On obtaining three sectional certificates of the professional section of the New Zealand Hospital Officers' Examinations an officer shall be paid £22 10s. per annum in addition to his scale rate up to and including the fourteenth year of the General Scale.

Overtime

6. (a) When overtime is required to be worked at the request of a responsible senior officer, reasonable notice shall be given to the workers, and whenever possible, the period of notice of overtime shall not be less than five hours. No overtime for which overtime rates are payable shall be worked by any employee without the approval of a responsible senior officer in charge of the particular employee.

(b) Where a worker is required to work more than eight hours per day or an aggregate of more than 40 hours per week, the excess time shall be deemed to be overtime, and shall be subject to payment at time and half rates for the first three hours and thereafter at double time, provided that no overtime rate shall be less than 3s. per hour. The hourly rate of pay shall be one fortieth part of the weekly rate of salary payable.

7. (a) For workers other than casuals or part-time workers, the employment shall be deemed to be a fortnightly one, and a fortnight's notice shall be given by either side; but this shall not prevent any board from summarily dismissing any worker for wilful misconduct or other just cause.

(b) All wages shall be paid fortnightly within working hours and not later than Thursday of the second week, except that at the North Canterbury Hospital Board wages may be paid either weekly or monthly at the request of the worker. Payment of wages at other than the times stated shall be by special arrangement between the board concerned and the secretary of the union.

(c) A rateable deduction from the wages of any worker may be made for time lost through sickness, accident, or default, but this shall not be taken to nullify the existing custom of the board concerned regarding sick-leave, nor the provisions of clause 13 unless the circumstances of any particular case justify some departure from this custom.

(d) Any employee who is instructed to perform temporarily the duties of a higher-grade employee shall, if he occupies the higher position for more than eight weeks continuously be paid from the date upon which he commenced the higher grade duty and while engaged in performing such higher grade duty, at the rate not less than the minimum salary paid for the higher position.

Workers who enter into contracts of service to work regularly on a part-time basis, shall be deemed to be casual workers provided that a worker requesting part-time work for her own purposes when full-time work is available shall not be eligible for the penal rate, such appointments to be approved by the union.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subclause (a) hereof when the requirements of the board are such as to necessitate the employment of part-time workers in the capacity of hospital admitting clerks or clerk-receptionist, casualty department during the weekend period Saturday and Sunday only, the rate of pay for such workers shall be pro rata the appropriate scale salary under clause 4 plus an amount equal to 50 per cent thereof for time worked on a Saturday, and plus an amount equal to 100 per cent thereof for time worked on a Sunday.

(d) Overtime—(1) All time worked in excess of the hours specified in subclause (b) hereof shall be deemed to be overtime, and shall be paid at the rate of time and a half for the first three hours, and double time thereafter.
