The Occupational Re-establishment Emergency Regulations 1939.

GALWAY, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 11th day of October, 1939.

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

PURSUANT to the Emergency Regulations Act, 1939, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, doth hereby make the following regulations.

REGULATIONS.

1. These regulations may be cited as the Occupational Re-establishment Emergency Regulations 1939.
2. "Employer" includes, in relation to any person accepted for service, any person for the time being carrying on the undertaking or service in which such first-mentioned person was employed when accepted for service, or carrying on any undertaking or service with which that undertaking or service has been amalgamated or in which it was comprised on the date on which such first-mentioned person was accepted for service.
3. These regulations shall be read subject to the Suspension of Apprenticeship Emergency Regulations 1939.
4. It shall be the duty of any employer by whom or by the predecessor of whom, in the relation of employer, a person accepted for service in His Majesty's Forces, whether in New Zealand or overseas, was employed when he was so accepted for service to reinstate him in his employment at the termination of that service or during any period of leave from that service without pay in an occupation and under conditions not less favourable to him than those which would have been applicable to him had he not been so accepted, including the benefit of conditions providing for increments in remuneration, such benefits to attach so as to entitle him to remuneration at the time of reinstatement at the rate which he would then have received had his employment been continuous up to that time.
