The Export Prohibition Emergency Regulations 1939.

GALWAY, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 6th day of September, 1939.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

PURSUANT to the Public Safety Conservation Act, 1932, and to a Proclamation of Emergency now in force under that Act, and to section 47 of the Customs Act, 1913, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, doth hereby make the following regulations.

REGULATIONS.

1. These regulations may be cited as the Export Prohibition Emergency Regulations 1939.

2. No person shall export any goods without the permission in writing of the Minister of Customs.

3. The Minister may grant permission for the export of any goods or goods of any class either generally or to any country or countries or to any person or persons, and such permission may be subject to any conditions he may in his discretion impose.

4. Any person desiring to export goods shall, at least ten days prior to the date of intended shipment, apply in writing to the Collector of Customs at the port at which the goods are proposed to be placed on board the exporting vessel for permission to export such goods. The applicant shall furnish the following particulars:—

- (a) Description, quantity, and value of goods:
- (b) Port of intended shipment:
- (c) Name of intended exporting vessel:
- (d) Approximate intended date of shipment:
- (e) Ultimate destination of goods:
- (f) Name and address of consignee:
- (g) Any other particulars that may be required by the Collector.

The Minister may, in his discretion, dispense with all or any of the requirements of this clause.
