SCHEDULE

Industry to Which Award Applies

1. This award shall apply to ambulance driving officers (other than superintendents or station officers) engaged on ambulance work, with the exception of the St. John Ambulance Association of New Zealand (Auckland Centre) Trust Board, Incorporated, Auckland; the New Zealand Free Ambulance Transport Service, Cable Street, Wellington; and the Venerable Order of St. John (Christchurch), Peterborough Street, Christchurch.

Interpretation

2. An ambulance driving officer is a worker engaged primarily in ambulance duties, notwithstanding that he may be called upon to perform other work.

Hours of Work

3. (a) The ordinary hours of work shall be 40 per week, to be worked on any five days of the week.

(b) The daily hours shall not exceed eight without the payment of overtime.

(c) Where practicable, all special duties and recalls shall be shared equally among all drivers.

(d) The daily hours shall be worked within a span of 12 consecutive hours.

(e) Subject to the provisions of clause 7 hereof, employees who are required to remain on call for periods beyond 40 hours of duty per week shall be paid £2 5s. per week for the first 20 additional hours or part thereof, and 3s. per hour for on call hours in excess of 20. Employees who are called out during the on call period shall be paid 5s. 8d. per hour for the period of the call out.

(f) No ambulance driving officer shall be required to remain at the station or on the employer's premises while on call provided he is readily accessible for duty during his on call period.

(g) Notwithstanding the foregoing, in places where one ambulance only is stationed and it is necessary in order to meet the exigencies of the service, any of the conditions herein (clause 3) may be varied by agreement with the union. Failing such agreement the matter shall be referred to a disputes committee for decision.

Wages

4. (a) The minimum weekly wage for ambulance driving officers covered by this award shall be £14 11s. 8d. per week.

(b) Where an officer is placed in charge of other driving officers he shall be paid £1 0s. 6d. per week extra.

(c) Wages, including overtime and special payments, shall be paid weekly or fortnightly on a day not later than Thursday and in the employer's time. The pay envelope shall contain a slip showing fully how the wages are computed.

(d) Nothing in this award shall be construed so as to reduce the present wage or reduce leave or other privileges at present enjoyed by any worker.

(e) An ambulance driving officer who is the holder of valid St. John Ambulance Association, Red Cross Society, or St. Andrew's Association, first aid and home nursing certificates shall be paid an additional 3s. 4d. per week: Provided that after he has completed three years' continuous service with the same employer as an ambulance driving officer he shall be paid a further 3s. 4d. per week: Provided further, that an ambulance driving officer who is the holder of a St. John's medallion or has held a Red Cross Society medallion for not less than one year shall be paid an additional 2s. 6d. per week.

The allowances prescribed herein shall be aggregated with the weekly wage prescribed in subclause (a) of this clause for the purpose of calculating overtime.

Overtime

5. All time worked on any day in excess or outside of the hours prescribed in clause 3 hereof shall be paid for at the rate of time and a half for the first three hours and thereafter double time. Driving officers called back to work during their periods off duty shall receive a minimum payment of three hours at overtime rates for each engagement.

Shift Work

6. (a) Roster—The employer shall post in a conspicuous place a roster stating the shifts and days off. The roster shall be so arranged that the a.m. and p.m. shifts shall be equally distributed among the driving officers: Provided that where the exigencies of the business require special provisions as to a roster, the matter may be dealt with by a disputes committee as hereinafter provided. A driving officer having completed his shift shall not be booked again until the expiry of 12 hours from the time of booking off.

(b) Fourteen days' notice, except in an emergency, shall be given to the union representative before any change is made in the roster.

(c) Non-resident driving officers employed on night shifts shall, where any part of the shift falls between 10 p.m. and 6 a.m., be paid 3s. 7d. per shift extra.

(d) All driving officers employed on broken shifts shall be paid 3s. 7d. per shift extra.

Days Off

7. Days off shall be one calendar day and one period of 24 consecutive hours in each calendar week. Where possible, these periods shall be consecutive.

Holidays

8. (a) Driving officers shall receive three weeks' holiday on full pay for each nine months' service with the employer. Where a driving officer is dismissed or terminates his employment, he shall be paid the proportionate amount of holiday pay due.

(b) A roster setting out the dates on which the staff's annual holidays fall due shall be prepared and made accessible to the driving officers.

(c) Where practicable, not less than 28, and in no case less than 14 days' notice of the date on which the annual holiday will commence shall be given to each worker.

(d) Payment for annual holidays shall be made prior to the driving officer commencing such annual holidays.

(e) When a worker is required to perform work on any Sunday, Anzac Day, Good Friday, or Christmas Day, he shall, in addition to his ordinary rate of pay, be paid for the time worked on such Sunday, Anzac Day, Good Friday, or Christmas Day at not less than his ordinary rate.

Sickness

9. (a) Where a driving officer is incapacitated from causes arising through infection or contagion during the performance of his duty he shall be paid wages in full during the period of incapacitation.

(b) After 10 weeks' service with the same employer, on production of a medical certificate, a worker shall be entitled to one day's sick leave without deduction of pay, with an additional day for each further period of 10 weeks' service, with a maximum accumulation of 15 days: Provided, however, that where the employer deems it necessary he may request the worker to produce a medical certificate from a doctor nominated by the employer. The qualifying period for service under this clause shall be deemed to have commenced on the 1st day of January 1959.

(c) On engagement each driving officer shall undergo a chest X-ray and medical examination and once in each six months thereafter each driving officer shall undergo a chest X-ray examination only. Such examinations shall be at the expense of the employer.

Transport

10. If a driving officer is required to remain on duty or is called back for duty when his usual means of transport have ceased, the employer shall undertake the responsibility of having the driving officer transported to or from his home as the case may be.

Road Expenses

11. Where a driving officer is required to be absent from his depot at night or day the employer shall refund the reasonable costs of all necessary meals and accommodation.

Uniforms

12. (a) The employer shall provide each driving officer with a complete uniform comprising tunic, two pairs of trousers, and cap. The replacement of any of the above articles shall be at the employer's discretion. All uniforms and overcoats shall remain the property of the employer.

(b) One waterproof coat and a dustcoat shall be available for each ambulance, and warm overcoats shall be supplied when required.

(c) Protective clothing shall be provided for workers required to attend contagious cases.

(d) All uniforms and equipment shall be laundered at the employer's expense.

Board and Accommodation

13. (a) Where full living-in accommodation is provided for workers such accommodation for the purposes of this award shall be valued at £1 8s. 2d. per week.

(b) Where it is essential for a driving officer to live in no charge shall be made for his sleeping accommodation.

(c) Where meals only are provided for workers such meals shall be valued at 12s. 10d. per week, provided that where less than 10 meals are supplied such meals shall be valued at 1s. each.

Fumigation

14. Where a driving officer is requested to stand by a fumigating job where a deadly gas is used, he shall receive double time for a period so employed.

General Conditions

15. (a) Lock-up lockers shall be provided, and a properly furnished common room with facilities for making tea. For driving officers obliged to live in, provision shall be made for bathrooms, showers, and conveniences.

(b) It shall be part of the ordinary duties of a driving officer to assist at any work, other than work covered by the Hospital Domestic Workers' Award, which may be required of him, other than driving, for the purpose of filling in time, provided he is paid at the driving officer's rate of pay.

(c) Where a driving officer is required to wash and clean his vehicle he shall be supplied with gumboots or clogs and a waterproof apron.

(d) No driving officer shall be required to handle any stretcher case unassisted.

(e) Where a driving officer is required to continue working overtime after 6 p.m. on any day and cannot reasonably get home for his meal he shall be provided with a meal or shall be paid 5s. 2d. for such a meal.

(f) The employer shall reimburse the driving officer for the cost of his annual driving licence fee and provide his medical certificate.

(g) Excepting as hereinafter provided, and in the case of voluntary service, no other worker shall be required to drive an ambulance when a regular driving officer is ready and willing to do the work.

(h) Where the employer requires a driving officer to have a telephone at his residence the employer shall pay half his telephone rental.

Term of Employment

16. The employment shall be a weekly one and may be terminated by one week's notice on either side or a week's wages in lieu thereof shall be paid or forfeited. This shall not prevent the summary dismissal of a driving officer for misconduct. The notice shall not include any part of a worker's holiday period.

Where only one regular ambulance driving officer is employed, his normal days off or any emergency may be covered by another employee who shall be paid on a pro rata basis.

Interviews

17. It shall be competent for any official of the union to interview the driving officers in respect of any matter relating to this award or in respect of their employment.

Unqualified Preference

18. (a) Any adult person engaged or employed in any position or employment subject to this award by any employer bound by this award shall, if he is not already a member of a union of workers bound by this award, become a member of such union within 14 days after his engagement, or after this clause comes into force, as the case may require.

(b) Subject to subclause (a) hereof, every adult person so engaged or employed shall remain a member of a union of workers bound by this award so long as he continues in any position or employment subject to this award.

(c) Every worker is obliged under subclause (a) hereof to become a member of a union who fails to become a member, as required by that subclause, after being requested to do so by an officer or authorised representative of the union, and every worker who fails to remain a member of a union in accordance with subclause (b) hereof commits a breach of this award.

(d) Every employer bound by this award commits a breach of this award if he continues to employ any worker to whom subclauses (a) and (b) apply, after having been notified by any officer or authorised representative of the union that the worker has been requested to become a member of the union and has failed to do so, or that the worker having become a member of the union has failed to remain a member.

(e) For the purposes of this clause "adult person" means a person of the age of 18 years or upwards, or a person who for the time being is in receipt of not less than the minimum rate of wages prescribed for adult workers by this award.

(NOTE—Attention is drawn to section 174H of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954 which gives to workers the right to join the union.)

Notification

19. On the written request of the secretary of the union an employer shall supply to him a list of the workers in his employ, but not more than once in three months.

Disputes Committee

20. The essence of this award being that the work of the employer shall not on any account whatsoever be impeded but shall always proceed as if no dispute had arisen, it is provided that if any dispute or difference shall arise between the parties bound by this award, or any of them, as to any matter whatsoever arising out of or connected therewith, every such dispute or difference shall be referred to a committee to be composed of two representatives of each side, together with an independent chairman to be mutually agreed upon or, in default of agreement, to be appointed by the Conciliation Commissioner for the district. Either side shall have the right to appeal to the Court against a decision of any such committee upon giving to the other side written notice of such appeal within 14 days after such decision has been made known to the party desirous of appealing.

Application of Award

21. This award shall apply to the original parties named herein, and shall extend to and bind as subsequent party hereto every industrial union, industrial association, or employer who, not being an original party hereto, is, when this award comes into force or at any time whilst this award is in force, connected with or engaged in the industry to which this award applies within the industrial districts to which this award relates.

Scope of Award

22. This award shall operate throughout the Northern, Taranaki, Wellington, Marlborough, Nelson, Westland, Canterbury, and Otago and Southland Industrial Districts.

Term of Award

23. This award, in so far as the provisions relating to the rates of wages to be paid are concerned, shall be deemed to have come into force on the first day of the working week in each establishment commencing on or after the 14th day of October 1963, and so far as all other provisions of the award are concerned, it shall come into force on the day of the date hereof; and this award shall continue in force until the 14th day of April 1965.

In witness whereof the seal of the Court of Arbitration hath hereto been affixed, and the Judge of the Court hath hereunto set his hand, this 9th day of December 1963.

MEMORANDUM

The award, including the operative date of provisions relating to wages, incorporates the terms of settlement arrived at by the parties in the course of an inquiry held before a Council of Conciliation.

Upon being satisfied by supporting documentary evidence that an unqualified preference provision has been agreed to by all the assessors in accordance with section 174B of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954 (as enacted by the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Amendment Act 1961), the Court has inserted clause 18 in the award in the form in which it was agreed upon in the Council of Conciliation.

An application to strike out Crothall and Co. Manawatu Ltd. as an original party was granted after a hearing on 6 December 1963.

The Court is satisfied that the company does not at present employ workers engaged primarily in ambulance duties within the meaning of clauses 1 and 2 of the terms of settlement which are now incorporated in the award.
