This collective agreement incorporates the terms of voluntary settlement arrived at by the parties and forwarded to the Court for registration pursuant to section 65 of the Industrial Relations Act 1973.

The parties' settlement for a shortened term has the Court's consent pursuant to section 92(2) of the Industrial Relations Act 1973 and Regulation 6(3) of the Wage Adjustment Regulations 1974.

The parties' attention is drawn to the wording of clause 2, which should be read in light of section 97(2) of the Industrial Relations Act 1973.

Section 17 of the Industrial Relations Amendment Act 1985, Transitional Provision in Respect of Unqualified Preference Provisions, says that every collective agreement or award subject to section 17, shall be deemed to contain a union membership clause in the same form as set out in section 98 of the Industrial Relations Act 1973. The union membership clause reads as follows:

"If any adult person (other than a person who holds a certificate of exemption from union membership issued under section 112 0 of the Industrial Relations Act 1973) who is not a member of a union of workers bound by this agreement is engaged or employed by any employer bound by this agreement, in any position or employment that is subject to the agreement, the person shall become a member of the union within 14 days after that person's engagement or, as the case may require, after this clause comes into force, and shall remain a member of the union so long as that person continues in the position or employment."
