

4. Any limitation in any Act, award, apprenticeship order, or agreement as to the age of apprentice or as to the term of any apprenticeship or as to the number of apprentices or proportion of apprentices to journeymen shall not apply to apprentices serving under a contract of apprenticeship revived as aforesaid.

5. If no such notice is given within the said period of six months, the contract of apprenticeship shall thereupon lapse and be determined.

6. Where by reason of the death of the employer or for any other cause the apprentice is unable to revive his contract of apprenticeship any other employer may undertake the obligations of the original employer and, in that case, such other employer shall be deemed to be the original employer.

7. These regulations shall, with the necessary modifications, apply to any contract of apprenticeship that may have been cancelled or suspended before the making of these regulations by reason of the fact that the apprentice had served or had intended to serve in the armed Forces.
