

NORTHERN INDUSTRIAL DISTRICT UMBRELLA MAKERS—AWARD

[Filed in the Office of the Clerk of Awards, Auckland]

In the Court of Arbitration of New Zealand, Northern Industrial District—In the matter of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954; and in the matter of an industrial dispute between the Auckland Saddlers, Collar Makers, Bag Makers, Sailmakers, Riggers and Related Trades Industrial Union of Workers (hereinafter called “the union”) and the under-mentioned persons, firms, and companies (hereinafter called “the employees”):

Hughes and Jenkins Ltd., 110 Commerce Street, Frankton Junction.

Leathaby, Geo. M., 475 Khyber Pass Road, Auckland.

Shelmerdines Umbrellas Ltd., 413 Karangahape Road, Auckland.

The Squire Umbrella Co., 163 New North Road, Auckland.

Umbrella Specialist, 76 Victoria Street, Hamilton.

THE Court of Arbitration of New Zealand (hereinafter called “the Court”), having taken into consideration the terms of settlement arrived at in the above-mentioned dispute and forwarded directly to the Court pursuant to the provisions of section 130 of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954, doth hereby order and award:

That, as between the union and the members thereof and the employers and each and every of them, the terms, conditions, and provisions set out in the Schedule hereto and of this award shall be binding upon the union and upon every member thereof and upon the employers and upon each and every of them, and that the said terms, conditions, and provisions shall be deemed to be and they are hereby incorporated in and declared to form part of this award; and, further, that the union and every member thereof and the employers and each and every of them shall respectively do, observe, and perform every matter and thing by his award and by the said terms, conditions, and provisions respectively required to be done, observed, and performed, and shall not do anything in contravention of this award or of the said terms, conditions, and provisions but shall in all respects abide by and perform the same. And the Court doth hereby further award, order, and declare that any breach of the said terms, conditions, and provisions set out in the Schedule hereto shall constitute a breach of this award, and that a penalty as by law provided shall be payable by any party or person in respect thereof. And the Court doth further order that this award shall take effect as hereinafter provided and shall continue in force until the 28th day of February 1965 and thereafter as provided by section 152 of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954.

In witness whereof the seal of the Court of Arbitration hath hereto been affixed, and the Judge of the Court hath hereunto set his hand, this 29th day of April 1963.

(b) Where a worker is unable to accept full-time employment the employer shall pay pro rata the appropriate scale salary.

(c) These provisions shall not be used for the purposes of reducing the hours of work or the earnings of any worker and preference shall at all times be given to full-time employees.

Overtime

6. All time worked outside or in excess of the hours mentioned in clause 3 shall be paid for at the following rates: for the first three hours, time and a half; thereafter, double time.

General Conditions

7. (a) When a worker is required to work overtime after 6 p.m. on any day the termination of employment, but this shall not prevent an employer from summarily dismissing a worker for serious misconduct. Any worker who fails to give the requisite notice, except in the case of serious illness or similar emergency, shall forfeit any pay up to three days that is due to him. The employer shall be entitled to keep three days' wages in hand.

(b) Each worker shall be allowed one hour each day at midday for meal hour: Provided that the employer and the union may alter the midday mealtime to suit the requirements of the business or the mutual desire of both the employer and the workers concerned.

(c) An employer shall be entitled to make a rateable deduction from the wages of any worker for any time lost by him through sickness or default, or as provided in subclause (d) of clause 9 hereof.

(d) Workers shall be allowed 10 minutes' break each morning and afternoon without deduction of pay.

(e) All tools required in a factory for the carrying out of work covered by the award shall be supplied, maintained in a state of good repair, and replaced when necessary by the employer.

(f) Workers shall be paid their wages not later than Thursday of each week and in the employer's time. Each worker shall receive a weekly statement showing the manner in which the wages have been calculated.

(g) On engagement female workers shall be supplied with two smocks or aprons, as agreed between the employer and worker, and male workers with two smocks or two suits of overalls; such smocks, aprons, or overalls, to be replaced when necessary and to remain the property of the employer.

(h) A suitable first aid kit shall be kept in each factory in a place easily accessible to workers.

(i) A suitable first aid kit shall be kept in each factory in a place easily accessible to workers.

Piecework

8. (a) Piecework may be worked by mutual agreement between the workers and the employers, provided that the minimum rate of wages shall not be less than 10 per cent above the rates prescribed in clause 4.

(b) Details of all piecework arrangements or agreements shall be supplied by the employer to the secretary of the union.

(c) No worker shall be allowed to take work home from the factory so that such worker may increase his or her earnings in such a manner.

Holidays

9. (a) Under this award the following shall be the recognised holidays to be allowed without deduction of pay: New Year's Day, 2 January, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, the birthday of the reigning Sovereign, Anniversary Day or a day in lieu thereof, Labour Day, Christmas Day, and Boxing Day.

(b) Time worked on Sunday or on any holiday shall be paid for at twice the ordinary rate.

(c) Payment of wages for the recognised holidays shall be made to all persons who have been employed in the factory at any time during the fortnight ending on the day on which the holiday occurs.

(d) An annual holiday shall be allowed in accordance with the Annual Holidays Act 1944 and its amendments: Provided that, upon completion of 10 years' continuous service with the same employer, the worker shall be granted in respect of each further year of employment with that employer, an annual holiday of three weeks instead of two weeks allowed under the Annual Holidays Act 1944 and its amendments. Where it is customary for any employer to allow annual holidays to his workers or to any class of his workers during a period in each year when his premises are closed or the work of those workers is for any reason discontinued, and at the date of the commencement of any such period any such worker has not become entitled to an annual holiday, then that worker shall not be entitled to any wages for two weeks following that date but the employer shall before that date pay to him, in addition to all other amounts due to him at that date including amounts to which he is entitled in respect of any special holidays, an amount equal to one twenty-fifth of his ordinary pay for the period of his employment up to that date, and for the purposes of the Annual Holidays Act the next year of his employment shall be deemed to commence on that date.

(e) At least one month's notice shall be given to workers of the time when annual holidays are due to commence.

Operation of Award

10. This award shall not operate so as to reduce the wages of any worker during his or her present employment.

Disputes

11. The essence of this award being that the work of the employers shall always proceed as if no dispute had arisen, it is provided that if any dispute or difference shall arise between the parties bound by this award, or any of them, as to any matter whatsoever arising out of or connected therewith and not specifically dealt with in this award, every such dispute or difference as the same shall arise shall be referred to a committee to be composed of two representatives of the union and two representatives of the employers for their decision. The decision of the majority of the committee shall be binding, and if no decision is arrived at either party may appeal to the Court of Arbitration upon giving written notice of such appeal to the other party within 14 days after the failure of the disputes committee to arrive at a decision or the disputes committee may itself refer the matter to the Court of Arbitration for decision.

Union Official's Right of Entry

12. The secretary or other authorised representative of the union of workers shall, with the consent of the employer (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld), be entitled to enter at all reasonable times upon the premises or works and there interview any workers, but not so as to interfere unreasonably with the employer's business.

Unqualified Preference

13. (a) Any adult person engaged or employed in any position or employment subject to this award by any employer bound by this award shall, if he is not already a member of a union of workers bound by this award, become a member of such union within 14 days after his engagement, or after this clause comes into force as the case may require.

(b) Subject to subclause (a) hereof, every adult person so engaged or employed shall remain a member of a union of workers bound by this award so long as he continues in any position or employment subject to this award.

(c) Every worker obliged under subclause (a) hereof to become a member of a union who fails to become a member, as required by that subclause, after being requested to do so by an officer or authorised representative of the union, and every worker who fails to remain a member of a union in accordance with subclause (b) hereof commits a breach of this award.

(d) Every employer bound by this award commits a breach of this award if he continues to employ any worker to whom subclauses (a) and (b) apply, after having been notified by any officer or authorised representative of the union that the worker has been requested to become a member of the union and has failed to do so, or that the worker having become a member of the union has failed to remain a member.

(e) For the purposes of this clause "adult person" means a person of the age of 18 years or upwards, or a person who for the time being is in receipt of not less than the minimum rate of wages prescribed for adult workers by this award.

(NOTE—Attention is drawn to section 174H of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954 which gives to workers the right to join the union.)

Notification

14. Each employer shall, on request of the secretary of the union (which request shall not be made at lesser intervals than three months), supply a list of names and addresses of employees covered by this award.

Under-rate Workers

15. (a) Any worker who considers himself incapable of earning the minimum wage fixed by this award may be paid such lower wage as may from time to time be fixed, on the application of the worker after due notice to the union, by the local Inspector of Awards or such other person as the Court may from time to time appoint for that purpose; and such inspector or other person in so fixing such wage shall have regard to the worker's capability, his past earnings, and such other circumstances as such inspector or other person shall think fit to consider after hearing such evidence and argument as the union and such worker shall offer.

(b) Such permit shall be for such period, not exceeding six months, as such inspector or other person shall determine, and after the expiration of such period shall continue in force until 14 days' notice shall have been given to such worker by the secretary of the union requiring him to have his wage again fixed in manner prescribed by this clause: Provided that in the case of any person whose wage is so fixed by reason of old age or permanent disability it may be fixed for such longer period as such inspector or other person shall think fit.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, it shall be competent for a worker to agree in writing with the president or secretary of the union upon such wage without having the same so fixed.

(d) It shall be the duty of the union to give notice to the Inspector of Awards of every agreement made with a worker pursuant hereto.

(e) It shall be the duty of an employer, before employing a worker at such lower wage, to examine the permit or agreement by which such wage is fixed.

Application of Award

16. This award shall apply to the original parties named herein, and shall extend to and bind as subsequent party hereto every industrial union, industrial association, or employer who, not being an original party hereto, is, when this award comes into force or at any time whilst this award is in force, connected with or engaged in the industry to which this award applies within the industrial district to which this award relates.

Scope of Award

17. This award shall operate throughout the Northern Industrial District.

Term of Award

18. This award, in so far as the provisions relating to the rates of wages to be paid are concerned, shall be deemed to have come into force on the 28th day of February 1963, and so far as all other provisions of the award are concerned, it shall come into force on the day of the date hereof; and this award shall continue in force until the 28th day of February 1965.

In witness whereof the seal of the Court of Arbitration hath hereto been affixed, and the Judge of the Court hath hereunto set his hand, this 29th day of April 1963.

MEMORANDUM

The award, including the operative date of provisions relating to wages, incorporates the terms of settlement arrived at by the parties in the course of an inquiry held before a Council of Conciliation.

Upon being satisfied by supporting documentary evidence that an unqualified preference provision has been agreed to by all the assessors in accordance with section 174B of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954 (as enacted by the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Amendment Act 1961), the Court has inserted clause 13 in the award in the form in which it was agreed upon in the Council of Conciliation.
