Payment of the wage order as a separate calculation should be discontinued as from the operative date of this Agreement.

(iv) Industrial Allowance — An industrial allowance of 4.5c per hour extra shall be paid as recognition of work conditions inherent in the industry such as noise, broken glass, wet conditions, cleaning materials, etc.

*(v) Disability Provisions — In lieu of the intermittent application of the provisions of Clause 11 (i) of the Factory Engineers' Award and Clause 7, Disabilities, of the Electrical Workers' Award, which both differ as to their wording, and taking into account that the other awards covering other trades' group workers employed in the brewery industry do not describe such provisions, a payment of 8c per hour additional to the ordinary rate shall be made.

While this payment continues as part of this agreement no further payments shall be required to be made in terms of the above award provisions.

*(vi) Meal Money — Meal money of $2.10 per meal shall be paid in accordance with the terms of the Factory Engineers Award.

(vii) Travelling Reimbursement — Having regard to the working hours required of workers covered by this agreement and that public transport generally either does not exist or is unavailable or inadequate for such workers in travelling to and/or from such work, a worker shall receive 55 cents per day transport reimbursement allowance, such payment being a contribution towards the cost of travelling to and/or from work.

No worker already employed shall have any transport reimbursement allowance now being paid in terms of dispute committee decisions or established practice at his particular place of work reduced on the coming into operation of this agreement

Payment of transport reimbursement allowances existing at the date of coming into force of this agreement shall remain at their existing monetary rate without alteration.

Workers in receipt of existing transport reimbursement allowances in excess of that prescribed by this subclause shall continue to receive such existing payments and shall not be entitled to the payment prescribed by this subclause.

Where, because of the exigencies of the undertaking it has been the employer's practice to provide transport for the conveyance of workers to or from work, such arrangements shall continue and the worker shall not be entitled to the payment prescribed by this subclause on that occasion.

Where any worker elects to utilise any other award or agreement provision relating to travelling time or travelling reimbursement (other than for call-back situations) then the payment specified in this subclause shall not be applicable.
