant dismissal, but this shall not be deemed to restrict or in any way impair the statutory powers as to appointment or dismissal of officers vested in local authorities, provided that one month's notice shall not be required in the case of temporary employees.

Workers to be Members of Union: Unqualified Preference

14. (a) Any adult person engaged or employed in any position or employment subject to this award, by any employer bound by this award, shall, if he is not already a member of a union of workers bound by this award, become a member of such union within 14 days after his engagement or after this clause comes into force as the case may require.

(b) Subject to subclause (a) hereof, every adult person engaged or employed shall remain a member of a union of workers bound by this award so long as he continues in any position or employment subject to this award.

(c) Every worker obliged under subclause (a) hereof to become a member of a union, who fails to become a member, as required by that subclause, after being requested to do so by an officer or representative of the union, and every worker who fails to remain a member of a union in accordance with subclause (b) hereof, commits a breach of this award.

(d) Every employer bound by this award commits a breach of this award if he continues to employ any worker to whom sub-clauses (a) and (b) apply, after having been notified by any officer or authorised representative of the union that the worker has been requested to become a member of the union and has failed to do so, or that the worker, having become a member of the union, has failed to remain a member.

(e) For the purposes of this clause, "adult person" means a person of the age of 18 years or upwards, or a person who for the time being is in receipt of not less than the minimum rate of wages prescribed for adult workers by this award.

NOTE—Attention is drawn to section 174H of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954, which gives to workers the right to join the union.

Under-rate Workers

15. (a) Any worker who considers himself incapable of earning the minimum wages fixed by this agreement may be paid such lower wage as may from time to time be fixed, on the application of the worker after due notice to the union by the local Inspector of Awards, or such other person as the Court may from time to time appoint for that purpose; and such inspector or other person in so fixing such wage shall have regard to the worker's capability, his past earnings and such other circumstances as such inspector or other person shall think fit to consider after hearing such evidence and argument as the union and such worker shall offer.

(b) Such permit shall be for such period not exceeding six months as such inspector or other person shall determine, and after the expiration of such period shall continue in force until 14 days' notice shall be given to such worker by the secretary of the union requiring him to have his wage again fixed in manner prescribed by this clause. Provided that in the case of any person whose wage is fixed by reason of old age or permanent disability it may be fixed for such longer period as such inspector or other person shall think fit.

(c) It shall be the duty of an employer, before employing a worker at such lower wage to examine the permit or agreement by which such wage or agreement is fixed.

Effective Operation of Agreement

16. (a) The secretary or other authorised officer of the union of workers shall, with the consent of the council (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld) be entitled to enter at all reasonable times the office or works and there interview any workers, but not so as to impede the work.

(b) Employers bound by this agreement shall, upon request by the union, supply a list of officers, 18 years of age and over, or who are in receipt of adult salary covered by this agreement, and the date of commencement of new employees. Provided, however, that this request shall not be made more often than once every three months.

(c) The employer shall allow any officer or executive member of the union leave of absence on pay to attend union business, provided such leave does not exceed 12 hours in any period of three calendar months.
