THE Court of Arbitration of New Zealand (hereinafter called "the Court"), having taken into consideration the terms of settlement arrived at in the above-mentioned dispute and forwarded directly to the Court pursuant to the provisions of section 130 of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954, doth hereby order and award:

That, as between the union and the members thereof and the employers and each and every of them, the terms, conditions, and provisions set out in the Schedule hereto and of this award shall be binding upon the union and upon every member thereof and upon the employers and upon each and every of them, and that the said terms, conditions, and provisions shall be deemed to be and they are hereby incorporated in and declared to form part of this award; and, further, that the union and every member thereof and the employers and each and every of them shall respectively do, observe, and perform every matter and thing by this award and by the said terms, conditions, and provisions respectively required to be done, observed, and performed, and shall not do anything in contravention of this award or of the said terms, conditions, and provisions, but shall in all respects abide by and perform the same. And the Court doth hereby further award, order, and declare that any breach of the said terms, conditions, and provisions set out in the Schedule hereto shall constitute a breach of this award, and that a penalty as by law provided shall be payable by any party or person in respect thereof. And the Court doth further order that this award shall take effect as hereinafter provided and shall continue in force until the 22nd day of June 1966 and thereafter as provided by section 152 of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954.

In witness whereof the seal of the Court of Arbitration hath hereto been affixed, and the Judge of the Court hath hereunto set his hand, this 18th day of August 1964.

A. TYNDALL, Judge.

SCHEDULE

Definition

1. This award shall apply to racing, trotting, and hunt clubs, except in respect of starters and their assistants, radio announcers, clerks of the course, clerks of the scales, judges, time-keepers and their assistants, and the staff employed within the totalisator.

Hours of Work

2. The ordinary hours of work shall not exceed eight per day to be worked to suit the exigencies of the club.

Wages

3. (a) The minimum rates of wages for workers employed at meetings on the Trentham or Riccarton Racecourse or on the Hutt Park or Addington Trotting Course shall be as follows:

	Per Day
	£	s.	d.
(i) Ticket-sellers	3	8	0
Turnstile-keepers handling cash	3	8	0
Change-tellers	3	8	0
Female cloak-room attendants	2	11	6
All other male workers	2	17	3

(ii) Where a worker is employed for less than four hours, 7s. 4d. an hour, with a minimum of three hours for any one period of employment.

(b) At all other racing, trotting, or hunt club meetings the minimum wage shall be as follows:

(i) Where a worker is employed for four hours or more:	Per Day
	£	s.	d.
Ticket-sellers	3	4	3
Turnstile-keepers handling cash	3	4	3
Change-tellers	3	4	3
All other male workers	2	16	6
Female workers	2	10	3

(ii) Where a worker is employed for less than four hours, 7s. 3d. an hour, with a minimum of three hours for any one period of employment.

Holiday Pay

4. To conform with the requirements of the Annual Holidays Act 1944, and its amendments, each worker shall be paid holiday pay equivalent to one twenty-fifth of his ordinary pay for the time worked by him.

Overtime

5. All time worked in excess of eight hours shall be paid for at double ordinary rates.

Termination of Employment

6. The established arrangements for engaging and dismissing workers shall continue.

Uniforms

7. If a worker is required to wear a uniform, it shall be supplied by the employer. A uniform is a special dress or part of a dress other than a worker's ordinary clothing.

Meals

8. A worker shall not be employed for more than four hours continuously without an interval of at least half an hour for a meal, but this shall not apply if the employer provides the worker with refreshments at his post.

Commencement of Engagement

9. Where a postponement occurs and where reasonable notification of such postponement has not been given, a worker reporting for work at the racecourse shall be paid not less than 10s. 9d.

Transport

10. Where a worker is required to travel more than 5 miles to the place of employment, the employer shall pay for transport.

Matters Not Provided For

11. The essence of this award being that on no account whatsoever shall the work be impeded, any dispute in connection with any matter not provided for in this award shall be settled between the particular employer concerned and the secretary or president of the union, and in default of any agreement being arrived at, then such dispute shall be referred to the Conciliation Commissioner or other person mutually agreed upon, who may either decide the same or refer the matter to the Court. Either party, if dissatisfied with the decision of the Commissioner or such other person, may appeal to the Court upon giving written notice of such appeal to the other party within 14 days after such decision shall have been communicated to the party desiring to appeal.

Interviewing Workers

12. The secretary of the union, by arrangement with the employer, shall have the right to interview workers.

Unqualified Preference

13. (a) Any adult person engaged or employed in any position or employment subject to this award by any employer bound by this award shall, if he is not already a member of a union of workers bound by this award, become a member of such union within 14 days after his engagement, or after this clause comes into force, as the case may require.

(b) Subject to subclause (a) hereof, every adult person so engaged or employed shall remain a member of a union of workers bound by this award so long as he continues in any position or employment subject to this award.

(c) Every worker obliged under subclause (a) hereof to become a member of a union who fails to become a member, as required by that subclause, after being requested to do so by an officer or authorised representative of the union, and every worker who fails to remain a member of a union in accordance with subclause (b) hereof commits a breach of this award.

(d) Every employer bound by this award commits a breach of this award if he continues to employ any worker to whom subclauses (a) and (b) apply, after having been notified by any officer or authorised representative of the union that the worker has been requested to become a member of the union and has failed to do so, or that the worker having become a member of the union has failed to remain a member.

(e) For the purposes of this clause "adult person" means a person of the age of 18 years or upwards, or a person who for the time being is in receipt of not less than the minimum rate of wages prescribed for adult workers by this award.

(NOTE—Attention is drawn to section 174H of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954 which gives to workers the right to join the union.)

Union Dues

14. It shall be a condition of employment under this award that the worker shall pay union dues at the rate of 1s. for each day of his employment. To ensure compliance with this condition the employer shall deduct such dues from the wages of the worker and remit same to the appropriate union.

Under-rate Workers

15. (a) Any worker who considers himself incapable of earning the minimum wage fixed by this award may be paid such lower wage as may from time to time be fixed on the application of the worker after due notice to the union, by the local Inspector of Awards or such other person as the Court may from time to time appoint for that purpose; and such inspector or other person in so fixing such wage shall have regard to the worker's capability, his past earnings, and such other circumstances as such inspector or other person shall think fit to consider after hearing such evidence and argument as the union and such worker shall offer.

(b) Such permit shall be for such period, not exceeding six months, as such inspector or other person shall determine, and after the expiration of such period shall continue in force until 14 days' notice shall have been given to such worker by the secretary of the union requiring him to have his wage again fixed in manner prescribed by this clause: Provided that in the case of any person whose wage is so fixed by reason of old age or permanent disability it may be fixed for such longer period as such inspector or other person shall think fit.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, it shall be competent for a worker to agree in writing with the president or secretary of the union upon such wage without having the same so fixed.

(d) It shall be the duty of the union to give notice to the Inspector of Awards of every agreement made with a worker pursuant hereto.

(e) It shall be the duty of an employer, before employing a worker at such lower wage, to examine the permit or agreement by which such wage is fixed.

Exemptions

16. (a) Nothing in this award shall apply to workers who are covered by the New Zealand Racecourse Employees Award.

(b) Nothing in this award shall apply to point-to-point hunt club meetings or to non-totalisator meetings.

(c) Nothing in this award shall apply to any trotting, racing, or hunt club which races on only one day each year: Provided that if any such trotting, racing or hunt club races off its own course it shall be covered by those conditions in this award applicable to the course to which it transfers.

Application of Award

17. This award shall apply to the original parties named herein, and shall extend to and bind as subsequent party hereto every industrial union, industrial association, or employer who, not being an original party hereto, is, when the award comes into force or at any time whilst this award is in force, connected with or engaged in the industry to which this award applies within the industrial districts to which this award relates.

Scope of Award

18. This award shall operate throughout the Taranaki, Wellington, Marlborough, Nelson, Westland, Canterbury, and Otago and Southland Industrial Districts.

Term of Award

19. This award, in so far as the provisions relating to the rates of wages to be paid are concerned, shall be deemed to have come into force on the 22nd day of June 1964, and so far as all other provisions of the award are concerned, it shall come into force on the day of the date hereof; and this award shall continue in force until the 22nd day of June 1966.

In witness whereof the seal of the Court of Arbitration hath hereto been affixed, and the Judge of the Court hath hereunto set his hand, this 18th day of August 1964.

MEMORANDUM

The award, including the operative date of provisions relating to wages, incorporates the terms of settlement arrived at by the parties in the course of an inquiry held before a Council of Conciliation.

Upon being satisfied by supporting documentary evidence that an unqualified preference provision has been agreed to by all the assessors in accordance with section 174B of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954 (as enacted by the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Amendment Act 1961), the Court has inserted clause 13 in the award in the form in which it was agreed upon in the Council of Conciliation.
