Time worked between 9 p.m. and 6 a.m. shall be paid for at double time. Time worked on Saturday after 12 noon or on Sunday, shall be paid for at the rate of double time.

(b) When overtime work is necessary it shall, wherever reasonably practicable, be so arranged that workers have at least eight consecutive hours off duty between the work of successive days. A worker who works so much overtime between the termination of his ordinary work on one day and the commencement of his ordinary work on the next day that he has not had at least eight consecutive hours off duty between those times shall, subject to this sub-clause, be released after completion of such overtime until he has had eight consecutive hours off duty without loss of pay for ordinary working time (as prescribed in clause 2, sub-clause 1 (a)) occurring during such absence.

If, on the instructions of his employer, such a worker resumes or continues work without having had such eight consecutive hours off duty, he shall be paid at double rates until he is released from duty for such period, and he shall then be entitled to be absent until he has had eight consecutive hours off duty without loss of pay for ordinary working time (as prescribed in clause 2 sub-clause (1) (a)) occurring during such absence.

(c) Any worker, who, after having completed his day's work and left the place of employment, is called back to work overtime shall be paid a minimum of three hour's pay at the appropriate overtime rate and reasonable travelling time to and from the worker's home shall count as time worked.

If not provided with a meal on any occasion the worker shall be entitled to a meal allowance of 5s. 7d.

(2) Shift Workers—(a) Time worked in excess of eight hours on any shift or time worked on any rostered day off shall be deemed to be overtime and shall be paid for at the rate of time and one half for the first three hours and at the rate of double time thereafter: Provided that any such time worked after noon on a Saturday or on a Sunday shall be paid for at the rate of double time.

(b) Any shift worker who, after having completed his day's work and left the place of employment, is called back to work overtime, shall be paid a minimum of three hours' pay at the appropriate overtime rate and reasonable travelling time to and from the worker's home shall count as time worked.

4. Except in the normal or rostered changing of shifts and where changes of shifts are mutually arranged between workers themselves, a shift worker, who commences his ordinary hours of work for the week on any one of the three shifts and is switched to another shift as part of his ordinary hours of work, shall be entitled to receive for the time worked on the first such changed shift after the switch a payment at the rate of time and one half ordinary rate for the first three hours and double ordinary rate thereafter: Provided that any such time worked after noon on a Saturday or on a Sunday shall be paid for at the rate of double time.

This entitlement shall be in substitution for the ordinary wages which would otherwise be payable to the worker in respect of such time.

Shift Allowance

5. (a) Where day, afternoon, and night shifts are worked a shift allowance at the rate of 5s. 4d. per shift shall be paid to each shift worker, but the management at each mill shall have the right to fix its own allowances for the day, afternoon, and night shifts respectively including the right not to pay any allowance for the day shift provided that the total for a complete cycle of three shifts amounts to 16s.

Where part of an eight hour shift is worked by one worker and the remainder by another the shift allowance for that shift shall be divided between the two workers in proportion to the time worked by each.

(b) An afternoon shift means a shift commencing after 12 noon and finishing at or before midnight, and a night shift means any shift finishing subsequent to midnight and at or before 8 a.m.

(b) Such permit shall be for such period, not exceeding six months, as such inspector or other person shall determine, and after the expiration of such period shall continue in force until 14 days' notice shall have been given to such worker by the secretary of the union requiring him to have his wage again fixed in manner prescribed by this clause: Provided that in the case of any person whose wage is so fixed by reason of old age or permanent disability it may be fixed for such longer period as such inspector or other person shall think fit.
