NEW ZEALAND CARPENTRY AND JOINERY INDUSTRY – AMENDMENT TO APPRENTICESHIP ORDER

Dated: 16/3/83

In the Arbitration Court of New Zealand in the matter of the Apprentices Act 1948; and in the matter of the New Zealand Carpentry and Joinery Industry Apprenticeship Order dated the 20th day of December 1974 recorded in 74 Book of Awards 3841.

WHEREAS by section 13(2) of the Apprentices Act 1948, the Arbitration Court is empowered to amend any apprenticeship order: AND WHEREAS application has been made to the Court by the New Zealand Carpentry and Joinery Apprenticeship Committee for amendment of the New Zealand Carpentry and Joinery Industry Apprenticeship Order dated the 20th day of December 1974: AND WHEREAS the Court has considered the recommendations made to it by the said Committee: NOW, THEREFORE, THE COURT, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in it by the said Act, DOTH HEREBY ORDER as follows:

1. THAT the said apprenticeship order shall be amended in the following manner:
(1) By deleting subclauses (c) to (f) of clause 11 (Wages) and substituting therefor the following:

“(c) An apprentice should immediately notify his employer, upon notification from the New Zealand Trades Certification Board that he has passed the First Assessment and shall, on and from the date he produces the notice to his employer or on and from the date he has completed 2,000 hours of his apprenticeship, whichever date is the later, be paid the rate prescribed as if he had served an additional 500 hours of his term of apprenticeship.

(d) An apprentice should immediately notify his employer, upon notification from the New Zealand Trades Certification Board that he has passed the Second Assessment, or upon notification from the Authority for Advanced Vocational Awards that he has passed the examination for the New Zealand Certificate in Building Stage 1 and shall, on and from the date he produces either notice to his employer or on and from the date he has completed 4,000 hours of his apprenticeship, whichever date is the later, be paid the rate prescribed as if he had served an additional 500 hours of his term of apprenticeship. Such 500 hours shall be in addition to the 500 hours mentioned in subclause (c) of this clause.

Provided, however, that any apprentice who fails to obtain the First Assessment and who later passes the Second Assessment shall be deemed to have passed the First Assessment and shall be entitled to the incentive prescribed under subclause (c) on and from the date he produces to his employer the notification that he has passed the Second Assessment.

(e) An apprentice should immediately notify his employer, upon notification from the New Zealand Trades Certification Board that he has passed the Third Assessment and shall, on and from the date he produces the notice to his employer or on and from the date he has completed 6,800 hours of his apprenticeship, whichever is the later, be paid 100 per cent of the journey-men’s rate.

(f) An apprentice should immediately notify his employer upon notification from the New Zealand Trades Certification Board that he has passed the Trade Certificate Examination of that Board or upon notification from the Authority for Advanced Vocational Awards that he has passed the New Zealand Certificate in Building Stage 2 and shall, on and from the date he produces either notice to his employer or on and from the date he has completed 6,000 hours of his apprenticeship whichever date is the later, be paid 100 per cent of the journeymen's rate."

- (2) By deleting subclause (f) of clause 12 (Technical Classes) and substituting therefor the following:

"(f) Technician Courses—With the approval of a local committee and the employer, an apprentice may elect to take a course for the New Zealand Certificate of Building of the Authority for Advanced Vocational Awards in lieu of technical classes otherwise provided for."

2. THAT this order shall operate and take effect from the day of the date hereof.

Dated this 16th day of March 1983.

J. R. P. Horn, Chief Judge.
