

NEW ZEALAND BOILERMAKING AND MOULDING INDUSTRIES—AMENDMENT OF APPRENTICESHIP ORDER

In the Court of Arbitration of New Zealand—In the matter of the Apprentices Act 1948; and in the matter of the New Zealand Boilermaking and Moulding Industries Apprenticeship Order, dated the 14th day of May 1958, and recorded in 58 Book of Awards 506.

WHEREAS by section 13 (2) of the Apprentices Act 1948, the Court is empowered to amend any apprenticeship order: And whereas application has been made to the Court by the New Zealand Boilermaking and Moulding Apprenticeship Committee for amendment of the New Zealand Boilermaking and Moulding Industries Apprenticeship Order, dated the 14th day of May 1958, and recorded in 58 Book of Awards 506: And whereas the Court has considered the recommendations made to it by the said committee: Now therefore, the Court, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in it by the said Act, doth hereby order as follows:

1. That the said apprenticeship order shall be amended in the manner following:

(1) By deleting paragraph (i) of subclause (a) of clause 11 (Technical Education) and substituting therefor the following paragraph:

“(i) The New Zealand Boilermaking and Moulding Apprenticeship Committee may order any apprentice in the moulding industry who has completed 1,000 hours of his apprenticeship to attend during three years of his apprenticeship at a school or institution approved by it for instruction in moulding for a period of not more than three weeks in any year.”

(2) By adding to clause 11 (Technical Education) the following new subclause:

“(c) Nothing in this order shall be held to prevent an employer arranging with a university or technical school to provide further training for any apprentice who has completed his probationary period and time spent on such training during normal working hours shall count towards the term of apprenticeship.”

2. That this order shall operate and take effect as from the day of the date hereof.

Dated this 28th day of October 1965.
