▲▲▲ Contents: Appendices

Appendices

(Note: The material included in the appendices only covers the period 1862 to 1909 and is specific to the Native Land Court.)

17 different timelines relating to subjects such as survey charges, or the removal of restrictions on alienation. The relevant sections of the statutes are gathered together so that the changes over time are more obvious. The exact dates that sections came into force and ceased to be in force are noted.

References to reported Court cases relating to 57 pieces of Maori land legislation over the period 1862 - 1909. The references are from Butterworths Annotations of New Zealand Statutes.

Written by Sir John Salmond to accompany the 1909 Native Land Bill.
As well as giving a synopsis of legislation from 1862 - 1908 it also outlines the provisions of the 1909 Native Land Act.

A list of 32 Bills which were presented to the House of Representatives by the MPs for the Maori seats but which were not passed into law.
Many of the Bills embody Maori requests for changes in the Native Land Court system.

A select bibliography of secondary sources (and some AJHR references) which specifically relate to the operation of the Native Land Court. Contains 60 references.

A compilation of references to material relating to the Native Land Court held in libraries and institutions around New Zealand.
Most of the entries are taken from existing finding aids such as the National Register of Archives and Manuscripts.

An introduction to the microfilmed and photocopied sets of the original Native Land Court minute books. Includes a summary list of the minute books included in the microfilmed and photocopied sets.

A list of Native Land Court Judges and the year they were appointed.