SCHEDULE

Industry to Which Award Applies

1. This award shall apply to workers employed in milk and/or cream pasteurising factories, pasteurising and/or bottling factories, and in milk and/or cream distributing factories or depots, and milk storage depots, and to drivers (including drivers employed on wholesale rounds but excluding roundsmen on retail house to house deliveries), employed in carting milk and/or cream to or from such factories or depots and milk storage depots.

Hours of Work

2. (a) The ordinary hours of work for all workers shall be 40 per week.

(b) Such hours shall be worked on not more than five days of the week.

Not more than eight hours shall be worked on any day without payment of overtime.

(c) (i) Except as hereinafter provided where shifts are not worked the ordinary hours of work shall be worked between the hours of 7 a.m. and 5.30 p.m.

(ii) The foregoing paragraph shall not apply to employees working in milk storage depots or to drivers when employed on wholesale rounds.

A milk storage depot means a place where milk is stored but not treated and a wholesale round is defined as the delivery of milk in quantities of 2 gallons or over to any one customer.

Such workers required to commence their ordinary hours of work prior to 7 a.m. or after 5.30 p.m. shall be paid an allowance of 5s. per day extra.

(iii) Except where shifts are worked, drivers employed on milk collection who are required to commence their ordinary hours of work before 7 a.m., but in no case before 5.30 a.m., shall be paid an allowance of 5s. per day extra.

(d) Excepting when changing shifts or when necessitated by absenteeism, a worker required to commence a new day's work or a new shift before having a break of nine hours shall be paid at double ordinary rates for the time by which the nine-hour break is reduced.

(e) Where practicable, each worker shall be allowed his two days off consecutively.

(f) Excepting for mealtimes, where continuity of hours are not observed, all time from commencing to finishing work in any day shall be deemed to have been worked: Provided, however, that this clause shall not operate after eight continuous ordinary hours worked on any day.

(g) Each employee shall be entitled to have two days off in each week and such days shall be on a rotating roster system to provide for an equitable distribution of weekend work. Such roster shall be posted up in a position accessible to employees at least one week prior to its commencement and shall be for a minimum period of seven weeks. In cases of sickness, accident, or absence of a regular worker, or by arrangement with the union representative, it may be varied but not otherwise.

Only after prior notification to the union by the employer drivers wholly or substantially employed on bottled "school milk" deliveries may be exempt from the roster, provided that the ordinary hours of work are confined to Monday-Friday inclusive.

For any female employed the ordinary hours of work shall be between the hours of 7 a.m. and 5.30 p.m. and confined to Monday to Friday inclusive, provided that no female shall be employed between the hours of 6 p.m. on any day and 8 a.m. the following day, or on any Sunday, half-holiday, or any holiday set out in clause 5.

Any worker required to work on his day or days off without being notified the previous day shall be credited with eight hours' work: Provided, however, that a minimum credit of four hours shall be allowed the worker on any call-backs if notified, and shall be paid time and a half for the first four hours' work and double time thereafter, excepting on Sunday and the holidays enumerated in clause 5, in which case the higher rate shall be paid.

In each year each driver shall be supplied with one pair of suitable leather boots to be maintained by the worker, but by agreement with a majority of drivers the employer may pay a boot allowance of 2s. per week in lieu of providing boots.

Workers terminating employment inside such period of 12 months shall refund a proportionate amount of the cost.

(i) It shall be a breach of this award for any employer to enter into any contract or sublet any work coming within the scope of this award on a "labour only" basis.

(j) Union notices shall be permitted to be posted up in the factory at a place approved by the management, which is always accessible to all employees.

(k) Suitable hand protectors shall be supplied to can washers.

When they are required to clean tubes by brush or scraper they shall be paid 2s. 3½d. per day extra.

(ii) A worker in charge of a boiler or boilers under steam shall not be called upon at the same time to perform or assist in the performance of the foregoing work.

(p) In every establishment a copy of the current award shall be posted up behind glass and in a place accessible to all workers.

Accommodation

12. (a) Accommodation to the satisfaction of the Inspector of Factories shall be provided for the workers to change and dry their clothes and have their meals; and facilities shall be afforded for boiling water at mealtimes.

(b) Lockers approved by the Inspector of Factories shall be provided for all workers, who shall be responsible for the tidiness and maintenance other than fair wear and tear.

(c) Adequate privy accommodation shall be provided.

(d) Hand basins with hot and cold running water shall be provided complete with toilet soap and nailbrush; and for each employee a separate towel or other suitable means for the drying of hands.

Termination of Employment

13. One week's notice of termination of employment shall be given by either side but shall not be given during the annual holiday period. In lieu thereof, one week's wages shall be paid by the employer or forfeited by the worker. This provision shall not prevent the immediate termination by either side for good cause, in which case wages due shall be paid forthwith.

Time and Wages Book

14. (a) Every employer bound by this award shall keep a time and wages book, in which shall be correctly recorded:

- (1) The name of every worker employed.
- (2) The kind of work in which he is employed.
- (3) The daily hours of his employment.
- (4) The wages paid each week.

(b) An employer shall provide time sheets or time books to each worker, who shall each day record and initial the hours worked on that day.

(c) There shall be included in each worker's pay envelope a statement in detail of wages, overtime, and all other payments and deductions.

Right of Entry Upon Premises

15. For the purposes of this award any accredited representative of the New Zealand Dairy Factories and Related Trades Employees Industrial Union of Workers may, at all reasonable times, upon notifying the person in charge, enter upon the premises of any employer bound by this award.

Disputes and Matters Not Provided For

16. If any dispute shall arise in connection with any matter pertaining to or arising out of this award it shall be settled between the particular employer concerned and the secretary or president of the union, and in default of any agreement being arrived at, then such dispute shall be referred to the local Conciliation Commissioner, who may either decide the same or refer the matter to the Court. Either party, if dissatisfied with the decision of the Commissioner, may appeal to the Court upon giving written notice of such appeal to the other party within 14 days after such decision shall have been communicated to the party desiring to appeal.

Unqualified Preference

17. (a) Any adult person engaged or employed in any position or employment subject to this award by any employer bound by this award shall, if he is not already a member of a union of workers bound by this award, become a member of such union within 14 days after his engagement, or after this clause comes into force, as the case may require.

(b) Subject to subclause (a) hereof, every adult person so engaged or employed shall remain a member of a union of workers bound by this award so long as he continues in any position or employment subject to this award.

(c) Every worker obliged under subclause (a) hereof to become a member of a union who fails to become a member, as required by that subclause, after being requested to do so by an officer or authorised representative of the union, and every worker who fails to remain a member of a union in accordance with subclause (b) hereof commits a breach of this award.

(d) Every employer bound by this award commits a breach of this award if he continues to employ any worker to whom subclauses (a) and (b) apply, after having been notified by any officer or authorised representative of the union that the worker has been requested to become a member of the union and has failed to do so, or that the worker having become a member of the union has failed to remain a member.

(e) For the purposes of this clause "adult person" means a person of the age of 18 years or upwards, or a person who for the time being is in receipt of not less than the minimum rate of wages prescribed for adult workers by this award.

(NOTE—Attention is drawn to section 174H of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954 which gives to workers the right to join the union.)

Notification

18. The employer shall, on written request of the secretary of the union, at not shorter intervals than three months, supply to the union the names and addresses of all employees bound by this award.

Under-rate Workers

19. (a) Any worker who considers himself incapable of earning the minimum wage fixed by this award may be paid such lower wage as may from time to time be fixed, on the application of the worker after due notice to the union, by the local Inspector of Awards or such other person as the Court may from time to time appoint for that purpose; and such inspector or other person in so fixing such wage shall have regard to the worker's capability, his past earnings, and such other circumstances as such inspector or other person shall think fit to consider after hearing such evidence and argument as the union and such worker shall offer.

(b) Such permit shall be for such period, not exceeding six months, as such inspector or other person shall determine, and after the expiration of such period shall continue in force until 14 days' notice shall have been given to such worker by the secretary of the union requiring him to have his wage again fixed in manner prescribed by this clause: Provided that in the case of any person whose wage is so fixed by reason of old age or permanent disability it may be fixed for such longer period as such inspector or other person shall think fit.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, it shall be competent for a worker to agree in writing with the president or secretary of the union upon such wage without having the same so fixed.

(d) It shall be the duty of the union to give notice to the Inspector of Awards of every agreement made with a worker pursuant hereto.

(e) It shall be the duty of an employer, before employing a worker at such lower wage, to examine the permit or agreement by which such wage is fixed.

Application of Award

20. This award shall apply to the original parties named herein, and shall extend to and bind as subsequent party hereto every industrial union, industrial association, or employer who, not being an original party hereto, is, when this award comes into force or at any time whilst this award is in force, connected with or engaged in the industry to which this award applies within the industrial districts to which this award relates.

MEMORANDUM

The award, including the operative date of provisions relating to wages, incorporates the terms of settlement arrived at by the parties in the course of an inquiry held before a Council of Conciliation.

Upon being satisfied by supporting documentary evidence that an unqualified preference provision has been agreed to by all the assessors in accordance with section 174B of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954 (as enacted by the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Amendment Act 1961), the Court has inserted clause 17 in the award in the form in which it was agreed upon in the Council of Conciliation.
