

WHANGAREI HARBOUR BOARD TUG MASTERS—INDUSTRIAL AGREEMENT

THIS industrial agreement made in pursuance of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954, dated the 15th day of February 1965 between the New Zealand Merchant Service Guild Industrial Union of Workers (hereinafter referred to as "the guild") of the one part and the Whangarei Harbour Board (hereinafter referred to as "the board") of the other part, whereby it is mutually agreed by and between the said parties hereto as follows, that is to say:

1. That the terms, conditions, stipulations and provisions contained and set out in the Schedule hereto shall be binding upon the said parties and they should be deemed to be and are hereby incorporated in and declared to form part of this agreement.

2. The said parties hereto shall respectively do, observe and perform every matter and thing by this agreement and by the said terms, conditions, stipulations and provisions respectively required to be done, observed and performed, and shall not do anything in contravention of this agreement or of the said terms, conditions, stipulations and provisions, but shall in all respects abide by and perform the same.

Hours and General Conditions

1. The responsibilities of the tugmasters in relation to their duties in general, their hours of work and other conditions shall be as agreed between the guild and the board from time to time.

Salary Payments

2. The following shall be the minimum salary payments for tugmasters:

				Per Annum
During probationary period	2,100
Thereafter	2,200

Annual Holidays

3. Tugmasters shall after the completion of each year of service be entitled to three weeks holiday on full pay. In addition a tugmaster who works or remains on call, shall have one additional day added to his annual leave for each statutory holiday so worked.

In the event of a statutory holiday occurring during the period of the annual leave, such day or days shall be added to the annual holiday.

Special Provisions

4. When a tug is required to proceed to sea in cases of emergency, the rates of pay for the master and officers shall be agreed upon between the board and the guild on the tug's return to port. In the event of no agreement being promptly reached, the rates shall be determined under the procedure set forth in clause 5 of this agreement.

Disputes

5. Any dispute in connection with any matters not provided for in this agreement shall be settled between the board and the secretary of the guild, and in default of any agreement being arrived at any such dispute shall be referred to the local Conciliation Commissioner, who may either decide the same or refer the matter to the Court. Either party if dissatisfied with the decision of the Commissioner, may appeal to the Court upon giving written notice of such appeal to the other party within 14 days after such decision shall have been communicated to the party desiring to appeal.

Termination of Employment

6. The services of a tugmaster shall be terminable by either the board or the officer, by three months notice in writing; except that during the first 12 months' service the services of a tugmaster shall be terminable by one calendar month's notice in writing; provided always that the board shall be entitled, for misconduct or any other good and sufficient reason, summarily to terminate the services of any tugmaster.

Unqualified Preference

7. (a) Any adult person engaged or employed in any position or employment subject to this agreement shall, if he is not already a member of the union of workers bound by this agreement, become a member of such union within 14 days after his engagement, or after this clause comes into force; as the case may require.

(b) Subject to subclause (a) hereof, every adult person so engaged or employed shall remain a member of the union of workers bound by this agreement so long as he continues in any position or employment subject to this agreement.

(c) Every worker obliged under subclause (a) hereof, to become a member of the union who fails to become a member, as required by that subclause, after being requested to do so by an officer or authorised representative of the union, and every worker who fails to remain a member of the union in accordance with subclause (b) hereof commits a breach of this agreement.

(d) The employer bound by this agreement commits a breach of this agreement if he continues to employ any worker to whom subclauses (a) and (b) apply, after having been notified by any officer or authorised representative of the union that the worker has been requested to become a member of the union and has failed to do so, or that the worker having become a member of the union has failed to remain a member.

(e) For the purposes of this clause "adult person" means a person of the age of 18 years or upwards, or a person who for the time being is in receipt of not less than the minimum rate of wages prescribed for adult workers by this agreement but does not include a person who holds a current certificate of exemption from union membership issued under the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954.

(NOTE—Attention is drawn to section 174H of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954 which gives to workers the right to join the union.)

Term of Agreement

8. This agreement shall come into force on the 1st day of October 1964 and shall continue in force until the 30th day of September 1965.

In witness whereof the parties hereto have hereunder set their hands the day and year first before written.
