2. APPLICATION OF AGREEMENT

3. UNDERTAKING OF PARTIES

The parties to this agreement mutually agree to do, observe, and perform every matter and thing provided for by this agreement and shall not do anything contrary thereto but shall in all respects abide by and perform the same.

4. SICK PAY

- (i) After three months' continuous service with the same employer or in the same establishment, all workers who work five days a week shall be entitled in each subsequent year of service to sick pay for up to ten days at the appropriate Monday to Friday rate applicable to that worker and for the number of hours normally worked on those days by the worker but not exceeding eight hours' pay on any one day.
- (ii) Workers engaged under paragraph (ii) of subclause (a) of clause 2 of the NZ Tearoom and Restaurant Employees Award shall be entitled to sick leave on the basis of four days per annum at ten hours' ordinary pay per day.

- (b) Sick pay shall accumulate up to 30 days by carrying forward from one year to another any unused sick pay of up to 20 days.
- (c) Absences of one day may be paid at the employer's discretion.
- (d) The employer may at his discretion require the production of a medical certificate as proof of illness.
- (e) It shall be obligatory on the worker to ensure notice is given to the employer on the first day of absence due to illness.
- (f) Wherever possible workers should notify the employer on the day prior to recommencing work after sickness.
- (g) All casual and part-time workers regularly employed for three or more days per week shall be entitled to the provisions of this clause on a pro rata basis, provided the sickness falls on a day regularly worked. Except in the case of workers employed specifically under clause 16 of the NZ Tearoom and Restaurant Employees Award, Special Occasions, to whom the sick pay shall not apply.
- (h) Sick pay shall not be paid for any day in respect of which any holiday pay is required to be paid to the worker.
- (i) The employer shall have the right to require the worker to produce additionally a medical certificate at the employer's expense from a doctor nominated by the employer.
- (j) Where a worker becomes ill after commencing work on a work day prior to the completion of four hours of duty and his supervisor approves his release from duty on account of such illness he may receive four hours of paid sick leave subject to his having sufficient sick leave entitlement accrued under the preceding provisions.
This clause shall not apply where a worker has completed more than four hours work on the day of such illness.
- (k) A worker who becomes incapacitated as a result of illness or injury while on annual leave, may, if such incapacity extends over a period of not less than five consecutive calendar days within the annual leave period, elect to have the days so involved debited against his sick leave entitlement and not against his annual leave entitlement to the extent that this may be possible having regard to his accumulated sick leave entitlement provided that:
  - a. The worker produces a medical certificate to the effect that he would have been unable to work during the said period.
  - b. The worker returns to duty immediately following the expiry of the original annual leave period or the day of expiry of the certified sick leave whichever is the later.
  - c. The number of annual leave days so replaced by sick leave days be taken at a mutually acceptable time subsequent to his return to duty and be paid for as if it were a period of sick leave.

5. SATURDAY AND SUNDAY WORK

Except as elsewhere provided in the NZ Tearoom and Restaurant Employees Award, other than in clause 22 (a) where a worker is required to perform work on a Saturday as part of his normal working week, he shall be paid for the time worked on such Saturday at the rate of time and one half his ordinary rate for the first three hours and at double his ordinary rate thereafter, provided that all work after noon on a Saturday and all day Sunday, shall be paid for at double his ordinary rate of pay.
