REGINÆ.

CAP. CIII.

AN ACT To make further Provision for the Government of the New Zealand Islands.

[28th August, 1846.]

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the Fourth Year of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to continue until the Thirty-first Day of December, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Forty-one, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and to extend the Provisions of an Act to provide for the Administration of Justice in New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land, and for the more effectual Government thereof, and for other purposes relating thereto," it is amongst other things enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Letters Patent, to be from time to time issued under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, to erect into a separate Colony or Colonies any Islands which now are or which hereafter may be comprised within and be dependencies of the said Colony of New South Wales: AND WHEREAS in pursuance and exercise of the powers in Her Majesty vested in and by the said recited Act of Parliament, Her Majesty did, by certain Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, bearing Date at Westminster the Sixteenth Day of November in the Fourth Year of Her Majesty's Reign, erect into a separate Colony the Islands of New Zealand, theretofore comprised within or Dependencies of the said Colony of New South Wales, with all other Islands lying between Thirty-four Degrees Thirty Minutes North* to the Forty-seventh Degree Ten Minutes South

* The correct description of the boundaries of the Colony should have been recited from the letters patent of April, 1842.

Latitude, and between the One Hundred and Sixty-sixth Degree Five Minutes to the One Hundred and Seventy-ninth Degree of East Longitude, reckoning from the Meridian of Greenwich, and the said Islands of New Zealand were thereby erected into a separate Colony accordingly:

AND WHEREAS, in further pursuance of the said recited Act, Her Majesty did, by the said recited Letters Patent, authorize the Governor for the time being of the said Colony of New Zealand and certain other persons to be a Legislative Council for the said Colony, and did require and enjoin that the said Legislative Council should, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, make and ordain all such Laws and Ordinances as might be required for the Peace, Order, and good Government of the said Colony: AND WHEREAS it is expedient to make further Provision for the Government of the Islands of New Zealand; BE IT THEREFORE AND IT IS HEREBY ENACTED, by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and

So much of the Act, Charter, &c. hereby repealed as relates to a Legislative Council, and the rights, powers, jurisdiction, and authority of the same, revived by 11 Vict. chap. 5 and to be in force for 5 years from the 7th March, 1848.

by the authority of the same, That the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of Her Majesty's Reign, and all Charters, Letters Patent, Instructions, and Orders in Council, made and issued in pursuance thereof, shall be and the same are hereby repealed, abrogated, and annulled, so far and only so far as the same or any of them are repugnant to or would interfere with or prevent the operation of this present Act, or may be repugnant to or would interfere with or prevent the operation of any Letters Patent, Charters, Orders in Council, or Royal Instructions which may at any time hereafter be issued under the authority or in pursuance of this Act: Provided nevertheless, that all Laws and Ordinances made and Acts done under and in pursuance of the said recited Act, Charters, Letters Patent, Instructions, Orders in Council, or any of them, shall hereafter be as lawful, valid, and effectual as though this present Act had not been made, save only so far as any such Laws, Ordinances, or Acts may be repugnant to, or would interfere with, or would prevent the operation of this present Act.

Recited Act and Letters Patent repealed so far as repugnant to Act.

Until 31st Dec. 1854, the Charter, &c., of 16th Nov. 1840 relating to New Ulster to remain in force.

'be pleased to appoint shall, in virtue of such an Appointment, be Members of the House of Representatives of the said General Assembly of the New Zealand Islands: Provided always, that the number of Members so appointed shall never constitute a majority of the said House of Representatives of the said General Assembly of the New Zealand Islands.'

Laws of aboriginal native Inhabitants to be maintained, where not repugnant to Principles of Humanity.

10. AND WHEREAS it may be expedient that the Laws, Customs, and Usages of the aboriginal or native Inhabitants of New Zealand, so far as they are not repugnant to the general principles of humanity, should for the present be maintained for the government of themselves in all their relations to and dealings with each other, and that particular districts should be set apart within which such Laws, Customs, or Usages should be so observed; BE IT ENACTED, That it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by any such Letters Patent as aforesaid, to make provision for the purposes aforesaid; any repugnancy of any such native Laws, Customs, or Usages to the Law of England, or to any Law, Statute, or Usage in force in the said Islands of New Zealand, or in any part thereof, in anywise notwithstanding.

11. AND BE IT ENACTED, That it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by any such Letters Patent as aforesaid, to make and prescribe all such rules as to her Majesty shall seem fit for determining the extent and boundaries of the districts to be comprised within any such Municipal Corporations as aforesaid, and for regulating the choice and election of the various Officers of any such Corporations, and of the Members of the governing Bodies thereof, and for ascertaining the qualifications of the Members of any such Municipal Corporations 'or Assemblies or General Assembly' as aforesaid, and for determining the length of time for which every such 'Assembly or General Assembly shall be holden from the time of the election of the Members of the said Houses of Representatives, and how 'and by what Authority the same shall be dissolved or prorogued,' and for prescribing the Oaths to be taken or the Affirmation to be made by the Members of the said Corporations, 'Assemblies, or General Assembly, or any of them,' before entering on the discharge of the duties of their respective Offices, 'and for prescribing the course of proceeding to be followed in 'the said respective Assemblies and in the said General Assembly in regard 'to the enactment of Laws, Statutes, and Ordinances therein, and for determining in what cases the Governor-in-Chief for the time being of the 'Islands of New Zealand, or the Governor for the time being of any other 'such separate Provinces as aforesaid, shall, in the name and on the behalf of Her Majesty, assent to any such Laws, Statutes, or Ordinances, 'or reserve the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure thereon, together 'with all such Rules as shall be necessary for determining the Effect of 'the disallowance by Her Majesty of any such Law, Statute, or Ordinance, 'although not so reserved as aforesaid, together with all such other Rules, 'not being repugnant to this present Act, as it may seem to Her Majesty

Her Majesty by Letters Patent to make and prescribe Rules and Regulations for Municipal Districts.

‘ necessary to make and establish for carrying into full effect the purposes and objects thereof.’ *

12. AND BE IT ENACTED, That it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by any such Letters Patent as aforesaid, to appropriate and set apart, from and out of the Revenues of any such separate Provinces as aforesaid, by way of Civil List, for the maintenance of the administration of Justice, and the principal Officers of the Civil Government, or of such separate Provinces as aforesaid, such sums of money as shall not exceed Six Thousand Pounds by the Year in any One of the said separate Governments: ‘ Provided always, That if by any Law, Statute, or Ordinance hereafter to be enacted in and by any such Assembly as aforesaid, and assented to by Her Majesty, provision shall be made for settling on Her Majesty a Civil List in substitution for the beforementioned Civil List, then and in that case so much of this Act as relates to the beforementioned Civil List, shall cease to be of any force and effect within the Province in and for which any such Law, Statute, or Ordinance shall so have been enacted.

Her Majesty may appropriate and set apart out of the Revenues of any separate Province a Sum of Money for the maintenance of the Civil Government.

13. AND BE IT ENACTED, That it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by such Letters Patent as aforesaid, to prohibit the Grant or Appropriation of any public money by either of the said Assemblies, or by the said General Assembly, in any case in which such Grant or Appropriation shall not first have been recommended by Her Majesty or on Her Majesty’s behalf, with a view to or in aid of some specific public service to be performed within the said Provinces respectively, or within the said Islands of New Zealand collectively.’

Grants of Money made by the Assemblies, not having been first recommended by Her Majesty, prohibited.

14. AND WHEREAS it may be convenient that some of the Powers hereby vested in Her Majesty should by Her Majesty be executed, not by means of such Letters Patent as aforesaid, but by Instructions under Her Majesty’s Signet and Sign Manual approved in Her Privy Council, and accompanying or referred to in such Letters Patent: AND WHEREAS it may also be convenient that the exercise of some of the Powers aforesaid should by Her Majesty be delegated to the Governor-in-Chief of the New Zealand Islands for the time being, or to the respective Governors of the said respective Provinces for the time being, and that it should be competent to Her Majesty from time to time to amend, and for that purpose to add to, or, if necessary, to repeal any such Letters Patent or Instructions as aforesaid; BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED, That it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to execute any of the Powers hereby vested in Her Majesty, not by means of such Letters Patent as aforesaid, but by such Instructions as aforesaid; and that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by any such Letters Patent or Instructions, to delegate to such Governor-in-Chief, or to such respective Governors as aforesaid, the exercise of such of the Powers aforesaid as it may seem meet to Her Majesty so to delegate, and to
