
AOTEAROA MEATS LTD. (WOOL SCOURING DIVISION) EMPLOYEES—INDUSTRIAL AGREEMENT

[Filed in the Office of the Clerk of Awards, Auckland]

THIS industrial agreement, made in pursuance of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954 and its amendments, this 3rd day of September 1965, between the Auckland Curriers, Beamsmen's, Fellmongers, Tanners', Soapworkers', and General Tannery Employees Industrial Union of Workers (hereinafter referred to as "the union") and Aotearoa Meats Ltd. (Wool Scouring Division) Edinburgh Street, Onehunga, Auckland (hereinafter referred to as "the employer"), witnesseth that it is hereby mutually agreed and declared between the union and the employer as follows:

That, as between the parties hereto, the terms, conditions and provisions herein contained shall be binding on the said parties, and the said terms, conditions, and provisions shall be deemed to form part of this agreement: and further, the said parties shall respectively, do, observe and perform every matter and thing by this agreement and by the said terms, conditions, and provisions respectively required to be done, observed and performed, and shall not do anything in contravention of this agreement.

SCHEDULE

Industry to Which Agreement Applies

1. This agreement shall apply to the woolscouring activities of Aotearoa Meats Ltd. at Onehunga.

Hours of Work

2. (a) An ordinary week's work shall consist of 40 hours, eight hours to be worked on five days of the week, Monday to Friday (both days inclusive) between the hours of 7.30 a.m. and 5 p.m., but the daily starting time may be altered to 7 a.m. by mutual agreement

(b) Shifts of eight hours may be worked on five days of the week. A shift shall consist of eight consecutive hours, including 20 minutes crib-time and two smokos.

(c) When a worker is employed on shift-work for less than three consecutive days in any one week the provisions of subclause (a) shall apply.

(d) When workers on shift-work are required to work on any portion of their shifts between the hours of 6 p.m. and 6 a.m. they shall be paid 5s. 4d. per shift in addition to the wages prescribed elsewhere in this agreement.

(e) Unless with the consent of the union, no worker under the age of 18 years shall be allowed on morning or evening shifts.

(f) One hour shall be allowed for all meals, except where mutually arranged at any factory.

Overtime

3. (a) Except where otherwise provided, all time worked outside of or in excess of the hours mentioned in clause 2 hereof in any one day shall be paid for at the rate of time and half for the first three hours and double time thereafter. Any work done on Saturday shall be paid for at the rate of time and half for the first three hours and double time thereafter, provided, also that any work done after 12 noon on Saturday shall be paid for at double time rate.

(b) Where notice for overtime after 5 p.m. on the next day is not given to a worker before he leaves work, the employer shall provide a suitable hot meal or pay the worker 5s. 7d. in lieu thereof.

(c) Where notice for overtime is given and overtime is not worked the employer shall pay each worker one hour's pay at the ordinary rate.

Holidays

4. (a) All workers shall receive the following holidays in each year: New Year's Day, 2 January, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, the birthday of the reigning Sovereign, Labour Day, Anniversary Day (or day in lieu thereof), Christmas Day, and Boxing Day.

(b) All holidays mentioned in subclause (a) of this clause shall be subject to the conditions of the Factory Act 1946, and shall be paid for in accordance with the provisions of such Act, and for the purpose of this subclause Anniversary Day (or a day in lieu thereof) shall be treated as a holiday under the Factories Act. Piece-workers in such case shall be paid the rates specified for time workers.

(c) All time worked on the holidays mentioned in subclause (a) of this clause shall be paid for at double rates in addition to the ordinary rates payable in subclause (b) of this clause.

(d) All time worked on Sundays shall be paid for at double time rates.

(e) When a holiday other than Anzac Day, falls on a Saturday or Sunday, such holiday shall be observed on the following Monday. When Christmas Day, and New Year's Day fall on a Sunday, Boxing Day and 2 January shall be observed on the respective Tuesdays following.

(f) In addition to the holidays specified in subclause (a) of this clause, holidays shall be allowed as provided in the Annual Holidays Act 1944 and its amendments.

Wages

5. (a) The following shall be the minimum rates of wages for workers 21 years and over:

	Weekly Per Week			Casual Workers Per Hour
Wool-sorters	16	3	4	8	1
Workers whilst engaged on or in connection with wool scouring machines	15	8	4	7	8½
Wool-pressers	15	0	0	7	6
All other workers	14	13	4	7	4

For the purpose of this sub-clause a "casual worker" is a worker employed for a period of less than four working weeks with the same employer.

(b) Workers cleaning out filters and drains shall be paid 1s. 4d. per day extra while so engaged, with a minimum payment of 5s. 4d. per day.

Piecework

6. The rates of pay for piecework shall be arranged between the employer and the workers concerned and a copy of each agreement shall be supplied to the secretary of the union: Provided that the rates shall be such as will secure to a competent worker at least 10 per cent more than the appropriate rate provided for in this agreement.

Employment of Youths

7. (a) Youths may be employed at the discretion of the employer at not less than the following minimum rates of wages:

	Per Week
17 to 18 years of age	8	10	0
18 to 19 years of age	10	3	4
19 and thereafter at the adult rates of wages as provided for in clause 5 (a).

(b) No youth shall have his present wage reduced by operation of this clause.

(c) The proportion of youths to adult workers shall not exceed one youth to three adults, except that this proportion shall not apply to youths employed on wool-drying greens, where there shall be no fixed proportion of junior labour.

Payment of Wages

8. Wages shall be paid weekly in the employer's time. Two days lie time shall be allowed. Any error or omission in the pay-sheet shall be adjusted, wherever possible, within 48 hours. Each worker shall be allowed to hold his time card for a period of two hours after payment of wages in order to take a copy of same.

Register of Employees

9. All employers employing more than 10 workers shall keep a book showing the names and addresses of all workers thereafter engaged. With the consent of the employer, such book shall be accessible to the secretary of the union or to the union's delegate at not less than three-monthly intervals.

General Conditions

10. (a) Ten minutes smoko shall be allowed during the morning and afternoon each day and after two hours when working overtime provided that work continues after smoko break.

(b) Workers shall be supplied with two sets of aprons and/or overalls, which shall be renewed as required but in no case shall a worker be entitled to more than two sets per annum.

Workers required to work under wet conditions shall be supplied with gumboots, heavy leather boots or clogs, which shall remain the property of the employer. If any question arises as to whether any conditions are wet the matter shall be dealt with under clause 12 of this agreement.

Workers required to work in greasy wool for the major portion of their time in any quarterly period shall be supplied with suitable shoes or boots or, alternatively, a footwear allowance of £4 10s. per annum shall be paid. This allowance shall be paid quarterly as the worker qualifies.

(c) Any worker who, not having been informed before leaving work that there will be no work of the following day, presents himself at the works shall in the event of there being no work, receive not less than two hours' pay.

(d) Full and proper provisions shall be made for lavatory accommodation, which shall be kept clean and tidy to the satisfaction of the local Inspector of Factories.

(e) A suitable shed for employees' bicycles shall be provided.

(f) A supply of boiling water suitable for refreshments shall be available at meal times. Facilities for heating food shall be provided by the employer.

(g) Water of good quality suitable for drinking shall be supplied.

(h) The employer shall provide satisfactory dining, dressing and washing accommodation. Where required, each worker shall be supplied with a locker.

(i) A first aid outfit, suitably equipped, shall be kept in a place accessible to employees.

(j) Where necessary employers shall install dust-collectors and work-rooms shall be ventilated in such manner as to provide a sufficient supply of fresh air.

Right of Entry

11. The secretary or other authorised officer of the union of workers shall, with the consent of the employer (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld), be entitled to enter at all reasonable times upon the premises or works and there interview any workers, but not so as to interfere unreasonably with the employer's business.

Disputes

12. The essence of this agreement being that the work of the employer shall not on any account whatsoever be impeded, but shall always proceed as if no dispute had arisen, it is provided that if any dispute or difference shall arise between the parties bound by this agreement, as to any matter whatsoever arising out of or connected therewith and not specifically dealt within this agreement every such dispute or difference shall be referred to a committee to be composed of two representatives of each side, together with an independent chairman, to be mutually agreed upon or, in default of agreement, to be appointed by the Conciliation Commissioner for the district. If the committee is unable to decide the question then the chairman shall give a decision or refer the matter to the Court. Either side shall have the right to appeal to the Court against a decision of any such committee or chairman, upon giving to the other side written notice of such appeal within 14 days after such decision has been made known to the party desirous of appealing.

Unqualified Preference

13. (a) Any adult person engaged or employed in any position or employment subject to this agreement by any employer bound by this agreement shall, if he is not already a member of a union of workers bound by this agreement, become a member of such union within 14 days after his engagement, or after this clause comes into force, as the case may be.

(b) Subject to subclause (a) hereof, every adult person so engaged or employed shall remain a member of a union of workers bound by this agreement so long as he continues in any position or employment subject to this agreement.

(c) Every worker obliged under subclause (a) hereof to become a member of a union who fails to become a member, as required by that subclause, after being requested to do so by an officer or representative of the union, and every worker who fails to remain a member of a union in accordance with subclause (b) hereof commits a breach of this agreement.

(d) Every employer bound by this agreement commits a breach of this agreement if he continues to employ any worker to whom subclauses (a) and (b) apply, after having been notified by any officer or authorised representative of the union that the worker has been requested to become a member of the union and has failed to do so, or that the worker having become a member of the union has failed to remain a member.

(e) For the purposes of this clause "adult person" means a person of the age of 18 years or upwards, or a person who for the time being is in receipt of not less than the minimum rate of wages prescribed for adult workers by this agreement.

(NOTE—Attention is drawn to section 174H of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954, which gives to workers the right to join the union.)

Under-rate Workers

14. (a) Any worker who considers himself incapable of earning the minimum wage fixed by this agreement may be paid such lower wage as may from time to time be fixed, on application of the worker after due notice to the union, by the local Inspector of Awards or such other person as the Court may from time to time appoint for that purpose; and such inspector or other person in so fixing such wage shall have regard to the workers' capability, his past earning, and such other circumstances as such inspector or other person shall think fit to consider after hearing such evidence and argument as the union and such worker shall offer.

(b) Such permit shall be for such period, not exceeding six months, as such inspector or other person shall determine, and after expiration of such period shall continue in force until 14 days' notice shall have been given to such worker by the secretary of the union requiring him to have his wage again fixed in manner prescribed by this clause: Provided that in the case of any person whose wage is so fixed by reason of old age or permanent disability it may be fixed for such longer period as such inspector or other person shall think fit.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, it shall be competent for a worker to agree in writing with the president or secretary of the union upon such wage without having the same so fixed.

(d) It shall be the duty of the union to give notice to the Inspector of Awards of every agreement made with the worker pursuant thereto.

(e) It shall be the duty of the employer, before employing a worker at such lower wage, to examine the permit or agreement by which such wage is fixed.

Exemption

15. This agreement shall not apply to foremen.

Term of Agreement

16. This agreement shall be deemed to have come into force on the 6th day of September 1965 and shall continue in force until 30th day of September 1966.
