

NEW ZEALAND BOILERMAKING INDUSTRY – AMENDMENT OF APPRENTICESHIP ORDER

In the Court of Arbitration of New Zealand – In the matter of the Apprentices Act 1948; and in the matter of the New Zealand Boilermaking Industry Apprenticeship Order, dated the 4th day of October 1967, and recorded in 67 Book of Awards 2439.

Whereas by section 13 (2) of the Apprentices Act 1948, the Court is empowered to amend any apprenticeship order: And whereas application has been made to the Court by the New Zealand Boilermaking and Moulding Apprenticeship Committee for amendment of the New Zealand Boilermaking Industry Apprenticeship Order, dated the 4th day of October 1967, and recorded in 67 Book of Awards 2439: And whereas the Court has considered the recommendations made to it by the said committee: Now, therefore, the Court in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in it by the said Act, doth hereby order as follows:

1. That the said apprenticeship order shall be amended by deleting subclause (b) of clause 8 (Term of Apprenticeship) and substituting therefore the following subclauses:

“(b) Where before the commencement of his apprenticeship an apprentice has obtained or has sat and as a result obtains a pass in School Certificate subjects giving admission to Form VI under Education Department criteria or in that examination has obtained not less than 50 per cent of the possible marks in any two of the following subjects – English, mathematics, technical drawing, applied mechanics, engineering shopwork, general science (including one of the physics options), physics, chemistry – the term of apprenticeship shall be 8,000 hours divided into eight 1,000-hour periods.

(bb) Where after the commencement of his apprenticeship an apprentice sits and completes a pass in School Certificate subjects giving admission to Form VI under Education Department criteria or in that examination has obtained not less than 50 per cent of the possible marks in any two of the following subjects – English, mathematics, technical drawing, applied mechanics, engineering shopwork, general science (including one of the physics options), physics, chemistry – his term of apprenticeship shall be reduced by 1,000 hours from the date of notification of his obtaining either of these qualifications.”

2. That this order shall operate and take effect as from the day of the date hereof.

Dated this 14th day of July 1972.

A. P. BLAIR, Judge.
