Holidays

9. (a) The following shall be the recognised holidays: New Year's Day, 2 January, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, Labour Day, the birthday of the reigning Sovereign, Christmas Day, Boxing Day, and Anniversary Day or another day in lieu thereof: Provided that if any of the foregoing holidays, except Anzac Day, shall fall on a Saturday or Sunday it shall be observed on the next succeeding working day or days.

(b) Payment for any of the prescribed holidays where no work is done thereon shall be in accordance with the provisions of the Factories Act 1946 and its amendments.

(c) In addition to any payment to which a worker is entitled under the provisions of subclause (b) of this clause, any work done on any of the days set out in subclause (a) of this clause or on any Sunday shall be paid for at double time rates.

Annual Holidays

10. (a) Holidays shall be allowed in accordance with the Annual Holidays Act 1944, but the annual holidays shall be allowed within two months of becoming due and at a time suitable to the employer.

(b) Regular night shift workers after 12 months' continuous service as such shall be granted three weeks' annual holiday on ordinary pay as defined in the Annual Holidays Act 1944. (c) Upon completion of 10 or more years' continuous service with the same employer full time workers (other than workers covered by subclause (b) of this clause) shall be allowed an annual holiday of three weeks instead of two weeks allowed under the Annual Holidays Act 1944.

(d) The third week's holiday provided for in subclauses (b) and (c) hereof may be allowed in conjunction with or separately from the first two weeks. When the employer requires the third week's holiday to be taken separately from the first two weeks, the employee may apply to take the holiday at a time suitable to the employee; the employer shall not unreasonably refuse to allow the holiday at such time.

(e) Where it is customary for any employer to allow annual holidays to his workers or to any class of his workers during a period in each year when his premises are closed or the work of those workers is for any reason discontinued and at the date of the commencement of any such period any such worker has not become entitled to an annual holiday, then that worker shall not be entitled to any wages for two weeks following that date, but the employer shall before that date pay to him, in addition to all other amounts such as statutory holiday pay, due to him at that date, an amount equal to one twenty-fifth of his ordinary pay for the period of his employment up to that date, and for the purposes of the Annual Holidays Act the next year of his employment shall be deemed to commence on that date.

Payment of Wages

General Conditions

13. (a) A worker who is required to work overtime exceeding one hour after his ordinary hours on any day shall be paid meal money. When a worker has been notified that he will be required to work overtime and the notice is subsequently withdrawn, he shall be paid meal money, but this provision shall not apply in any case where the notice has been withdrawn on the previous day or earlier.

The amount payable as meal money shall be 5s. 6d. Such allowance shall not be payable where the employer supplies a suitable meal. The standard of the meal shall be determined by agreement between the employer and the workers. The provisions of this subclause shall not apply to any part-time worker who has ceased work at or before 3 p.m. but who later returns to work overtime at or after 5 p.m.

(b) Tea shall be available for meals.

(c) Provision for dressing rooms, lockers, or locker-room shall be made in accordance with the requirements of the Inspector of Factories at each establishment. In those cases where a lock is an integral part of a locker, any worker wishing to lock his locker may be called upon to make a deposit equal to the cost of replacement of the key supplied, such deposit to be repaid on the return of the key to the employer.

(d) Workers who at the date of making this award are in receipt of more than the rates prescribed herein shall not have their existing rates reduced while they continue in the same employment.

(f) Towels, hot water, and wash-basins shall be provided.

(g) A female worker shall not be required to lift or carry more than 30 lb in weight.

(h) Where wet conditions prevail, workers shall be provided with clogs or gumboots and waterproof aprons. Where a worker is actually engaged continuously in washing tins by hand in a tub, he shall be paid an allowance of 16s. 6d. per week.

(i) St. John first aid medical chests or similar outfits shall be provided in convenient and accessible places on each floor.

(j) Employers shall supply, on request, to the secretary of the union, at not less than quarterly intervals, a list of the workers covered by this award.

(k) Two smocks, or two overalls shall be provided free annually to each full-time worker. Such clothing shall remain the property of the employer.

(l) A morning and afternoon tea break of ten minutes shall be allowed.

Right of Access

14. The secretary or other authorised officer of the union of workers shall, with the consent of the employer on each occasion (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld), be entitled to enter at all reasonable times upon the premises or works and there interview any workers but not so as to interfere unreasonably with the employer's business.

Settlement of Disputes

15. The essence of this award being that the work of the employers shall not on any account whatsoever be impeded but shall always proceed as if no dispute had arisen, it is provided that if any dispute or difference shall arise between the parties bound by this award, or any of them, as to any matter whatsoever arising out of or connected therewith and not dealt with in this award, every such dispute or difference shall be referred to a committee to be composed of two representatives of each side. In default of agreement, the dispute shall be referred to the Conciliation Commissioner for the district for decision. Either side shall have the right of appeal to the Court within 14 days after such decision shall have been made known to the party desirous of appealing.

Unqualified Preference

16. (a) Any adult person engaged or employed in any position or employment subject to this award by any employer bound by this award shall, if he is not already a member of a union of workers bound by this award, become a member of such union within 14 days after his engagement, or after this clause comes into force, as the case may require.

(b) Subject to subclause (a) hereof, every adult person so engaged or employed shall remain a member of a union of workers bound by this award so long as he continues in any position or employment subject to this award.

(c) Every worker obliged under subclause (a) hereof to become a member of a union who fails to become a member, as required by that subclause, after being requested to do so by an officer or authorised representative of the union, and every worker who fails to remain a member of a union in accordance with subclause (b) hereof commits a breach of this award.

(d) Every employer bound by this award commits a breach of this award if he continues to employ any worker to whom subclauses (a) and (b) apply, after having been notified by any officer or authorised representative of the union that the worker has been requested to become a member of the union and has failed to do so, or that the worker having become a member of the union has failed to remain a member.

(e) For the purposes of this clause "adult person" means a person of the age of 18 years or upwards, or a person who for the time being is in receipt of not less than the minimum rate of wages prescribed for adult workers by this award.

(NOTE—Attention is drawn to section 174H of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954 which gives to workers the right to join the union.)

Under-rate Workers

17. (a) Any worker who considers himself incapable of earning the minimum wage fixed by this award may be paid such lower wage as may from time to time be fixed, on application of the worker after due notice to the union, by the local Inspector of Awards or such other person as the Court may from time to time appoint for that purpose; and such inspector or other person in so fixing such wage shall have regard to the worker's capability, his past earnings, and such other circumstances as such inspector or other person shall think fit to consider after hearing such evidence and argument as the union and such worker shall offer.

(b) Such permit shall be for such period, not exceeding six months, as such inspector or other person shall determine, and after the expiration of such period shall continue in force until 14 day' notice shall have been given to such worker by the secretary of the union requiring him to have his wage again fixed in manner prescribed by this clause: Provided that in the case of any person whose wage is so fixed by reason of old age or permanent disability it may be fixed for such longer period as such inspector or other person shall think fit.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, it shall be competent for a worker to agree in writing with the president or secretary of the union upon such wage without having the same so fixed.

(d) It shall be the duty of the union to give notice to the Inspector of Awards of every agreement made with a worker pursuant hereto.

(e) It shall be the duty of an employer, before employing a worker at such lower wage, to examine the permit or agreement by which such wage is fixed.

Application of Award

18. This award shall apply to the original parties named herein, and shall extend to and bind as subsequent party hereto every industrial union, industrial association, or employer who, not being an original party hereto, is, when this award comes into force or at any time whilst this award is in force, connected with or engaged in the industry to which this award applies within the industrial districts to which this award relates.

Scope of Award

19. This award shall operate throughout the Northern, Wellington, Nelson, Canterbury, and Otago and Southland Industrial Districts.

Terms of Award

20. This award, in so far as the provisions relating to the rates of wages to be paid are concerned, shall be deemed to have come into force on the first day of the pay period in each establishment commencing on or after the 25th day of October 1965, and so far as all other provisions of the award are concerned, it shall come into force on the day of the date hereof; and this award shall continue in force until the 30th day of April 1967.

In witness whereof the seal of the Court of Arbitration hath hereto been affixed, and the Judge of the Court hath hereunto set his hand, this 24th day of November 1965.

MEMORANDUM

The award, including the operative date of provisions relating to wages, incorporates the terms of settlement arrived at by the parties in the course of an inquiry held before a Council of Conciliation.

Upon being satisfied by supporting documentary evidence that an unqualified preference provision has been agreed to by all the assessors in accordance with section 174B of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954 (as enacted by the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Amendment Act 1961, the Court has inserted clause 16 in the award in the form in which it was agreed upon in the Council of Conciliation.

The assessors have requested that the following statement be recorded:

“The employers, parties to this award, have agreed to arrange for the laundering of smocks, overalls and caps but the employers require up to 1 May 1966 to make the necessary arrangements regarding such laundering.”
