

- (d) Out of any moneys received by him as Custodian, to pay and discharge any debts or liabilities of that prisoner of war, and to pay such reasonable sums as he considers necessary for the maintenance of the wife and children (if any) of that prisoner of war :
 - (e) Where the moneys received by him are not sufficient to pay all debts and liabilities of that prisoner of war, to sell any personal property of that prisoner of war for that purpose :
 - (f) To manage and carry on, or permit to be carried on, the business of that prisoner of war as a going concern, and for that purpose to appoint such agents or servants as he considers necessary, and pay them such remuneration as he thinks fit :
 - (g) In the case of a prisoner of war who is no longer in New Zealand, to sell the whole or any part of the real or personal property of that prisoner in New Zealand, and to execute in his name and on his behalf all proper instruments of assurance :
 - (h) In the case of an appointment by a prisoner of war himself, to exercise in respect of the property of the prisoner of war any other powers which may be expressly conferred upon the Public Trustee by that prisoner in the instrument of appointment executed by him.
- (5) All powers conferred upon the Custodian by these regulations may be exercised by him either personally or through such representative as he may think fit to appoint in that behalf.
- (6) All expenses incurred by the Custodian (including such reasonable charges as he thinks fit to make for his services) in the exercise of his powers in respect of the property of any prisoner of war shall be payable out of the moneys received by him as Custodian of that property.

REGULATION 11.—PROBATE AND ADMINISTRATION.

(1) Save with the written consent of the Attorney-General, no person shall, whether on his own behalf or on the behalf of any other person, make or be concerned in making any application to the Supreme Court for probate of the will or of letters of administration of the estate of any person who on his death was an alien enemy, wherever resident, or for the resealing in New Zealand of any probate or letters of administration within the meaning of Part II of the Administration Act, 1908.

(2) Save with the written consent of the Attorney-General, no alien enemy, wherever resident, and no person on behalf of an alien enemy, wherever resident, shall make or be concerned in making any application to the Supreme Court for probate of the will or for letters of administration of the estate of any person deceased, or for the resealing in New Zealand of any probate or letters of administration within the meaning of Part II of the Administration Act, 1908.

(3) No executor, administrator, or trustee of the estate of any deceased person shall, without the written consent of the Attorney-General, distribute or pay any part of the assets or proceeds of that estate to any beneficiary or creditor who is an alien enemy, wherever resident, or to any other person on his behalf.
