INDUSTRIAL INSTRUMENTATION INDUSTRY —
AMENDMENT OF APPRENTICESHIP ORDER

Dated 22/12/76

In the Industrial Court of New Zealand — In the matter of the Apprentices Act 1948; and in the matter of the Industrial Instrumentation Industry Apprenticeship Order dated the 7th day of March 1975, recorded in 75 Book of Awards 1745.

Whereas by section 13 (2) of the Apprentices Act 1948, the Industrial Court is empowered to amend any apprenticeship order: and whereas application has been made to the Court by the New Zealand Industrial Instrumentation Apprenticeship Committee for amendment of the Industrial Instrumentation Industry Apprenticeship Order, dated the 7th day of March 1975: And whereas the Court has considered the recommendations made to it by the said Committee: Now, therefore, the Court, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in it by the said Act, doth hereby order as follows:

1. That the said apprenticeship order shall be amended by deleting paragraphs (i) and (ii) of subclause (b) of clause 11 (Wages) and substituting therefor the following paragraphs:

“(b) (i) Every apprentice who produces to his employer a notification from the New Zealand Trades Certification Board that he has passed or has been exempted from the First Qualifying Examination or any apprentice who produces to his employer a notification from the Board that he has passed the First Assessment shall, from the date of production of that notification to his employer, for the purpose of calculating his wage rate in accordance with paragraph (i) of subclause (a) of this Clause, be credited with 500 hours in addition to the number of hours he has already served under his apprenticeship: provided that an apprentice exempted from the First Qualifying Examination shall not be entitled to the credit of 500 hours until he has completed 500 hours of his term of apprenticeship.

(ii) Every apprentice who produces to his employer a notification from the New Zealand Trades Certification Board that he has passed the Second Qualifying Examination or the Second Assessment, or a notification from the Technicians Certification Authority of New Zealand that he has passed all the subjects for the second year of a relevant Certificate in Engineering examination shall, from the date of production of that notification to his employer, for the purpose of calculating his wage rate in accordance with paragraph (i) of subclause (a) of this Clause, be credited with 750 hours (further to the 500 hours mentioned in paragraph (i) of this subclause) in addition to the number he has already served under his apprenticeship”.

2. That this order shall operate and take effect as from the day of the date hereof.

Dated this 22nd day of December 1976.

R. D. Jamieson, Judge.
